A Future with Hope . . .

Learning together

With a new theme and an old story the people of the United Methodist Church in the eastern half of North Carolina gather as an Annual Conference in June.

The story tells of God's steadfast, redeeming love and of God's sometimes faithful, sometimes fickle people. We are the people in that story today, gathering in response to God's initiative, sowing seeds of faith, extending hands in love, conducting the business of the Annual Conference. But it is not "business as usual."

A new theme calls us to envision "A Future with Hope." As in the old story, this future is not our own imagination's invention. We hear today as the prophet heard, "For surely I know the plans I have for you," says the Lord, "plans for your welfare and not to harm, to give you a future with hope." (Jeremiah 29:11) This word came to Jeremiah during Judah's 70 year exile in Babylon. The faithful suffered personal hardship and cultural turmoil. Yet they endured because their hope was strong, based on the promise of God.

The new theme is introduced for the quadrennium (2009 – 2012). Each year an emphasis is given to an aspect of our life together as United Methodist Christians. This year, the emphasis is on Learning. We desire to learn how to be fruitful in our lives as Christian disciples. Conference participants will learn what it takes to be an Acts 2 church, as congregations are called to practice radical hospitality, passionate worship, intentional spiritual formation and risk-taking ministry in the world. Rev. Adam Hamilton, Senior Pastor of The Church of the Resurrection in Kansas City, will teach about effective leadership. Through worship and prayer, the assembly of believers will learn how to listen to the still, small voice of God, whose whispers of hope overpower the drone of depressing daily news from the world.

Dr. Albert Einstein calls us to "learn from yesterday, live for today and hope for tomorrow." As we conduct the business of the Annual Conference and engage in holy conferencing to accomplish our work, we also seek spiritual renewal and power to fulfill the mission of the church, making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

GUEST SPEAKER

ADAM HAMILTON

Rev. Adam Hamilton is the founding pastor of the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, Kansas. He grew up in the Kansas City area, attending Shawnee Mission schools before graduating from Blue Valley High School. He earned a B.A. degree in Pastoral Ministry from Oral Roberts University and a Master of Divinity Degree from Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University.

Adam has received the B'nai B'rith award in Social Ethics, the Denman Award in Evangelism, and the Circuit Rider Award for excellence in church leadership. He was named Distinguished Evangelist of the United Methodist Church by the Foundation for Evangelism, and he was named one of the "Ten People to Watch in America's Spiritual Landscape" by Religion and Ethics Newsweekly. He has been awarded two honorary doctorates and numerous other awards. He currently serves as a Trustee at Saint Paul School of Theology and as a member of the Kansas East Board of Professional Ministry. He lectures on leadership, evangelism and preaching across the country.

The United Methodist Church of the Resurrection has grown from four people in 1990 to over 12,000 adult members with an average weekly worship attendance of over 7,500 in 2008. The church was listed as the most influential mainline church in America in a 2005 survey of American pastors. The Church of the Resurrection has a three-fold focus: 1. Reaching non-religious and nominally religious people and helping them become committed followers of Jesus Christ; 2. Equipping and inspiring members to live their faith in mission to the community and world; and 3. Acting as a catalyst for renewing the mainline church.

Adam is married and has two daughters.

WORSHIP LEADER

ELISE ESLINGER

Growing up as a Methodist preacher's kid in Mississippi, Elise earned her B.A. as a music major from Millsaps College, and was awarded the Masters of Theological Studies by St. Meinrad School of Theology, Indiana, in 1994. She has been a church musician since age fourteen, serving as organist and/or director of music and worship arts ministries in numerous congregations across the country. She served, additionally, as a member of the Conference Council on Ministries staff of the Pacific Northwest Conference on behalf of camping, retreat, youth, intergenerational, spiritual formation, worship and discipleship ministries.

A founding team member of the Upper Room Academy for Spiritual Formation in 1983, Elise was part of the first Advisory Board which created the Upper Room Academy for Spiritual Formation, serving as its first worship coordinator. She has continued in this role or as adjunct faculty presenter for many subsequent 2-year and 5-day Academy teams and other Upper Room programs. She compiled and edited the Upper Room Worshipbook 1985 which was utilized in the Academy sessions for over two decades, as well as in other retreat and seminary contexts and local congregations around the country. She also served as compiler and editor for the exciting and timely new edition of the Worshipbook released in 2006, now in its third printing, and its Accompaniment and Worship Leader edition released in June 2007.

Some of her music and Spanish translations appear in the United Methodist Hymnal. Her work as a member of the worship staff of the General Board of Discipleship during a time of intensive development of new worship and music resources prior to the UM Hymnal 1989 included editorial coordination or contribution toward Celebremos I and 2, Songs of Zion, Hymns for the Four Winds, Psalms for Singing, Singing Our Prayers, and Songs of Shalom.

Elise was the founding Director of the Institute for Applied Theology at United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, and established its Roots and Wings Certificate program for equipping lay leaders and helping clergy re-tool for specialty ministries and new contexts. At UTS she also served as director of the United Sound Seminary Singers, and was deeply engaged in the worship and spiritual life of the seminary and its outreach in the community. She has just retired from these roles at UTS, but is now engaged in the Doctor of Ministry program. She and her husband Dr. Richard Eslinger (who became Academic Dean of UTS in 2008) are frequently called together to be lecturers, retreat leaders, and consultants in many aspects of worship, music, and spiritual formation—including sacramental renewal, preaching and the arts, congregational song and sung prayer, and exploration of the prayer of the Psalms.

She serves regularly as director of the West Ohio Annual Conference Choir, and in varied settings continues to work on behalf of congregations and conference gatherings seeking to renew the hospitable, Wesleyan spirit through worship and song in the emerging 21st century Church.

The Eslingers enjoy three children and their families (especially three grandsons and a new granddaughter), though these loved ones are spread far apart in California, Montana, and North Carolina.

RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE

SECTION I: RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE

1. Applicability and Amendment of these Conference Rules
 - A. The current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall apply to any situation not covered by these rules.

 - D. These rules of order and procedure may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote on the next day after a proposed amendment has been presented in writing.
 - E. These rules of order and procedure of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be come effective immediately upon adoption by the Annual Conference.
2. Motions, Amendments, Reports and Resolutions
 - A. Main motions presented to the Annual Conference shall be in writing and placed in the hands of the Conference Secretary prior to, or immediately following, presentation.
 - B. Reports, recommendations, and resolutions coming from boards, agencies and committees of the Annual Conference to be included in the Pre-Conference book shall be sent to the Conference Secretary, in a format acceptable to the Conference Secretary, on or before the deadline set by the secretary and published in the Annual Conference calendar.
 - C. Resolutions to be presented to the annual conference, other than those coming from boards, agencies, and committees, shall be submitted to the Conference Secretary and the chair person of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference in a format acceptable to the Conference Secretary not less than thirty (30) days prior to the opening of the annual conference*, to allow time for review by the Conference Secretary, the Committee on Resolutions and Reference, and all members of the Annual Conference. Within ten days of the deadline, the Conference Secretary may receive additional resolutions germane to issues contained in the earlier presented Resolutions. Individuals and non-official organizations may submit only one resolution for consideration. These resolutions shall be provided to the members of the Annual Conference at the Clergy Executive Session and the Lay Member Executive Session of the Annual Conference.
 - D. The Committee on Resolutions and Reference shall schedule all properly presented resolutions for consideration by the Annual Conference. The scheduling of resolutions from Conference boards or agencies will not constitute a recommendation for approval, disapproval or referral. Any resolution coming from a source other than an Annual Conference board or agency will be reviewed by this committee, which shall then recommend to the Annual Conference approval, disapproval, or referral to another board or agency. With each report the Committee on Resolutions and Reference shall state the rationale for the recommendation.
 - E. A resolution is considered presented to the Annual Conference when it is distributed in Annual Conference publications, and/or on the Conference website or distributed to members on the floor of the annual conference after authorization by the Conference Secretary or the Assistant Secretary, and chairperson of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference. The expense for distributed copies shall be borne by the agency or person originating the resolution, and all copies distributed shall indicate the source of the resolution. No resolution shall be voted on unless it has been presented at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance. All resolutions shall be referred to the Committee on Resolutions and Reference, which shall report to the annual conference* daily.
 - F. Any report, recommendation, resolution, or motion requiring funding beyond the Annual Conference budget as presented by the Council on Finance and Administration shall be submitted in writing to the Conference Secretary with copies for all the lay and clergy members of the Annual Conference. Any such report, recommendation, resolution, or motion shall be presented at the annual conference* on one day and considered the next day. No such report, recommendation, resolution, or motion shall be distributed later than the second night of the annual conference. All such reports, recommendations, resolutions, or motions shall be referred to the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

3. Speeches
 - A. Speeches shall be limited to three (3) minutes except by consent of the Annual Conference.
 - B. A member may speak only once on any motion until all who desire to speak have done so, and then he/she may speak only one additional time.
 - C. The chairperson of an agency or someone designated by him/her shall be allowed to speak last on his/her report even though the previous questions have been ordered.
4. Voting
 - A. All votes shall be cast in the bar of the annual conference.* The Annual Conference shall determine the bar of the annual conference at the beginning of the first session.
 - B. A count vote may be ordered or called by any member of the Annual Conference supported by one-fifth (1/5) of the members present and voting.
5. Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences
 - A. All votes shall be cast using the official ballot cards authorized by the Annual Conference. Voting for all lay and clergy delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences shall be by secret ballot.
 - B. Prior to the convening of any annual conference* that will elect delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences, the Conference Secretary will publish eligibility requirements and voting procedures for election of delegates.
 - C. Different colored ballot cards will be provided for lay and clergy members.
 - D. The names of persons receiving less than ten (10) votes shall not be reported to the Conference.
 - E. Five alternates to Jurisdictional Conference shall be elected.
 - F. Invalid ballot cards
 - 1) Each round of balloting shall be numbered consecutively, and the chair shall announce the number of the ballot. Only ballot cards with the proper number affixed shall be valid.
 - 2) Defaced ballot cards will be considered invalid. If a member defaces a ballot card, it may be exchanged for an undamaged one at the Conference Secretary's desk.
 - 3) An electronic ballot card will be considered invalid if it is not marked clearly and darkly with a number 2 pencil or black pen.
 - 4) A ballot card will be considered invalid if it has more or less than the number of votes permitted on that particular ballot.
 - 5) A ballot card will be considered invalid if it indicates a vote for a person already elected.
 - 6) A ballot card will be considered invalid if it indicates a vote for someone not eligible.
 - 7) A ballot card will be considered invalid if it shows that a member has voted more than once on the same ballot card for one candidate.

6. Episcopal Nominations

At the conclusion of an Annual Conference that conducts elections for clergy and lay delegates to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference, the entire newly elected Delegation (clergy and laity) will meet. The first clergy elected will be acknowledged as an automatic nominee for bishop. Other nominations will be received from members of the delegation. (All nominees must meet the qualifications for bishop established by the Southeastern Jurisdiction and by The United Methodist Church.) As soon as possible, officers of the Delegation, and/or those whom they designate, will contact the nominees and give them three weeks to discern God's will for their ministries. Those who accept nomination must submit, by July 15, a one-page biographical statement to the Delegation Secretary, who will distribute all such statements to all members of the Delegation. Before September 1, the Delegation will meet and engage the nominees. This day of discernment will include each nominee: making a presentation (10 minutes), responding to a set of questions composed by the Delegation officers or those whom they designate (10 minutes), responding to questions from the floor of the meeting (10 minutes), and offering closing remarks (1 minute). Immediately after meeting with the nominees, the Delegation will vote, perhaps several times, by written ballot. The nominee, who earns the Delegation's endorsement, must receive at least 60% of the votes cast. If after 5 votes the Delegation present has not cast 60% (or more) of its ballots for one nominee, the Delegation and the Annual Conference will not endorse an episcopal nominee in that election cycle. At the Annual Conference immediately before Jurisdictional Conference, the Delegation's nominee will make a brief speech and be endorsed (or not) by vote of the Annual Conference; endorsement by the Annual Conference requires at least 60% of the votes cast. If after 3 votes the Annual Conference members present have not cast 60% (or more) of their ballots for one nominee, the Annual Conference will not endorse an episcopal nominee in that election cycle. A nominee endorsed by the Annual Conference becomes the Annual Conference's nominee for bishop. This policy becomes effective August 1, 2008.

SECTION II : DISTRICTS

1. Number of Districts
 - A. The number of districts shall be twelve. A motion to change the number of districts must be presented in writing, and must be considered no sooner than the day following its introduction. Any change in the number of districts shall be approved at one annual conference to take effect at the next annual conference.*
2. District Conferences
 - A. A district conference may be held annually in each district.
 - B. The district conference, if one is held, shall be composed of members as determined and specified by the Annual Conference giving attention to inclusiveness. The members shall include all North Carolina clergy members within the district, including retirees; district trustees; district presidents of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship, the United Methodist Men, and United Methodist Women; lay members of the Annual Conference; the Lay Leader of each local church; and up to ten at-large members appointed by the District Superintendent to insure inclusiveness. The business of the district conference shall be in accordance with 2008 Book of Discipline paragraph 657-658.
3. The Annual Conference shall elect the district Lay Leaders annually, upon nomination by each District Superintendent and the Annual Conference Lay Leader.

SECTION III : CONFERENCE STRUCTURE

1. The membership of the Annual Conference is to be as outlined in the complete Lay/Clergy Equalization Plan found in the 1991 Journal pages 400 – 01.
2. Committees and Boards
 - A. Tenure for membership for all persons on boards, agencies, commissions, committees, and ministry groups shall be four years with possibility of re-election for a second four-year term.
 - B. The Annual Conference Board of Trustees shall meet at least twice a year at times and places designated by the board. The annual meeting shall be held either at the annual conference* or within thirty (30) days prior thereto.
 - C. This document shall be presented at the opening of the first session of each annual conference.*
 - I. There shall be a Committee on Resolutions and Reference which shall perform the duties assigned to it in the section of these rules titled "Motions, Amendments, Reports and Resolutions."
 - J. There shall be a North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Institutions, Inc. which shall have the responsibility, upon consultation with the Annual Conference Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry, the Annual Conference Commission on Health and Human Services, or the North Carolina United Methodist Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc., as appropriate, for nominating and electing forty (40) percent of all voting members of each of the boards of trustees of the affiliated institutions with the exception of the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. The North Carolina Annual Conference shall elect the trustees of the North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Institutions, Inc. in staggered four-year terms. (See 1992 Journal, page 320.) No person may serve on more than one board of trustees of the institutions for which the Annual Conference elects trustees.

3. The Annual Conference structure is diagramed on page 342 in the 2008 Journal.
 - A. Structure Review Team: This team will annually evaluate the conference structure for effectiveness and faithfulness to the vision and mission of the Annual Conference, working in concert with the Connectional Table to propose changes in structure as needed. Ten persons, one from each Team of Ministry plus the Bishop, Executive Director of Conference Connectional Ministries, and the Conference Lay Leader, plus two at-large members, will be elected by the conference.
 - B. NC Annual Conference Connectional Table
 1. The Connectional Table will provide a forum for the understanding, casting forth, and implementation for the vision of the conference. It shall be the place where ministry and money come to the same table to coordinate the mission, ministries, and resources of the conference. It will be the link among the Teams of Ministry (Leadership Team, Christian Formation Team, Outreach Ministry Team and Stewardship Team) and the agency to which they report. It will provide the primary place in the conference for joint planning and priority setting. It shall report and be amenable to the Annual Conference Session.
Its essential functions are to:
 - a. discern and articulate the vision of the conference
 - b. provide stewardship of the mission, ministry, and resources of the conference and provide fiscal responsibility and establish policies and procedures to carry out the mission
 - c. collaborate with the Council on Finance and Administration by:
 - 1) communicating the vision and priorities of the conference in preparation of budgets for apportioned funds that come before the Annual Conference Session
 - 2) setting allocations of budget requests within totals as recommended by the Council on Finance and Administration the Annual Conference Session
 - 3) as defined in paragraph 613 of The Book of Discipline 2008, the Connectional Table and the Council on Finance and Administration will work to achieve consensus concerning total funds allocated to program agencies
 - d. enable the flow of communication among the boards and agencies, districts and local churches through the Teams of Ministry. To help with the flow of communication one member of the Communications Committee will be assigned to each of the Teams of Ministry.
2. Membership: Meeting on a quarterly basis, membership shall consist of thirty-six (36) voting members:
 - a. Chairs of thirteen boards, agencies, and committees as proposed to the Annual Conference Session each year by the Conference Committee on Nominations

5. The Annual Conference Statistician

- A. The position of Annual Conference Statistician shall be continued on a part-time basis with those duties stipulated by the current edition of the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, with adequate funding provided.
 - B. The Conference Statistician shall be elected at the beginning of each quadrennium, at the first annual conference* following the General Conference of The United Methodist Church.
6. Compensation: The Council on Finance and Administration shall determine, subject to the approval of the Annual Conference, the compensation given officers for their services, as well as the methods and amounts for meeting expenses of these officers. The Conference Treasurer shall pay these amounts.

SECTION IV: FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATION

- 1. The Conference Treasurer and all others receiving and disbursing funds from the Annual Conference shall be required to make audited statements annually, which the Conference Secretary will make available.
- 2. The Council on Finance and Administration shall present the budget for adoption at the annual conference* only after all other matters having claims on the budget have been presented.
- 3. Each District Superintendent shall send to the Conference Treasurer, as early as possible following the completion of the charge conferences, an official copy of the amounts budgeted by each local church for Annual Conference apportionments, and to the Bishop a schedule of the amounts budgeted by each local church for clergy salaries.
- 4. All remittances to the Annual Conference shall be made to the Conference Treasurer.
- 5. Each table of the reports, Tables I, II, and III, shall be completed for individual churches.
- 6. Tables II and III shall be completed in even dollars only.
- 7. Tables I, II, and III shall be printed in the Annual Conference Journal with individual church reports and charge totals as compiled by the Conference Statistician from each pastor's reports.

SECTION V: THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE JOURNAL

- 1. The Annual Conference shall publish a Journal of the North Carolina Annual Conference each year.
- 2. The Conference Secretary shall be charged with the responsibility of editing and making contracts for the publication of the Annual Conference Journal, in keeping with regulations of the General Conference and of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. The editor shall have full authority to condense reports, memoirs, and other papers when necessary.
- 3. One complimentary copy of the Annual Conference Journal, published on a compact disk, shall be sent to each of the following: the Annual Conference claimants, widows and widowers, the educational and church-related institutions of the North Carolina Annual Conference, and lay members and clergy members of the Annual Conference. The Conference Secretary shall have discretionary authority to send copies to such other institutions and agencies of the General Church. Hardbound copies may be purchased from the Conference Secretary's Office at a price based on actual costs and to be determined by the Conference Secretary. Monies accruing from the sale of the Journal shall be deposited with the Conference Treasurer and credited to the Journal account.

SECTION VI: DISPLAYS AT THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

- 1. Display space shall be allocated by the Conference Secretary only to those agencies, boards, commissions, groups or circles of ministry that are officially sanctioned by the North Carolina Annual Conference or by the General Conference of The United Methodist Church. "Officially sanctioned" is defined as having direct, official endorsement from the General Conference of the United Methodist Church or the North Carolina Annual Conference.
- 2. No board, agency or similar official group granted display space or similar privileges shall offer its display space to a group or agency that is not officially sanctioned by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church or the North Carolina Annual Conference.
- 3. Space may be provided in a separate "Ministry and Advocacy" area adjacent to the meeting place of Annual Conference for groups not officially sanctioned by the North Carolina Annual Conference or by the General Conference of The United Methodist Church but that are of interest to the members of the Annual Conference. Display tables and similar matters related to the Ministry and Advocacy area shall be allocated by the Conference Secretary.

Bob Guthrie, Chairperson
James L. Bryan, Conference Secretary

 A note on usage in this document:*

- The terms “North Carolina Annual Conference,” “Annual Conference,” or “Conference” [note the capital letters] refer to the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. These terms refer to an organization.*
- The term “annual conference” [in lower-case letters] refers to the yearly assembly, usually occupying four days in June, at which the North Carolina Annual Conference gathers to worship God and conduct business. This term [not capitalized] refers to this yearly, multi-day convention.*

The term “session” refers to one meeting of the North Carolina Annual Conference occurring on any part of one of those days or to a meeting on a single day for a special or called session. For example, the minutes often refer to the “morning session of the first day of the annual conference” or to the “evening session of Friday of annual conference.” This document avoids the common practice of using the phrase “the annual conference session” to refer to the whole week of meetings in June. This document’s usage would designate that whole series of meetings as “the 2006 annual conference,” or “the 2009 annual conference,” for example

DAILY MINUTES OF THE 2009 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 2009

EXECUTIVE SESSION FOR CLERGY

Elise Eslinger led the clergy in singing a selection of praise songs concluding with Bind Us Together. Bishop Alfred W. Gwinn, Jr. opened the Executive Session with prayer, and called the session to order at 10:00 a. m. Bishop Gwinn gave a word of challenge to the Clergy and asked the members of the Executive session to sing Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee. He stated that this is the 42nd gathering of the Conference as United Methodists. He outlined the membership of the Executive Session. The Bishop asked that consent be granted to the guests present at the Executive Session. Permission was granted by the members of the Executive session.

Passing of Clergy Character

The Bishop encouraged the clergy to be responsible in their living. Bishop Gwinn declared that the District Superintendents were blameless in their life and ministry. Without objection, the Bishop ordered the vote on passing the character of the district superintendents, which passed unanimously. Bishop Gwinn called on each of the district superintendents to report on the character and conduct of the clergy in their districts. With the exception of one pending charge in the Durham District, all twelve districts reported nothing against the clergy. The Bishop asked the Executive Session to vote on the character of the clergy of all districts and the character of the clergy was approved.

Board of Ordained Ministry Report

Bishop Gwinn expressed gratitude to the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry and recognized Chairperson Ned Hill to give the 2009 report of the Board of Ordained Ministry to the Executive Session. Hill expressed appreciation to the Office of Ministerial Relations for their work and help, especially to Robbie Barrett and Linda Bourey. Barrett, who will retire after the 2009 Annual Conference, was honored for her 23 years of service. Hill encouraged the Executive Conference to read the first 14 pages of The Board of Ordained Ministry Annual Report 2009, which contains reports of the various committees. Hill directed the attention of the Executive Session to page 3 of the Board's report, and requested that the nominations for the Board of Managers, Pastors School and Convocation Class of 2013 be elected. The Bishop called for the vote and the nominees were elected. Hill directed attention to Question 31: Who are elected as members in full connection? The candidates were invited to stand before the Executive Session. Bishop Gwinn then addressed the Elders to be elected in full connection and asked them the historic questions. Without objection, the Bishop ordered the vote and they were approved. Elise Eslinger led the Executive Session in the singing of "Have Thine Own Way, Lord" and Bishop Gwinn offered a prayer for the new members.

Hill referred to Question 19 of the Annual Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry: Who are the certified candidates? He noted the change on the Errata Sheet. The Candidates receiving an appointment for the first time were recognized and received applause. Hill referred to Question 42: Who are discontinued as probationary (provisional) members? The name of Gail Ingram Myers was added. Patricia Archer was recognized and she spoke to the recommendation to discontinue Anita Jane Kimbrough. John Dutton, Daniels Memorial (GO), spoke for and on behalf of Anita Kimbrough, requesting that she be continued. Bishop Gwinn called for the vote for the continuation of all those listed except Kimbrough and they were approved.

Hill recognized Francis Daniel to speak on behalf of the Theology and Doctrine Committee. Daniel reported that Kimbrough had difficulties in several of the Board's committees and was given opportunities to correct problems. The Board, while affirming her work, nevertheless recommended her discontinuation. Bishop Gwinn called for the vote on Kimbrough and she was discontinued as a Probationary Deacon. He then directed the Executive Session to pages 17-22, Question 21(a), 21(b), 21(c) and 21(d): Who are approved and appointed as Local Pastors? The Bishop called for the approval of the local pastors, and they were approved. Hill directed the attention of the Executive Session to Questions 22 and 24 which were all informational. Christopher Chikoore questioned his listing as a member of another Methodist Denomination. It was determined that Chikoore was listed in error under Question 24 (b). Hill referred to Question 25: What clergy in good standing in other Christian denominations have been approved to serve appointments or ecumenical ministries within the bounds of the Annual Conference while retaining their denominational affiliation? Bishop Gwinn called for the vote on question 25, and those listed were approved. Hill referred to Question 26 (b), page 24: Affiliate Members of the NC Annual Conference. The Bishop asked the Executive Session to approve these by the required 2/3 vote and they were approved. Hill referred to Question 27: Who are elected as associate members? The Bishop called for a vote and Sue Harvey Owens was approved. Hill directed the members to Question 28: Who are elected as probationary (provisional) members? One person was listed as probationary Deacon and seventeen people were listed as probationary Elders. They stood before the Executive Session and were asked the historic questions and were further encouraged by Bishop Gwinn. The Bishop called for a vote and they were approved.

Bishop Gwinn asked the Executive Session to grant permission to the Board of Ordained Ministry to examine Gregory Moore, who was absent due to family reasons. A vote was taken and permission was granted.

Hill directed the attention of the Executive Session to pages 26-27 and to those listed under Question 29: Continuing Probationary Members. The name of Gail Ingram Myers was deleted under Question 29 (b). The Bishop asked that those continuing on the probationary member track stand and be recognized by the Executive Session. Hill directed attention to Question 33: Who are elected as members in full connection? The Bishop ordered the vote and they were elected by the required 2/3 majority. Hill addressed Question 41 and added the name Jay William Bissett who transferred to the Western NC Conference. Hill addressed Question 43. The Bishop called for a vote and those on honorable location were approved. Hill addressed Question 44: Who have been granted the status of honorable location – retired? Question 44 (a), Leon Jackson Pernell, required a vote. Bishop Gwinn called for the vote and Pernell was approved. Hill referred to Question 46 (a): Who have had their conference membership terminated by withdrawal to unite with another denomination? The Bishop called for the vote and it was approved. Hill then referred to Question 46 (c), termination by withdrawal or complaint. The Bishop called for a vote and it was approved. The name of Jay William Bissett was deleted from Question 49. Hill directed the Executive Session to Question 50: Who are the probationary or ordained members on leave of absence? The Bishop called for the vote to approve those under Question 50(a) and they were approved. Ellen Hope Metcalf's and Susanna Ross Helms' leaves of absence, both exceeding 5, years were approved by the required 2/3 majority. The Bishop called for the vote to approve Cheryl Wynn Brown's family leave under Question 50 (a) (2) and it was approved. The name of Robert Michael Hammond was deleted from Question 50 (c)(2). Without objection, the Bishop ordered the vote and those listed under Question 50(c) were approved. Hill addressed Question 52, Incapacity Leave, and asked for approval for those listed. Without objection, the Bishop ordered the vote on 52(c) and they were approved. Questions 53-56 concerning retirement of clergy were addressed by Hill, who read the name of each person retiring in the current year. These clergy were approved for retirement and were greeted with applause from the Executive Session. The Bishop expressed his gratitude to the retirees. Hill referred to Questions 60 and 61 which were informational only. Hill addressed question 76 on pages 44-46. Hearing no objection, the Bishop ordered the vote to approve those in less than full-time service and they were approved by the required 3/4 majority. Question 82 was referred to for information only. Hill then submitted the Board of Ordained Ministry report as a whole for approval. The Bishop called for the approval of the entire report and it was approved. The Executive Session was directed to Question 48: What elders in full connection have died during the year? The Executive Session stood as the names were read by Hill. In addition, Hill read the names of the spouses who had died listed under Question 48(f). The Bishop led the Executive Session in prayer. Elise Eslinger led the singing of The Lord's Prayer. Secretary James Bryan made announcements and the Executive Session concluded with the singing of My Hope Is Built at 11:53 A.M.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 2009 EXECUTIVE SESSION FOR LAITY

Conference Lay Leader, Emily Innes, opened the Laity session at 10:00 a.m. with introduction of the members of the Board of Laity. An overview of Annual Conference was given by Bill Norton. A Service of Worship was led by members of the Board of Laity with special music by LeeAnne Thornton and Others. The sermon was a DVD of Bishop Ernest S Lyght from General Conference, "Someone's Knocking at the Door." Following the sermon an explanation of an upcoming DVD was presented by Emily Innes. Phyllis Jacobs led prayers for our local churches. A closing prayer was led by Ed Mann and Patty Stricklin.

Opening Worship Service:

Bishop Alfred W. Gwinn, Jr. presided at the opening worship service. Elise Eslinger served as worship and music leader. An offering was received in the amount of $10,966.92 for MERCI. The communion service concluded at 3:20 p.m.

Plenary Session:

Elise Eslinger led the singing of And Are We Yet Alive. Bishop Alfred W. Gwinn, Jr. called the 42nd session of the North Carolina United Methodist Church Annual Conference to order at 3:29 p.m. This is the 184th Conference of The Methodist Church in North Carolina and the 225th year of Methodism in the United States.

Organization of the Conference:

Motions of Order:

James Bryan, Conference Secretary, made the following motions of order:

"That the bar of the Annual Conference be the Main Meeting Room and Stage of the Greenville Convention Center. That the records of the registrar at the registration table be the Official Roll of the North Carolina Annual Conference – 2009. The agenda shown in the 2009 Conference Workbook be the Official Agenda of the 2009 Annual Conference; and that the agenda may be amended from time to time by the presiding officer (the Bishop) as necessity and expedience may require. That the persons appearing on the agenda, who are not members of the North Carolina Annual Conference, be granted the privilege of the floor. And that the Staff Members and Committee Members, who are listed on pages 8 and 9 of the 2009 Conference Workbook be elected." The Bishop called for the vote on the motions of order and they were approved.

Report of the Committee on Conference Rules: Bob Guthrie, chairperson, presented the report of the Committee on Conference Rules; printed in the 2009 Conference Workbook, pages 14-23. In Section I(1)(C), the spelling of "superseded" was corrected Under Section I(2)(B) he pointed out submissions for Annual Conference should be in an acceptable form, not type written, and he noted the additional wording in Section I(2)(E), and/or on the Conference website. Section I(3)(A) was amended to read "...Conference, and shall alternate between pro and con." Section III(3) was changed to follow the structure diagramed on page 342 in the 2008 Journal and as defined in paragraph 613 of the Book of Discipline 2008.

Motion to Amend:

Ken Ripley, lay member Spring Hope (RM) moved to add "or resolution" after the word report in Section I(1)(3)(C) on page 14. Guthrie responded to Ripley's amendment stating resolutions were already part of the rules and printed elsewhere.

Without objection, the Bishop ordered the vote and motion failed.

Motion to Amend:

John Dooly, Apex (RA), moved to add "as available" to the end of the sentence in Section I(3)(A). Guthrie responded to the Dooly motion. The Bishop called for the vote and the motion failed.

Point of Information:

Patrick Sinclair, Singletary (WI), stated an opinion on the Dooly motion. Without objection, the Bishop ordered a vote on the rules of order by the Conference and they were adopted.

Welcome:

Bishop Gwinn recognized The Reverend Powell Osteen, Wilmington District, as the host district superintendent for the annual conference. Osteen invited his wife, Mary Lynne, to escort Mrs. Wanda Gwinn, the Bishop's mother, and Joyce Gwinn, the Bishop's wife, to the stage. The Osteen's presented corsages on behalf of the Wilmington District to both Mrs. Gwinns.

Greetings:

Patricia Dunn, Mayor of Greenville, NC, was recognized by Bishop Gwinn to address the Conference. She asked the Conference if they remembered what she encouraged the delegates to do in 2008. When no one remembered she reminded the delegates to eat out in the area restaurants and shop in town. Dunn welcomed members and guests of the Annual Conference to her great city.

Report of the Episcopacy:

Episcopacy Chairperson Cashar Evans presented the report. Evans recognized the other members on the Committee and they were greeted by the Conference with applause. Evans recognized Sandy Smith as retiring secretary to the Bishop and offered words of praise and appreciation for her dedicated service to the Office of Bishop. Evans stated the Committee has recognized Bishop Gwinn as effective, gifted, innovative leader of The NC Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church. Both Mrs. Gwinns were asked to stand again and they received a greeting from the Conference. Evans offered a prayer for Bishop Gwinn and his family.

Recognition of Special Guests:

Bishop Gwinn Bishop then turned to recognition of special guests. He recognized The Reverend Dr. Belton Joyner, the Secretary of the Judicial Council of the United Methodist Church. The Reverend Dr. Timothy Tennent, the new President of Asbury Theological Seminary, was introduced and invited to address the Conference.

Report of the United Methodist Publishing House:

Cindy Keen, Raleigh Cokesbury Manager, brought the report from the United Methodist Publishing House. Keen addressed the Conference and outlined some of the ways that Cokesbury supports the ministry of pastors and churches. Keen recognized Carl Frazier, member of the United Methodist Publishing House Board of Directors. Frazier stated that the Raleigh Cokesbury store is always among the top 3 performing Cokesbury stores in the country. Frazier announced that due to economic pressures, there will not be a gift on behalf of the Publishing Board to the NC Annual Conference this year.

Conference Committee on Nominations:

Carol Goehring, Executive Director Conference Connectional Ministries, presented the Nominations Report. Goehring introduced Elise Eslinger, the Worship and Music Leader for the 2009 Annual Conference. Goehring presented the nominations for the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry Board Members of Wesley Foundation at various Universities in NC. The Bishop ordered the vote and they were elected. The Bishop asked if there were questions concerning other Committee or Agency nominations presented by Goehring in the report.

Point of Information:

Milford Oxendine, Cordova (RO), rose to a point of information expressing concern over the makeup of the Board of Ordained Ministry. The Bishop ruled him out of order.

The Bishop ordered a vote on the report of the Nominations Committee and the Nominations. The report was adopted and those listed were elected. Goehring then presented a list of those who will serve on the Justice for Our Neighbors (JFON) organization within the Annual Conference. These names can be found on the 2009 Nominations for Boards, Commissions and Committees sheet.

Report of Council on Finance and Administration:

Danny Allen, president of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration, presented the Council's report which is printed on pages 56-70 of the 2009 Conference Workbook. Allen spoke of the current financial stresses and announced a reduction of more than $400,000 from the 2010 budget. Christine Dodson, Conference Treasurer, was recognized to address the Conference. She outlined the following changes to the 2010 budget found on page 56: Line 9, decreased by $66,000; line 10 increased $11,000 due to a restructuring; Line 20, Campus Ministry will be reduced by about $13,000. In line 21, Youth Ministry is decreased by $6,000. In line 22, Young Adults is increased by $4,000 due to restructuring. In line 23, Children's Ministry is decreased by $3,945; Line 24 is a part of the restructuring; Line 25, Education and Nurture is decreased by $10,000. There are further reductions in Line 30 Archives & History; and line 35, Hispanic/Latino Ministries. There are reductions taken in line 39, Board of Ordained Ministry Sexual Ethics salary and benefits. Line 43, Board of Laity, will be increased by $2,700. The reduction in line 45, Clergy Counseling & Consultation, includes the elimination of a staff position. The decrease in line 64, Conference Journal Printing, is due to the limited number of Journals to be printed; line 83, Minister's Transition Fund, will decrease because the Conference contributions to the Minister's Transition Fund will be reduced to $0. The total reductions total $492,439, which significantly reduces the budget request for 2010. These proposed reductions bring the total 2010 budget to $19,642,824. The new total for the 2011 budget will be $20,276,199.

Point of Parliamentary Inquiry:

Jimmie Tatum, Erwin-Parkers Grove (FA), rose to a point of Parliamentary Inquiry and asked if it would be appropriate to make a motion to amend the 2010-2011 budget. The Bishop informed Tatum that the request had to be submitted prior to bringing to the floor.

Motion to Amend:

Tom Perkins, Rose Hill (GO), "That the Amended 2010 Budget, which reduced the funding for the Hispanic/Latino Ministries, restore funding to line item 35 - in the amount of $16,300 and remain funded at this level for the 2011 budget." The Bishop ruled him out of order, directing him to put his request in writing which is in line with the Rules of Order.

Motion to Amend:

Regina Dickens, Chair of Commission on Clergy Counseling and Consultation, presented a motion from the Commission to amend the budget for clergy counseling requesting to restore money to line item 45. This motion was distributed to the Conference members on a typed green sheet. The motion received a second. This motion will be debated and voted on at another time during Conference.

Point Parliamentary inquiry:

Jim Mentzer, UM Foundation Director of Planned Giving, was rose to a point of parliamentary inquiry regarding Line 83 on the 2011 proposed budget. Mentzer asked, "Does CF&A have the power to overrule a decision by the Board of Pensions with regard to the Ministers Transition Fund line item for budget year 2011.” Ken Ripley, lay member Spring Hope (RM), was recognized and rose to a point of information. Jan Thornton-Irvine, Mebane (BU), rose to a point of information. Amanda Dixon, lay member Rock Creek (BU), rose to a point of information. The Bishop asked Jerry Bryan to respond to Dixon’s question.

Allen moved the adoption of Section II. Without objection, the Bishop ordered the vote and Section II was adopted. After a brief explanation, Allen presented Sections III and IV and moved their adoption. The Bishop ordered the vote and they were approved. Allen presented Sections VI (for information only) and VII. He moved the adoption of Section VII and it was adopted. Allen then directed the Conference to Section V on page 67. CF&A recommended raising the district superintendents’ salary for 2010 to $1102,902. Allen moved the approval of the salary. Without objection, the Bishop ordered a vote on the district superintendents’ salary, and it passed.

Motion to Amend:

Milford Oxendine moved that the “D.S. Salary remain at 2008 level for 2010. Further move, that their salaries be frozen for 5 years.” He received a second. Beverly Leggett, lay member Washington: Asbury (GR), spoke for the amendment. Jeff LeBlanc, lay member Oak Grove (DU), rose to a point of information. Jeanne Neal, Haw River (BU), rose to a point of information requesting clarification as to the question of the D.S.’s giving back their raise to the districts. Barton Baldwin, Mt. Olive: First (GO), spoke against the amendment. Neal Salter, Emmanuel (BU), rose to a point of information. Amanda Dixon, lay member Rock Creek (BU), rose to a point of information.

Motion to Amend:

Ken Ripley, lay member Spring Hope (RM), offered an amendment to the Oxendine motion to keep the district superintendents’ salary the same in 2010 as the 2009 salary. Charles Michael Smith, Retired (GR), spoke against the amendment. Laura Early, All God’s Children (EC), rose to a point of information.

Motion to end debate:

Beth Norris, lay member Edenton Street (RA), moved the previous question and debate was ended. The vote was taken on the Ripley amendment to the amendment which failed. The Bishop order the vote on the Oxendine amendment and the amendment failed. Without objection, the Bishop ordered a vote on the district superintendents’ salary as printed in Section V, and it passed.

Allen moved the adoption of the report as a whole except Section I and it was approved.

Report of The Methodist Home for Children:

Bruce Stanley, Director of The Methodist Home for Children, brought the Report of the MHC. Stanley gave testimony to the work of The MHC and ended his report with a video of two young women talking about their experience and how they were helped by the Methodist Home for Children.

Announcements:

Secretary James Bryan made announcements. The MERCI offering taken at the opening communion service totaled $10,966.92. Conference Lay Leader Emily Innes led a prayer and the Conference was dismissed for dinner at 5:45 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 2009
EVENING SESSION

The Service of Commissioning and Ordination began at 7:30 p.m. The liturgists were Bishop Alfred Wesley Gwinn, Jr., The Reverend Grace Hackney, The Reverend Andrew Keck, The Reverend Deborah Wilkins, and Mr. James Van Staalduinen. The Reverend William J. Weisser served as marshal and the Reverend Edward F. Hill, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, and Mrs. Emily Innes, the Conference Lay Leader, presented the candidates who were commissioned and ordained. Bishop Gwinn preached a sermon entitled In the Midst of New Dimensions. The Reverend R. Julian Irvine served as organist. One person was recognized and received as an associate member; one candidate was commissioned as probationary member - deacon track; seventeen were commissioned as probationary members - elder track; and thirty candidates were ordained as Elders in Full Connection. After the service, there was a reception for the ordinands. (For a synopsis of the entire service see worship bulletin, A Service of Commissioning and Ordination.)

THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 2009
MORNING SESSION

Worship/Bible Study:

The Reverend Grace Hackney led the morning Bible Study. The music and worship leader was Elise Eslinger. Following the conclusion, preparations were made for the morning business session.

Plenary Session:

Bishop Gwinn called the Conference to order at 9:10 a.m.

Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry:

Ned Hill, chairperson of the Board, presented the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. He described the review process that the Board of Ordained Ministry uses. The Bishop welcomed and thanked the Board of Ordained Ministry members as they stood. Hill recognized the first-time licensed local pastors who then came forward to receive their licenses along with a gift presented from the Bishop.

Introduction To Constitutional Amendments:

Beth Hood and Emily Innes introduced the Constitutional Amendments to the Annual Conference. Hood and Innes encouraged the members of the Conference to be informed before voting, and explained the voting procedure.

Workshop Introductions:

Carol Goehring, Conference Connectional Ministries Executive Director, introduced the workshops that would be offered at Annual Conference beginning at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday evening. The 5 workshops, open to lay and clergy members are: "Reaching and Transforming the Lives of a New Generation" led by Marty Cauley; "Where Does That Conference Money Go?" led by Emily Innes and Christine Dodson; "Mission Possible, Transforming Existing Congregations" led by Reggie Ponder; "Web Presence, Web Schmesence: Why Do I Need One of Those?" Led by Derek Leek and Douglas Ward; and "Mining the Conflict" led by Beth Crismon.

Report of the Committee on Insurance:

Chairperson Jim Mentzer presented the report of the Committee on Insurance. Mentzer stated that the premiums for Retired and Active Clergy Health Insurance and Life Insurance would remain the same in 2010 as in 2009. He gave much of the credit for the stability of the rates to the Wellness Program that the Conference has embarked on for the clergy. Other information is printed in the Book of Handouts, 2009 on pages 6 and 7. He announced a new mail-order prescription program which will require two co-pays for a 90 day supply. Mentzer moved the adoption of the report of the Committee on Insurance. Gwinn ordered the vote and the Insurance report was adopted.

Report of the Task Force on Retiree Health Benefits:

Gray Southern presented the report of the Task Force on Retiree Health Benefits. A $35 million dollar liability for Retiree Insurance remains. He addressed issues concerning the past service liability apportionment and how it was collected and used. The past-service apportionment to fund the health insurance needs of the Retired pastors may need to remain in place for the next 10-12 years. Southern moved the adoption of the Task Force report. Without objection, Bishop Gwinn ordered the vote and the report of the Task Force on Retiree Benefits was adopted.

Report of Commission on Equitable Compensation:

Para Drake presented the report of the Commission on Equitable Compensation found on pages 29-31 in the 2009 Conference Workbook. Drake outlined the mission and purpose of Equitable Compensation and gave a report of the Clergy Compensation Study Commission. She moved the adoption of the Commission's report.

Amendment:

Jerry Martin, Swepsonville (BU), moved to "freeze salary at 2009 level and ask for a covenant for all pastors to reject all raises." The Bishop called this an amendment to the report of the Commission on Equitable Compensation. Beverly Leggett, lay delegate, Washington: Asbury (GR), spoke in favor of the amendment to freeze minimum salary. Milford Oxendine, Cordova (RO), spoke against the amendment. Jeanne Neal, Haw River (BU), spoke in favor of the amendment. Ken Ripley, lay member Spring Hope (RM), rose to a point of information. Bob Rose, Hawkins-Tabor Charge (RM), rose to a point of information. Christine Dodson, Conference Treasurer, responded to his question. Glenn Everett, Retired (EC), moved the previous question. Without objection, Bishop Gwinn ordered the vote and the Martin amendment was adopted.

Joseph Frana, Salem-Harris Chapel (DU), rose to a point of information.

Point of Parliamentary Inquiry:

Sam Wynn, Fayetteville District, rose to a point of parliamentary inquiry to clarify the voting procedure on the Equitable Compensation report. Jim Reed, Kenly-Buckhorn (GO), rose to a point of information.

Motion to Divide the House

Beth Norris, lay member Edenton Street (RA), moved to divide the house and the decision of the chair was sustained.

Carol Dean, Plank Chapel (DU), was recognized for a point of information. The Bishop ruled Dean's suggestion for student minimum compensation out of order. The Bishop ordered the vote on the whole report. Joe Casteel, Hampstead (WI), rose to a point of information. Gray Southern, Durham District, rose to a point of information. Bishop Gwinn asked the house if they were ready for the question. The Bishop ordered the vote on the whole report as amended and it was adopted.

Report of the Board of Pensions:

Chairperson Don Phillips directed the attention of the Conference to the Board of Pensions report in the 2009 Conference Workbook, pages 35-52. He deleted the name Robert Michael Hammond in Section V(B) on page 36. Phillips moved the adoption of Report A as corrected. Bishop Gwinn called for the vote and it was adopted. Phillips directed the Conference to Report B and pointed out the new items. He gave details about Section J, 1-5 on page 44. Phillips moved the adoption of Report B. Without objection, the Bishop ordered the vote and Report B was adopted. He then moved the adoption of Report C and it was adopted. Phillips introduced Report D, Ministers' Transition Fund, found on pages 47-52. He pointed out the changes in headings under Section IV(A) and (B). He made one correction in Section VIII (B) (1) (b): change 45,000 to $49,000. He moved the adoption of Report D. Without objection, the Bishop ordered the vote and it was adopted. Phillips concluded his report by thanking the staff and others that helped the Board of Pensions do their work and by presenting a video from the General Church. Phillips then moved the adoption of the full report of the Board of Pensions. The Bishop, finding no objections, ordered the vote and the full report of the Board of Pensions was adopted.

Break:

Bishop Gwinn gave a brief break to prepare for the order of the day.

Order of the Day - All Saints Celebration - Memorial Service:

Bishop Alfred W. Gwinn, Jr. presided, The Reverend Herbert Lowry, Jr. preached, The Reverend Heather Rodrigues and The Reverend Owen Barrow served as liturgists. Special music was provided by Michael Stephenson, saxophone; Cheryl Stephenson, oboe; and Josh Dumbleton, piano and organ. As the Bishop read the name of each one who had died, a bell tolled, and family members and friends lit a candle for each person named. (For synopsis of entire service, see worship bulletin, All Saints Celebration and Memorial Service, Thursday, June 11, 2009).

THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 2009 AFTERNOON SESSION

Order of the Day - Retiree Recognition Service:

Bishop Gwinn called for the Order of the Day: Retiree Recognition Service. Bishop Alfred W. Gwinn, Jr. was liturgist; The Reverend Janet Balasko was lector; and The Reverend Keith Nanney preached. The organist was Josh Dumbleton. The Reverend James Donald Phillips, Pensions Chairperson, conducted the recognition of the retirees. Retiring clergy were given the opportunity to record a video to be presented as their names were read. For those who did not submit a video, a PowerPoint slide with their names and appointments were displayed on the screens as their names were read. At the conclusion of the Retirement Recognition Service, Bishop Gwinn announced a brief break while the stage was being reset.

Afternoon Session:

Bishop Gwinn called Afternoon Session to order at 3:04 p. m.

Rethink Church:

Bill Norton, Communications Director, presented the Rethink Church Communications Division campaign. He tossed a Rethink Church tee-shirt to Bishop Gwinn. Norton recognized Ken Sloan from UMCorn from Nashville who presented a video. Sloan talked about three strategies of Rethink Church: (1) To Change the perception of The United Methodist Church held by the people that are outside the church. (2) To redefine the churches' experience beyond Sundays and beyond their building. (3) To return to the first century model of church as an experience interwoven into people's lives. As the next evolution of the "Open hearts. Open minds. Open doors" welcoming and advertising campaign, RETHINK CHURCH seeks to redefine the church experience beyond the church doors and invite people to become engaged in the world. The campaign aims to spark a global conversation around the rhetorical question, "What if church were a verb?" More information can be found at 10thousanddoors.org or rethinkchurch.org.

Celebration of the Acts 2 Churches:

Emily Innes, Conference Lay Leader, presented this year's seventy-nine Acts 2 Churches. Each district lay leader read the names of their respective Acts 2 Churches. A PowerPoint presentation was shown featuring each district with photographs highlighting each church's ministry. Every Acts 2 Church will receive a certificate which will be distributed by their district lay leader.

Report of New Church Starts/Congregation Development:

Gary Allred presented the report for New Church and Congregational Development. Allred thanked Irene Brownlee for her work as acting Congregational Development Director over the past year. Allred talked about 3 questions he asks before embarking upon a project of any kind: (1) Do I believe in it? (2) Do I live it? (3) Do I believe others should live by it? The function and focus of the Congregational Development Team's strategies are: the Team believes in it, pastors, members and supporters have lived it directly, and they believe every pastor and congregation of the NC Annual Conference should live it. Members of the Commission on Congregational Development stood and received applause. A video showing ministries in new congregations was presented. Allred noted that Congregational Development is responsible for administering the $10 Club which in this past year gave a $50,000 grant to Trinity UMC in Sanford, a $25,000 grant to Evangelical Methodist Church of Condega, Nicaragua, and a grant for salary support for emerging Hispanic ministry in Apex. Churches receiving first year support were: Trinity UMC, Sanford; Water's Edge Campus of Trinity UMC, Hubert; Showers of Blessing Community Church, Cleveland Community; Abundant Life, Cary/Durham area; and Trinity Cleveland community of Johnston County. Second year churches receiving support were: Cornerstone Korean, Fayetteville; Crossroads, Fayetteville; Closer Walk, Leland; and Wakefield, Wake Forest. Churches receiving third year support were: Shepherd's House, Durham; All Saints, Brier Creek community in Wake/Durham County; and Greater Heights, Clayton. Terry Buckner, Closer Walk (WI), shared some of the exciting things that are happening in the Leland area. Many of the children in the general area of Closer Walk's location are on free or reduced lunch. The church has been approved to administer a government sponsored program and will serve free breakfasts and lunches to area children during the summer. Closer Walk will sponsor Vacation Bible School for three months between breakfast and lunch to reach out to the community and spread the Word. Matt Evans, Greater Heights (GO), shared what the people of Greater Heights have been doing. Fifteen of their members will travel to Jamaica in July to do construction for a church.

Report of the Trustees:

Chairperson Cashar Evans presented the report of the Conference Trustees. Evans directed attention to the written report of the Board of Trustees, which was a double-sided handout included in the registration packet. Evans asked Christine Dodson and her staff to stand and then expressed appreciation for their work with the Trustees. He gave an overview of the role of the Conference Trustees and highlighted several projects. Evans then directed the Conference to an update of the new 33,500 square feet building project. Ground-breaking was held May 28, 2009 and it expected to be completed by May 2010. He encouraged the Members to visit the website, which will be updated weekly, to see the progress on the building. Evans gave an update on the property which continues to be insured through the North Carolina Conference Property and Casualty Trust (PACT). PACT was formed as part of the denominational trust providing property and casualty insurance solutions for local churches He moved the adoption of the Report of the Trustees.

Point of Information:

Bob Kretzu, Parkwood (DU), rose to a point of information. Kretzu inquired about the funding of the new building with the proceeds from the sale of the old building, land and townhouse tract. He also inquired about the Wardlaw bequest and if the Trustees had complied with the family's intention. Evans replied that the sale of the old building and land had been completed but the Townhouse tract had not been sold to date and was still on the market. Concerning the Warlaw request, Evans stated that the original gift of land was subject to flooding depending on the lake's water level. The Trustees sold that tract and purchased another lot on the lake. The remaining funds from the original sale of the lake lots are invested. The Trustees are still in the process of determining how to best utilize the funds and if it feasible to have a lake home for clergy to use and share. John Bergland, Commission on Archives and History Chair, rose to a point of information. He was concerned about the amount of space needed for Archives and History. A corner of the media room in the new building has been allocated.

Point of Information:

Dennis Levin, Ayden (GR), rose to a point of information. Levin was concerned about the cost to carry liability insurance, especially given the sexual harassment policy rider. Levin asked if the Trustees had any intention of setting up a policy in which to insure local churches. Evans responded that the Trustees are continually frustrated with secondary carriers and with Zurich, the secondary carrier. PACT has put out for bids to (1) find a new secondary carrier or (2) get Zurich to respond more favorably. Evans also stated that at this time the Trustees do not have any plans for a Conference mandated insurance policy, although some Conferences have instituted such a policy. The Trustees continue to look for lower cost policies but have an equal or greater concern for adequate coverage.

Motion to Amend:

Reggie Ponder, Retired (GO), moved "that the Annual Conference Board of Trustees be directed to hold a hearing, duly noticed to all members of the Conference, board & agency chairs, staff and other interested parties who are part of the Annual Conference, to be given an opportunity to receive and review the plans for the new Conference headquarters, to share insights and concerns and to pose questions, as well as to offer suggestions concerning the proposed plans for the Conference Headquarters.” Ponder pled for full openness to ensure the building plans served the needs of all people. Bill Simpson, Conference Historian, rose to a point of information and expressed appreciation for Evans and the work of the Board of Trustees. Simpson spoke in favor of the Ponder motion and he, too, is concerned about the inadequate space provided for the Archives and History. Carol Goehring, Executive Director Conference Connectional Ministries rose to a point of information asking what the cost would be associated with the delay of the project, security and the environmental controls for the Archives. Evans replied that input had been solicited by email and on the website, a letter had been mailed in December, and there had been blurbs in the Treasurer’s report. Evans stated that the space in the building design is what the Commission on Archives and History had requested at that time. Evans further explained that on February 27, 2009 Simpson reviewed the plans and expressed concern at that time. Evans went on to say that an email was sent to Simpson prior to the final decision made on May 20, 2009. Simpson responded to that email stating he was out of the country and would respond when he returned. Evans stated he still has not received a response. During the last week of May, Evans asked about an additional 1,500 square feet. The consultants replied that it would cost another $255,500 and could possibly delay the project an additional 60 days because of scheduling the different agencies that must approve the building plans.

Bishop Gwinn declared Ponder’s motion an amendment to the report of the Trustees.

Point of Information: Arthur Warren, Vice President SEJ Historical Society, rose to a point of information. Warren stated on October 6, 2008 John Bergland was elected to replace him as the chair of the Commission on Archives and History. Warren stated that he had responded to emails and assumed they would get to the proper people during the transition of Commission chair. Evans responded he had not received the Warren emails. Carol Dean, Plank Chapel (DU), spoke against the Ponder amendment. She raised the issue of costs for new contracts and redesigning/re-engineering fees and urged the Conference to move forward with the project as designed. Dean inquired about using digital technology to preserve historic documents. Simpson again rose to a point of information stating that an original copy of most documents must be retained for archives. Simpson asked if the Conference could see the interior design of the building and if the interior walls could be moved. Evans replied that they could be moved.

Motion to End Debate:

Ginger Thomas, Duke Memorial (DU), rose and moved the previous question and debate was ended. Evans closed discussion by stating the plans approved on May 20, 2009 had been sent to the City of Garner and if changes were made to those plans, including the moving of interior walls, everything would need to go back through the approval process. The Bishop ordered the vote on the Ponder Amendment and the amendment failed. James Malloy, Sanford Circuit (SA), rose to a point of information and inquired if the building’s doors would meet the qualification for Safe Sanctuary doors. Evan replied that they would. Ken Ripley, lay member Spring Hope (RM), rose to a point of information concerning handicap access. Evans responded that the design team had included handicapped access as well as other features. The Bishop called for a vote to see if the Conference was interested in seeing the interior design of the new building. The initial vote was inconclusive. The Bishop then called for a standing vote and the Conference voted to examine the interior design of the new build. Bishop Gwinn asked for a visual of the interior design to be shown to the members later during Annual Conference.

Without objection, the Bishop brought the question before the Conference to adopt the report of the Trustees as presented by Evans. The Trustees report was adopted.

Report Higher Education and Campus Ministries:

Chairperson Carl King addressed the Conference and spoke about the positive influence Campus Ministry has in shaping Christians for active involvement in their churches. King talked about two ways Campus Ministry influences students: First, higher education is eliminating poverty by educating first generation college students. Second, Campus Ministry is strengthening clergy and lay leadership. This year there are six students enrolled who have answered the call to ministry. King asked that clergy whose lives have been shaped by Campus Ministry stand and be recognized. King then introduced the two new College Presidents: Dr. James Gray III, President of North Carolina Wesleyan College; and Dr. Mark La Branche, President of Louisburg College. Le Branche and Gray brought greetings to Conference. Bishop Gwinn challenged the entire Conference to speak positively of our NC Annual Conference Colleges.

Break:

Report of Camp and Retreat Ministries:

Mike Safley, a member of the Board of Directors for the NC United Methodist Camp and Retreat Ministries, introduced Robert (Bobby) Harris III as the new Director of the North Carolina United Methodist Camp and Retreat Ministries. Harris stated that there will be 4,000 children involved in camping this summer and over 10,000 people in Retreat Ministries throughout the rest of the year. Harris had great fun with the Conference teaching them how to sound like pond frogs found at the Conference camps. Harris introduced Robbie Barrett and gave her the opportunity to tell a story about her camping experience. Barrett was honored for her gift of $100,000 to build the Barrett Cabin at Camp DonLee. Harris introduced Rhonda Parker, Camp Chestnut Ridge Director, and David Weber, Camp Rockfish Director. He reported that John Farmer is recovering from a quadruple bypass.. Harris concluded with a tee-shirt throw.

Report of the Task Force on Institutional Relationships:

Bill Simpson, Task Force Chair, presented the report and referred to the printed report in the 2009 Conference Workbook, page 76 and page 8 of the Book of Handouts, 2009. Simpson noted that his report included information concerning the conference-related institutions such as the colleges, children's homes, retirement homes, Asbury Homes and camps. He requested that the Conference Connectional Table set aside one day each year to celebrate the Ministry of the Conference's Institutions. The Bishop stated this would be added to the Conference calendar therefore a vote would not be required.

Report of the Academy for Leadership Excellence:

Larry Coats, Chairperson of the Trustees of the Academy for Leadership Excellence, presented the report. He introduced Brian Gentle, executive director, who gave an overview of the Leadership Academy classes.

Report of the Duke Endowment/The Thriving Rural Church Initiative and Clergy Health Initiative:

Dr. Joe Mann, Duke Endowment Director of Rural Church Division, introduced Kathleen Crane and Neil Toshima, who are part of the Clergy Health Initiative project. Mann then introduced Robin Swift who addressed the Conference. Swift gave an update on the Clergy Health Initiative and talked about the pilot program for clergy services in the Goldsboro district. Mann then introduced Jeremy Troxler who promoted the work accomplished by the Thriving Rural Communities, and Fred Bahnson, Director of Anathoth Community Garden, who talked about the Food Task Force encouraging the planting of community gardens.

Offering:

Bishop Gwinn called for an offering for the Costa Rican mission. An offering of $5,038 was received.

Announcements:

Bishop Gwinn asked Jerry Bryan, Conference Secretary to make announcements. The Conference was dismissed for dinner at 6:10 p.m.

THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 2009 EVENING SESSION

Workshops:

In lieu of the Thursday evening service, five workshop sessions were offered to the clergy and lay delegation. In many cases the workshops had overflow crowds.

Those who attended the "Web Presence, Web Schmesence" program by Derek Leek and Douglas Ward learned why local church websites are important. They learned about a new initiative to provide local churches with assistance in easily creating and maintaining their websites for a relatively low cost.

"Mining for Conflict" was led by Beth Chrismon, a consultant with Plowpoint Consulting Services. Chrismon provided a humorous and thoughtful presentation on what she calls "healthy storming," realizing that conflict itself can be a natural byproduct of church transformation.

"Mission: Possible, Transforming Existing Congregations" was led by the Reverend Dr. Reggie Ponder. This was a very helpful workshop on transforming existing congregations.

Emily Innes and Christine Dodson, in their workshop, addressed the often asked question: "Where does that Conference money go?" They showed how our connectional giving changes lives for the sake of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

"Reaching and Transforming the Lives of a New Generation" was led by the Reverend Marty Cauley. Reaching young adults and the un-churched was the theme of Cauley's workshop in which participants heard from young people about what kind of church they seek.

MORNING SESSION

Worship/Bible Study:

Bishop Alfred Gwinn, Jr. introduced The Reverend Edith Gleaves who led the morning Bible Study. The music and worship leader was Elise Eslinger.

Plenary Session:

Bishop Gwinn called the Conference to order at 8:46 a. m.

Report of Commission on Clergy Counseling and Consultation:

Regina Dickens, Chair, presented the report of the Commission, which was a yellow sheet.

Motion:

Dickens directed the attention of the Conference to the motion she had distributed on the first day of Annual Conference and moved "that the Amended 2010 Budget, which completely eliminated funding for the Clergy Counseling and Consultation Service, restore funding to line item 45 – renaming it 'CCCS Contract', in the amount of $63,300." She summarized the work that Jane Clark Moorman had performed in the past year and how she had helped clergy families. Tom Greener, Mt. Sylvan (DU), rose to a point of information and spoke against the motion. David Beck, Smithfield: Centenary (GO), spoke in favor of the amendment to the budget. Edgar DeJesus, Mt. Zion (DU), spoke against the motion. Carroll Pearsall, lay member Wesley: Riegelwood (WI), spoke for the motion. Joe Casteel, Hampstead (WI), spoke against the motion. Douglas Wagner, Rougemont (DU), spoke in favor of the motion. Grace Hackney, Cedar Grove (BU), spoke against the motion. Steve Hickle, Fairmont (RA), spoke in favor of the motion. Billy Olsen, Pine Forest (GO), moved the previous question and debate was ended. Danny Allen, Council on Finance and Administration Chair, said the Council had spent a great amount of time discussing this line item. Without objection, the Bishop ordered the vote and the results were too close to determine the result. The Bishop then divided the house and the motion failed.

Trustees Chair Cashar Evans returned to present the plans for the interior design of the new building. . The interior floor plan has been posted to the website and a virtual tour is available on the website. Evans recognized Christine Dodson, Conference Treasurer, who conducted the virtual tour. A floor plan was displayed on the screens. Dodson explained that there would not be a snack bar in the new building because the building code made it cost-prohibitive. The Bishop asked for questions. Douglas Wagner, Rougemont (DU), rose to a point of information and asked how truly green the plans were for the driveway, and the two-foot sloped roof. He further inquired about how the water run-off would be used. Evans replied that the driveway and position of the building were strategically placed to save as many trees as possible; there is an innovative technique used in the roofing system which is LEED certified; and the water run-off would be treated (another part of LEED certification) but there were no present plans to use the water at this time. Evans then elaborated on his response to Bob Kretzu's inquiry made the previous day regarding the sale of the property. Evans clarified that the old Methodist Building and land sale was completed August 2008 and the proceeds are invested. The tract of land on which the townhouses sit is still on the market. Evans stated that the proceeds from the sale and invested income will fund the new building project.

Ferrell Blount, lay member Bethel (GR), asked "that this body again validate the work already done by our trustees relating to the construction of our new building. With a resounding affirmative vote we approve the floor building plans and finance plan this morning, saying to our trustees well done we they should move forward on this project with great dispatch."

Report of the Conference Statistician:

George Speake, Conference Statistician, made the following correction to the report printed on pages 53-55 of the 2009 Conference Workbook: changed the 2008 amount of Line 63, to $6,705,067 making the 2008 subtotal $14,750,725 resulting in a change of negative $36,454. Speake reported a net increase of 331 members for 2008. He pointed out the need for training in order for people to properly collect data and complete Table I, II, & III. The Bishop expressed concern about the accuracy and integrity of the data and the overall effect it will have on the decisions that the Conference makes about Apportionments. The Bishop encouraged clergy to increase the number of professions of faith and fill out all the forms accurately.

Report of Junaluska Associates:

Irene Gattis and Dr. Reggie Ponder, Junaluska Associates Representatives, addressed the Conference. The Junaluska Associates is an organization of individuals from across the jurisdiction and beyond, who love Lake Junaluska and want to serve in partnership with the Lake Junaluska Assembly. The Junaluska Associates' mission is: Sharing the "Junaluska Experience" throughout the Southeastern Jurisdiction; Enhancing and promoting the programs and outreach of Lake Junaluska Assembly; Providing assistance for improvements and beautification of the Assembly grounds and facilities; and Encouraging financial support for identified needs. With the upcoming 100 year anniversary of Lake Junaluska, Ponder challenged 100 churches to give special gifts. Bishop Gwinn drew the name of John Shutt who won a free night at the Lambuth Inn.

Report of the Conference Connectional Ministries:

Executive Director Carol Goehring began by outlining the tasks of the NC Conference Connectional Ministries. Goehring gave an overview of the “Seven Pathways”, identified by the Council of Bishops that focus on making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. She concluded her report by inviting the Connectional Team to stand and they were greeted with applause.

Order of the Day – Proposed Constitutional Amendments Vote:

Beth Hood and Emily Innes, delegates to the 2008 General Conference, presented the 32 proposed Constitutional Amendments to be voted on by Lay delegates and Elders. Hood explained that the closely connected amendments would be voted as a group and there were several groupings. She asked that the delegates refer to page 7 of the May 2009 Christian Advocate. The first grouping of amendments were presented. Bob Bergland, General Conference delegate, spoke against the amendments. Renée Burnette, Burlington Circuit (BU), rose to a point of information. Paul Stallsworth, St. Peter's (NB), spoke against the constitutional amendments for theological reasons. Burnette returned to ask another question. Bishop Gwinn asked Belton Joyner, Retired (RA), for additional information. Jacob Tobias, Cary: St. Francis (RA), spoke in favor of the Constitutional Amendments. Danielle Levine, Young Adult delegate (FA), spoke against the Constitutional Amendments. Lois Wright, lay member Calvary (DU), rose to ask a question. Penny Dollar Farmer, Alliance-Arapahoe (NB), spoke in favor of the amendments. John Carter, lay member, Bladen Charge (WI), spoke against the Constitutional Amendments. Anna Gail Workman, Extension Ministries (BU), moved the previous question. The Bishop asked the body if they were ready to vote and the debate was ended. The Conference then voted on the proposed Constitutional Amendments in Group one.

The Constitutional Amendments in Group two were then presented. Jimmie Tatum, Erwin-Parkers Grove (FA), rose to a point of information and spoke against the amendments. Ray Wittman, Duck, (EC), rose to a point of information. The group headed by Beth Hood responded. Ken Ripley, lay member Spring Hope (RM), raised a question as to whether a study was being done. The Constitutional Amendment group responded. Jaye White, Haymount (FA), spoke in favor of the Constitutional Amendments. Edgar DeJesus, Mt. Zion (DU), spoke against the Constitutional Amendments. Jonathan Jeffries, Edenton Street (RA), asked a question that was answered by the team. Jeffries then moved the previous question. The Bishop asked the body if they were ready to vote and the debate was ended. The Conference then voted on Group two of the Constitutional Amendments.

The Constitutional Amendments Group three was presented to the Conference. Rani Woodrow, Stantonsburg/Black Creek (RM), rose to a point of information about legal ramifications of the last part of Amendment 1 and spoke against Constitutional Amendment 1. Kermit Braswell, Retired (RA), rose to a point of information and replied to Rani Woodrow which was interpreted by the chair as a statement in favor of the Constitutional Amendment 1. Ken Ripley, lay member Spring Hope (RM), spoke against to Amendment 1. LaNella Smith, SEJ delegate, spoke in favor of the Constitutional Amendment. Tim Reaves, Bladen Charge (WI), rose in opposition to the Constitutional Amendment 1. Para Drake, Core Creek (NB), moved the previous question. The bishop asked the body if they were ready to vote and the debate was ended. The members then voted on Constitutional Amendment Group three.

Hood addressed the Conference concerning Group four, which was Amendment 19. Edgar DeJesus, Mt. Zion (DU), spoke in favor of Amendment 19. Stan Lewis, Calvary Charge (RM), rose to a point of information. Para Drake, Core Creek (NB), spoke against the Amendment. Toni Wood, Newland (EC), spoke in favor of the Amendment 19. Danielle Levine, Young Adult delegate (FA), spoke against Amendment 19. Jo Warren, Lay member Newton Grove Charge (FA), asked a question and the team responded. The Bishop tested the body; they indicated they were ready to vote and the debate was closed. The Conference then voted on Group four of the Constitutional Amendments.

The Constitutional Amendments Team then addressed Group five. Proposed Constitutional Amendment II was presented and the Conference voted on the Amendment. Emily Innes addressed Amendment VI. Without objection, the Bishop ordered the vote on the proposed Constitutional Amendments VI. Beth Hood addressed Amendment VIII and the body voted on this Amendment. Innes addressed Amendment IX and the Bishop ordered the body to on this Amendment. Hood addressed Amendment XV. William Pearsall, Jordans Chapel (WI), spoke against the Amendments. Ken Ripley, lay member Spring Hope (RM), rose to ask a question. Billy Olsen, Pine Forest (GO), rose to a point of information. The question was called and the body voted on Amendment XV. Innes then addressed Amendment XVII and the body then voted on Amendment XVII. Hood presented Amendment XXII and the Conference then voted on Amendment XXII. Bishop Gwinn then ordered the collection of the ballots.

Brief Break:

After a brief standing recess the Bishop called the Conference back to order. Bishop Gwinn informed the Conference that the results of the ballots would be announced after they have been tallied.

Report of General and Jurisdictional Conference:

Carl Frazier, Elizabeth City District, addressed the Conference on behalf of the General and Jurisdictional Conference delegation. Frazier expressed his appreciation to Emily Innes and Beth Hood for their leadership in bringing the Proposed Constitutional Amendments before the Annual Conference. The Conference expressed their appreciation with a round of applause.

Point of Information:

Bishop Gwinn recognized Ed Crump to address the Annual Conference on behalf of Educational opportunities. Crump announced that Bishop Gwinn will lead a group on the Alpine Wonders Tour which includes the Oberammergau Passion Play in 2010.

Laitly and Clergy Evangelism Award Presentations:

Carol Dean, chairperson of Commission on Evangelism, addressed the Conference and gave a brief summary of the Harry Denman Award which honors effective evangelism and highlights the need for evangelism throughout the world. Each year the Denman Award is presented to one pastor and one lay person. The clergy evangelism award was presented to Eddie Hill of Sharon Grove UMC. Hill briefly addressed the Conference. The 2009 Laitly recipient of the Denman Award is Helen Little of Horne Memorial UMC in Clayton, NC. Dean then spoke about the Academy of Christian Witness to be held in the spring. She challenged the Conference to increase professions of faith by 20% by next Annual Conference. If successful, Dean promised to take a cream pie to the face. She then challenged Bishop Gwinn to take a pie with a 50% increase and the Bishop agreed. The enthusiasm for Evangelism knows no bounds.

Presentation of Jack and Kay Crum Award:

Steve Taylor, Director of Missions, made a presentation and Brian Wingo, Board of Church and Society Chair, presented the Jack and Kay Crum Church & Society Award to the Sanford Circuit, the Reverend James Malloy, for their No Men Left Behind ministry. Malloy, along with the Church of God pastor in the Sanford Circuit area received a round of applause.

Report of Missions Committee/Key Taylor Award:

Steve Taylor, Director of Missions, and Sam Loy, Chair of the Conference Commission on Missions, presented the Key Taylor Award to Wesley UMC, Riegelwood (WI) and the Reverend Bill Altman. Altman and Carroll Pearsall, Wesley UMC lay leader, accepted the award and received a round of applause from the Annual Conference. Taylor recognized Greg Jenks, ZOE Ministry Executive Director, to address the Conference. Jenks invited Epiphany Nujawimana, Founder and Project Director of Giving Hope, to share information about the ministry. Jenks then spoke on behalf of ZOE ministry.

Report of the United Methodist Foundation:

Lynn James, Director of the United Methodist Foundation, presented the Legacy Partners Saints of God Award for outstanding stewardship and service to the children of Macedonia UMC (SA), Reverend Ron Scott, pastor. They were recognized for their Pennies for Pigs program in which the funds are given to the children of the ZOE mission project. They raised enough funds to purchase 30 pigs. The children came forward to be recognized and received a standing ovation and applause.

James led the Annual Conference in the singing of I Sing the Song of the Saints of God as a closing prayer.

Adjournment:

The Annual Conference then recessed for lunch at 12:20 p.m.

FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 2009

with the support and resources necessary to maintain and strengthen family relationships and to help break the cycle of children following their parents to prison.

- YOKEFELLOW PRISON MINISTRIES (#S-00078) Educates church people concerning Christian responsibility for persons affected by crime and brings Christians into direct service ministries with prison inmates and their families.
-  DISCIPLE BIBLE OUTREACH MINISTRY (#S-00103) A COLLABORATIVE MINISTRY of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences developing Disciple Bible Studies, especially in small membership churches and in missional settings, particularly in prisons.

The Annual Conference will approve district projects for advance specials in accordance with The Book of Discipline. This insures that local churches making advance specials on a district level and reported to the Annual Conference advance special will receive credit.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND MERCY MINISTRIES

Doing this economic crisis there are possibilities that prisons will have to go without chaplains. As members of the Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministry, we are committed to providing services and opportunities for United Methodists in the North Carolina Conference to achieve and maintain an understanding of prison ministry and the importance of prison reform based on Christian principles.

The basic issue confronting the Church is theological: Who and where is God? The long-forgotten are being ignored, yet God is among the poor, the outcasts, the imprisoned and the victimized, working for justice, healing, and reconciliation. God's preoccupation with victims and the oppressed is clearly revealed in Yahweh's self-disclosure to Moses, a murderer, Al have seen the affliction of my people; I have heard their cries under their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings and I have come to deliver them@ (Exodus 3:7ff).

It has been said that the roots of modern correctional Chaplaincy lie in the origin of Methodism. In the eighteenth century, Wesley gave a distinctly pastoral mandate to the Methodist societies which he founded. "I shall endeavor to show," said John Wesley, "Christianity is essentially a social religion, and that to turn it into a solitary religion is indeed to destroy it."

We continue to have a need for trained and equipped chaplains to complete this work. Therefore, we offer financial support to the North Carolina Department of Corrections for Chaplains Ministry. As you ponder this, consider the following:

- The need for chaplains within the NC Correctional facilities and the services they offer to the inmates.
- The possibility of budget cuts within the Chaplaincy Services.
- What could happen within the prison system if chaplains are no longer in their position?

We continue to provide support for the Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries, Rings of Fellowship YDC, and Disciple prison materials, Yokefellow Prison Ministry, Kairos Prison Ministry, Prison Match of N.C., Inc., Epiphany Ministry, Inc., Community Success Initiative, Inc., The Capital Restorative Justice Project, and other Emerging Ministries Programs.

Finally, the main goal of the committee is to provide opportunities for the residents in various institutions that will help them to care for themselves and each other by community building, and will transform their lives through Biblical teaching. If we are going to change lives, it must begin with our residents in various institutions. This would help in the elimination of recidivism.

DISABILITY CONCERNS, COMMITTEE ON

With a significant change in leadership in 2009, our committee has set out to examine the scope of ministry of the committee and how to best assist local churches and pastors in reaching out to all those who would seek to be involved in the life of the church. We have developed a new Accessibility Audit (available online at the conference website) that seeks to lead us beyond wheelchair ramps and examine and respond to the needs of many with disabilities and/or developmental delays. Keeping in mind the limited time and budgets of local churches, the Accessibility Audit has been developed in such a way that a church can do an extensive audit of its church, or it can tackle an area or two to move toward greater inclusiveness and stronger hospitality to those who otherwise would not encounter open doors and open minds. While all of us are concerned about those who are shut-ins or unable to participate in worship services and church life because of personal limitations, by working together the Committee on Disability Concerns hopes to show ways that all churches can reach out to many who encounter closed doors, limited access, and little or no accommodation in our churches right now. In addition to the audit process, the Committee on Disability Concerns anticipates providing training and individual church consultation as churches request analysis and expertise in these areas of ministry.

DISCIPLE BIBLE OUTREACH MINISTRIES

Since 1999, Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries of North Carolina (DBOM) has been making disciples for Jesus Christ in both prisons and pews.

As the Disciple Bible Study ministry for both the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences, DBOM oversees the outreach of Disciple Bible study in adult prisons and RINGS OF FELLOWSHIP in the Juvenile Justice Institutions. To date, DBOM has managed studies in more than 70 NC prisons and youth development centers. Thousands of inmates and youthful offenders have participated in DBOM's ministries with hundreds of trained and certified volunteers from local churches. Men, women, laity and clergy have participated in DBOM's ministries. On August 22, 2009, all DBOM volunteers will receive re-certification training at Jamestown United Methodist Church in Jamestown. This re-certification, mandated every five years, insures that all of DBOM's volunteers have the latest in training and information.

For the local church, DBOM makes DISCIPLE Bible Study training available to every United Methodist church through the District Training Initiative. Since 2007, this initiative has brought free Disciple Bible Study facilitator's training to United Methodist Districts. Hundreds of NCC laity and clergy have received training through this initiative.

In 2009 DBOM will offer yet another ministry tool for the local church. In addition to the DISCIPLE training initiative, DBOM will partner with the Thriving Rural Communities Initiative to provide Prison Ministry Workshops in four United Methodist Districts per year. This new project, called the "Newgate Project," is named after the prison where John Wesley first conducted ministry almost 280 years ago. In addition to showing churches the needs and rewards of prison ministry, DBOM will offer ways congregations can become involved.

DBOM continues to lead the way in prison ministry in NC and throughout the United Methodist connection. DBOM's unique model of ministry continues to inspire the Church to visit those in prison as Christ commands.

DBOM would not be possible without the generous support of the people and churches of the North Carolina Conference. We wish to thank all of the churches that participated in the August DBOM Special offering. The 2009 DBOM offering is scheduled for August 23, 2009.

May God bless you as together we work to make disciples in the prisons and pews of North Carolina and beyond!

GOLDEN CROSS

"Golden Cross" is a ministry that reaches out in love to the laity in our Annual Conference who are experiencing financial difficulty due to excessive medical expenses. Through Golden Cross, United Methodists care for members of our local churches in time of emotional stress and financial need. During 2008 we assisted 24 families from 6 of our 12 districts. Each one represented someone active in their local church. People just like each of us, who in a moment of struggle found means of grace and love coming from "their" church.

Please remember that sometimes the needs that cross my desk challenge the funds we have available. For instance, in 2008 the budget for Golden Cross was $14,652.00 and we spent $23,377.03. We were able to spend that because of the wonderful love offering many of our churches sent in this past year. The love offering for Golden Cross this year was $15,754.70. The other good news is that beginning in the year 2006 Golden Cross was recognized as a Conference Advanced Special. This is a unique and special ministry of our conference that reaches out to our laity. My dream is to be able to help more families with additional money. But to do that Golden Cross needs your help. Please take a special offering for Golden Cross on the 3rd Sunday of August and designate on your conference remittance form. To those 65 churches and 6 individuals I want to publicly say Thank You, Thank You, Thank You. Your gifts enabled me to help 4 families that I would have had to turn down.

Now if I can just get the rest of our churches to do the same we will be able to meet the needs of some very special lay people in our United Methodist Churches.

Thank you and God bless you.

M.E.R.C.I

It is a joy to report to you that the work of MERCI continues to be a blessing to all of those it touches, from rural eastern North Carolina to the far reaches of Armenia and Zimbabwe. As a central location for training, disaster relief efforts and mission support, the vital efforts of MERCI are evident in so many ways and in so many places.

In recent days and weeks there have been questions raised about certain decisions made concerning MERCI; in particular, the impact that recent staffing decisions will have on MERCI's continued effectiveness and the reasoning behind the recent staff reductions. Let me address those two broad concerns.

First, MERCI is not relinquishing its role in disaster response, nor is its ability to respond quickly and efficiently diminished as a result of recent staffing changes. In the event of a disaster MERCI will draw on its extensive network of volunteers to assist in the work and use every resource at its disposal to fulfill its unique role. In fact, as part of the changes taking place, MERCI is making a return to its original function of disaster relief as outlined in its business plan.

In order to be in a position to work successfully, it is crucial for the local church to continue to offer its support. We covet your prayers as we seek to be the servants God intended for us to be. We also ask that you consider MERCI and its numerous volunteer opportunities when you are making plans to involve your congregation in service "beyond the walls." And perhaps most importantly we welcome your continued financial support of MERCI and its ministries. Whether through designated giving such as the Advance or through monies given to support the administrative costs of MERCI, each and every gift is appreciated. A reminder: MERCI is not a part of the North Carolina Conference annual budget, so your ongoing support is necessary.

Second, the decision that was made to reduce staffing levels at MERCI was not easy. It was done after much prayer and consideration for the future of MERCI. It is helpful to understand that current economic realities made it necessary for the MERCI Personnel Committee to evaluate staffing levels and move appropriately. In keeping with a return to MERCI's original stated purpose of primarily providing disaster relief support, a change was needed in staffing levels to reflect this. It is also important to know that recent fundraising efforts had been less than effective in helping to offset MERCI's administrative and operating costs. In light of this, the Personnel Committee felt a need to make changes in an effort to be good stewards of the resources that were available while looking at future projections of donations.

Since its inception in 1999 following Hurricane Floyd, MERCI has been involved not only in rebuilding homes but in transforming lives. By God's grace we will continue in this work, both here at home and around the world. It is with your continued support that we will seek to be the hands and feet of Jesus in God's world of today. Blessings.

METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN

In service to God, our mission is to build upon the social, physical, emotional, and spiritual strengths of children, youth, and families, and to affirm their worth.

- > Imagine serving a 4 year-old child who has witnessed more tragedy in her few short years than most adults have in a lifetime.
- > Imagine serving a former drug abuser who wants nothing more than to be a better father and have his two sons returned to him.
- > Imagine serving a couple that has always wanted a family and seeing the joy in their eyes as they bring home their newly adopted child.

Here at Methodist Home for Children we have been serving children and families like these for over 100 years. The work we do can sometimes be physically and emotionally demanding, but the rewards of our work are endless.

Our goal is to ensure that children grow up in safe and loving homes while working to eradicate the social and family problems that lead to abuse, neglect, family disruption and child abandonment. Originally a campus-based orphanage, Methodist Home for Children now offers a number of community-based services that serve the children and families of North Carolina. We serve families by offering a number of in-home counseling and support services. We also provide foster care, therapeutic foster care, adoption, training and consultation and a five-star childcare facility. We offer similar services for children as well as 9 residential group homes and scholarship assistance to students from our programs who wish to continue a higher education.

Last year we were able to serve a total of 1,386 children and families, and we had a lot to celebrate, including:

- The 12 children that were adopted into loving homes and the 190 children that were placed with safe and caring foster families.
- The higher education assistance we were able to grant to 24 students wishing to continue their academic pursuits.
- The new classroom added to the Jordan Child & Family Enrichment Center that participates in the More at Four program, and the 18 additional students that we were able to serve as a result who now have a substantially increased chance of future academic and professional success.
- The continued practice, promotion and teaching of our model of care that supports our values of honesty, respect, responsibility, empowerment, compassion and spirituality. Last year, we trained 140 staff members of North Carolina's Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention.

At Methodist Home for Children, we believe in improving the lives of children, youth and families by providing the highest quality of services. Our commitment to the lives of these individuals has been fueled by the support we have received from so many individuals, churches and church organizations, and for that we are truly thankful.

Bruce E. Stanley, President/CEO

MISSIONS

The people known as United Methodists have been engaged in outreach and missions through an incredibly diverse plethora of specific activities. Within the bounds of the N.C. Conference and beyond, God's Spirit, working through the connection of our United Methodist church has transformed lives, individually and collectively, those served by our outreach ministry and those who have served. We have walked the Seven Pathways in radical hospitality. Through risk-taking mission and ministry, we have opened our arms to those whom Jesus calls, "the least of these." As we have sought to be in ministry with the poor, we ourselves have been converted to compassion, we ourselves have been disciplined, and we ourselves have discovered the wonder of God's presence in the community of God's people.

Although it is an impossible task to fully measure or completely capture this story of mission, particularly in regards to the activities of individual congregations and specific lives, we can name a portion of our collective journey. Through our outreach efforts in our collective missional giving known as the Rainbow Covenant, we have provided almost $700,000 to ministries caring for some of the most vulnerable people in the world. We have worked to eradicate hunger in the world through our connection with Stop Hunger Now's Operation Sharehouse by packaging several hundred thousand meals. Following a horrific earthquake in Peru, through this same partnership, we provided over 400,000 meals to victims whose homes and businesses had been destroyed. Our outreach saved the lives of countless persons.

In connection with the United Methodist Church in Liberia and our missionaries Frido Kinkolenge, Mozart Adevu, and Victor Taryor, you have disciplined ex-combatant children and taught them job skills, empowered people to grow their own food and become self-sustainable, and have offered medical care to thousands who would have otherwise faced death. You have undone structures of systemic poverty and created new Wesleyan communities of committed Christians. Through your gifts and prayers and relational connections, you have continued to proclaim the name of Christ in Russia, even as the country moves toward a more closed society. Thus, your connection to the Russian Initiative is ever more crucial. You have built houses in Costa Rica, fed thousands of children in Africa, empowered orphans in Rwanda, and continue to stand alongside brothers and sisters in Mississippi who still struggle from a deadly hurricane. You have worked beside people in Haiti, prayed with folks in Zambia, you have embraced mentally disabled brothers and sisters in a sheltered workshop in Chile – La Esperanza, the hope.

Engaging in hands-on ministry here in North Carolina, you have birthed new ministries aided by Mission Seed Funds – missional giving that assists and empowers United Methodist people to engage in risk-taking ministries in their own communities. Through the action of Sabbath Economics, you have invested your wealth into the lives of the poor, providing them with over one million dollars in capital so that they can create their own businesses and purchase their own homes, truly overcoming systems of poverty and inequity.

With Jesus, you have stood in solidarity across lines of ethnicity and history and culture and have proclaimed love and justice and hope and life. You have been the hands and feet of Christ, making disciples for the transformation of the world. If missions is anything, it is this.

PERU

This Covenant doesn't involve us in administrative and financial issues, the traditional mission relationship, but what is most important is the human relationship of mutuality, connecting the churches through the love of Christ, where Latin American Christians can contribute to the church of the Northern Hemisphere and thereby enrich this relationship (Bishop Aldo Etchegoyen).

The Rev. Sherry Driscoll, a member at the Southern Pines UMC, NCCUMC, tells us the way in which the Covenant has been walking the walk with the people in Peru and the beauty of God's plan that became true in the midst of a very poor place North from Lima, Peru.

At the end of the parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus asked the lawyer, "Which of these three (the priest, the Levite, or the Samaritan), do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" The lawyer answered, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus commanded him, "Go and do likewise." (Luke 10:36,37)

Some fifty members and friends from the Southern Pines UMC and the North Raleigh UMC took Jesus' challenge literally. From 2003-2008 work teams from these churches travelled to a shanty town about 45 minutes outside of Lima,

Peru. The small church at Jose Olaya began as a mission outreach from Comas 13, a small United Methodist congregation in Lima. Pastor Efrain Llanco had a vision of spreading the good news of Jesus Christ to people of this “young village”, many who had recently come down from the highlands.

The land on which the church sits was purchased and the original wooden structure was constructed with funds provided by a work team from the Missouri Annual Conference. Soon however, the congregation outgrew this as additional space was needed for Sunday School classrooms. The piece of land next to the church was bought with money donated by the mother of one of the SPUMC team members.

Over the course of the next several years, with generous support from the North Carolina Annual Conference, the Southern Pines UMC, and the North Raleigh UMC, a new 2-story sanctuary and education building literally rose from the sand. The total cost of the building project was approximately $75,000. It was indeed a joyous day, March 2, 2008, when Bishop Jorge Bravo consecrated the buildings to the glory of God.

In addition to the completion of the buildings, over a thousand men, women, and children were seen in the free medical clinics that were held yearly. Hundreds of boys and girls participated in Sunday afternoon activities.

Our mission trips were much more than cutting rebar, raking sand, mixing and hauling concrete, and painting. They were about building relationships among team members as we lived, worked, and worshiped together. They were about building relationships with our Peruvian sisters and brothers. They were about continuing the covenant between the Peruvian and the North Carolina Annual Conferences. We learned that the love of Christ transcended any language, cultural, and ethnic barriers we had. For many who participated on the mission teams, our experiences in Peru were life changing and we were blessed beyond measure. Gracias a Dios!

I can tell you all that the Covenant shows us that the church “is not just the place we go, but the church is something we do. It tells us that actions speak louder than words, and that we are all more than a building open on Sundays.”

Bishop Jorge Bravo has sent a few interesting key projects. We hope you will be interested in getting your church involved in them. Very soon you will receive news about these very interesting projects.

Luis F. Reinoso, Chair

REFUGEES AND IMMIGRATION, COMMITTEE ON

Migration is a common and constant reality and is as old as human life on the earth. Moreover, it is a reality along what we Christians call the history of salvation.

A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous (Dt. 26:5).

It is in the last 5 years that our state has experienced a demographic explosion, especially with the influx of immigrants from Hispanic/Latino backgrounds and other peoples from around the globe. Several of our congregations have been involved in ministries especially with refugees for several years with the coordination of Lutheran Family Services (LFS) as well as other agencies. In one of our first attempts, our committee has identified them and we are establishing a network with them. Also during these few months we have been able to give some financial support to several local churches that do ministry among refugee families.

The Refugees and Immigration committee was created and organized in our 2008 Annual Conference. Before its creation, Rev. Luis Reinoso has been the coordinator of the Refugees ministry on behalf of the conference, establishing networks with UMCOR and other agencies that are responsible for- these ministries. Our committee members are a team of passionate and exciting people with great experience both in refugee and immigration ministries. In these past months several of us have participated in a diversity of events sponsored by the North Carolina Council of Churches along with some local churches and the Catholic Immigration Network. Rev. Luis Reinoso has attended a consultation with UMCOR and the General Board of Global Ministries.

Our overall goals as a committee are to create and nurture local partnerships and networks between local churches and refugee and immigration organizations.

To strengthen our collaboration we are launching the Justice for Our Neighbors (JFON) project in cooperation with the Western NCC. These efforts will not only educate ourselves, but our clergy and laity in regard to refugee and immigration realities and how they speak to and challenge our faith. Part of our goal is to coordinate efforts in regard to these ministries with ecumenical and grassroots organizations. We have already invited the Presbyterian Church (PCUSA) here in North Carolina to be part of this effort. We have also engaged the United Methodist agencies at the national level to pay attention to US immigration policy and legislation.

One of the first activities, Refugee Ministry Workshop, took place on Feb. 7, 2009 at North Raleigh UMC with an attendance of 95 people representing 17 local churches and a community of faith. We had the participation of the Children's Choir from Rhems UMC – New Bern District, and the testimonies of guest former refugees from different local churches in Durham, New Bern, Raleigh and Burlington. We also received a visit from Church World Service (CWS) officials in NC and from the GBGM, NY – Naomi Madsen, Office of Refugee Ministries. Two members of the Western NCC also attended the event.

Finally, let me inform you that CWS has opened an office in Durham and Greensboro to work with Refugees. We expect to work closer with this agency in the future. Sisters and brothers, we need your prayers, your support and your involvement so that our conference will be able to serve on a larger scale. With a diversity of resources, our new neighbors that flee to our country from harsh and unimaginable realities will find a place of relief and welcome.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

“Come to the Potter for Love”

The theme for 2008 was “Come to the Potter for Love”. The focus scripture was John 3:16: “For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only son that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life.”

With blessings from above and the generous giving of the local women in our conference, we were able to exceed our Pledge to Mission for 2008. We sent $447,986.38 to Women's Division for mission giving. This money will enable us to help women, youth and children to become better educated and allow us to reach out to others all around the world.

The North Carolina Conference Executive Committee met in January at St. Paul United Methodist Church in Goldsboro, in April at Rose Hill United Methodist Church in Rose Hill and in September at Dover United Methodist Church in Dover. The Executive Committee made plans for the 2008 programs and events to meet the needs of the general membership of United Methodist Women in our Conference. We are a supportive community, working to accomplish our goals as we re-evaluate our programs to strengthen our organization. This year, our Executive Committee consisted of many new officers. We held a Conference Officer Retreat in February to help establish a strong support system within our Executive Committee.

At the 39 and Under Event held at Graham United Methodist Church in Graham on February 22-23, the workshop leader was Rev. Cynthia Powell. Approximately 190 women attended this special event. Workshops were held on Spiritual Disciplines, UMW Basics, and Marriage and Family. A special workshop for teens included learning to love God's people through service.

The Conference Racial Justice Workshop was held April 26 at Chestnut Street United Methodist Church in Lumberton. Alexandria Jones of the National Farm Ministry led the workshop on Farm Workers and Migrant Ministry. A crew leader from a group of farm workers participated in the discussion. Approximately 55 ladies attended.

The Spiritual Enrichment Retreat, May 16-17 was held at Hay Street United Methodist Church in Fayetteville. Rev. Dr. Laura Early led the event entitled “For the Love of Jesus.” The District Spiritual Growth Coordinators led the Friday evening vespers.

In June, the Conference Officers and School of Christian Mission Dean, Assistant Dean and study leaders attended the South Atlantic Regional School of Christian Mission in Owensboro, Kentucky. The study leaders were introduced to our mission studies—I Believe in Jesus, Giving our Hearts Away—a Native American Study and Israel and Palestine. The Conference Officers also attended an officer update workshop. Our Conference School of Christian Mission was held at Methodist University in Fayetteville on 23-26. On Thursday night, three Lumbee Native Americans presented a program of music, dance and an explanation of their heritage.

The Mother Child Retreat was held at Camp Don Lee on September 19-21. The central theme for this event was “Come to the Potter for Love through Nature.” The camp was filled to capacity with 232 mothers and their children at Camp Don and 93 at Camp Caroline. This is a record attendance to the retreat! All activities were held at Camp Don Lee. Madoline Murphy led the event.

The UMW Conference Annual Meeting was held on October 11 at Methodist University in Fayetteville. 506 people attended. The Rockingham District served as host for this event. The 2007 Book of Reports was dedicated to Georgia Pilkington. She has shared her many talents throughout the local, district and conference levels for more than 25 years. Nine recipients were awarded $10,000.00 in scholarships to our Methodist institutions. The 2009 budget was approved as presented by the Conference Treasurer. Kyung Za Yim, former President of the Women's Division installed the 2009 slate of Conference officers: President-Ann Davis; Vice President-Theresa Hodges; Secretary-Sandra Croom; Treasurer-Sandra Mendell; Social Action Coordinator-JoAnn Barbour; Education and Interpretation-Melba McCallum; Membership, Nurture and Outreach-Madoline Murphy; Spiritual Growth-JoAnn Stanford; Chairperson of Nominations-Dora Ann Maness; Communications Coordinator-Ceil Matthews; Secretary of Program Resources-Marjorie Brown; 39 & Under Representative-Stephanie Wright; Committee on Nominations-Doris Wade, LaNella Smith, Patty Stricklin, Susan Rayle, Claire Robinson, Kendall McDougald, and Jackie Wenberg. The program concluded with a Service of Worship. Darlene Jacobs, Southeastern Jurisdictional Agent for Native American Ministries in Lake Junaluska presented the message entitled "Real Love". The love offering was $1543.00. District Superintendent Rev. Leonard Fairley of the Rockingham District wrote the Celebration of Holy Communion. Bishop Alfred Gwinn, Reverends Fairley, Sandy Schaller and District Superintendent Sam Wynn led the Service of Word and Table, "Come to the Potter for Love".

Conference DO-IT-DAY was held November 8 at Pine Valley United Methodist Church in Wilmington. The District Officers were trained in their respective job responsibilities. Leadership Training for new incoming Conference Officers was held November 21-23 in St. Louis, Missouri. The following women attended: Theresa Hodges, Ceil Matthews, Susan Rayle, Claire Robinson and Kendall McDougald.

The local units are the core of United Methodist Women. We all give many volunteer hours to our local communities serving in food and clothes pantries, tutors in school, visiting nursing homes and mission project sites as well as participating in our local church activities. Several hundred school kits, health kits, layette kits, and flood buckets were assembled and distributed where needed.

As North Carolina Conference UMW President, I would like to express my thanks and gratitude to the Conference Officers for their dedicated service to our mission giving and project endeavors. As a Conference Team, we express our thanks to every UMW member for their continued support of projects and their mission giving.

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

Honoring the Past! Embracing the Future!

When the General Conference convened on April 23, 2008, it was in Fort Worth, Texas, only 30 miles away from the Dallas Convention Center where the United Methodist Church was born. It was the fortieth anniversary of the UMC, in fact forty years to the day. On April 23, 1968 the Methodist Church united with the Evangelical United Brethren Church to create The United Methodist Church. Both were American born churches that grew out of the Great Awakening. A thousand official delegates and thousands more celebrated our fortieth anniversary beneath the theme "A Future With Hope".

Barbara Heck, shaped by the teachings of John Wesley, gathered a group of Methodists in her home in New York City in the fall of 1766. She then persuaded Philip Embury to preach to these "Methodists" who were about to make a "shipwreck of their faith." Embury preached his first sermon (1767) in a rigging loft. This was the beginning of John Street Church, a cradle of Methodism.

In the same year (1767) two "pietists" met in a preaching meeting in Long's Barn in Lancaster, PA. Phillip William Otterbein, a reformed pastor and Martin Boehm a Mennonite greeted each other with a handshake and the words "Wer Sind Bruder" (we are brothers). This marked the beginning of the United Brethren Church, later to unite with the Evangelical church (Albright followers). But these pietists never intended to found new churches. "All they wanted to do was to help people personally experience God's forgiving love and become faithful believers within their own denominations." Methodist heritage by John G. McEllhenney.

By April 1768 the New York Methodists were so confident about their future that they wrote to John Wesley asking that he send them a preacher, "a man of wisdom, of sound faith, and a disciplinarian." Wesley appointed Richard Boardman and Joseph Pilmore. They reached America in 1769. Before they sailed, Robert Williams, an Irish street preacher came on his own. Wesley wouldn't license him to preach, but allowed that he could preach under the authority of another licensed preacher. The Irishman sold his horse and sailed for the American Colonies.

He joined forces with a Maryland farmer/and lay preacher, Robert Strawbridge. Following the providence of God [the pretty ways of Providence] he arrived in Norfolk. As one of the circuit riders associated with the Petersburg Society, he formed the Brunswick circuit (26 preaching places) along the Roanoke River in Virginia and North Carolina. Gergain's Chapel, now beneath the waters of Lake Gaston in old Bute County NC, (now Warren County) was the center of it and is a cradle of Methodism in the south.

Methodist Heritage in North Carolina

In the spring of 1772 this circuit rider, Robert Williams, crossed the Roanoke on a flat boat and stayed with Captain Coleman. The willow oak under which he preached stood in place for centuries. It fell in 2007. A wood carver has been commissioned to create a carving of a circuit rider from the wood of this tree. Jerusalem UMC (est. 1773) honors Robert Williams as their founder.

The spring meeting of The North Carolina Conference Historical Society along with The NCC Commission on Archives and History celebrated Methodism on the Roanoke. We gathered on the banks of Lake Gaston (formed by the waters of the Roanoke) on May 23, 2009. Folks came from all around for a dinner on the grounds. The Apple Yard of Maratuk where Bobby and Janie Coley have restored an 1800's farm house was a fine location. There was banjo music and gospel singing, heritage stories, bar-b-q and Brunswick stew. A circuit rider, accompanied by a trail ride of youth, arrived on horseback and preached in the farm yard. The Jerusalem/Warren Plains charge hosted the event.

There are two official United Methodist Heritage Landmarks within the boundaries of the North Carolina Conference. They receive financial support from the NCC Commission on Archives and History budget. Whitakers Chapel near Enfield was built in 1740 as an Anglican chapel. When, during the revolutionary war, the Anglican priests returned to England, Methodist Circuit riders made this a regular preaching place. Francis Asbury preached at Whitaker's Chapel at least three times, in 1786, 1789, and 1804. The Annual Christmas Service in December and Homecoming in June are well attended. The Green Hill House near Louisburg hosted several Annual Conferences and was visited often by Bishop Asbury and other itinerants. It stands in good repair.

The Revolutionary War ended with the Treaty of Paris in 1783. In 1784, when the Methodist Episcopal Church was founded, there were 15,000 Methodists served by 83 traveling preachers. It is reported that one half of them were in Virginia and North Carolina. Our Conference Historian, Dr. Bill Simpson, refers to Warren and Halifax Counties in the Rocky Mount district as the cradle of Methodism in the south. Let the churches of North Carolina Conference save and recall often their grand histories.

Some dates to remember in 2009.

June 29-July 2: The SE Jurisdictional Historical Society will hold its annual meeting at Lake Junaluska in conjunction with the 20th Anniversary Meeting of the Historical Society of the United Methodist Church. Rev. Arthur Warren, a NCC elder, is President of the SEJ Society and will preside at some of the sessions.

November 13-15: A Heritage Preservation Workshop will be offered at Junaluska.

CAMPUS MINISTRIES

Report of Ministries among College Students at United Methodist-related campus ministry units and colleges/universities:

The North Carolina Conference UMC supports ministries among college students at six campuses of the University of North Carolina system and at four historically United Methodist-related colleges/universities. Four of the campus ministries are full-time United Methodist Wesley Foundations/Fellowships: UNC-Chapel Hill, Duke University, East Carolina University and NC State University. Two are cooperative campus ministries with Presbyterians and Baptists at UNC-Wilmington and NC Central University. For UNCPembroke, the Conference supports the ministry of First UMC-Pembroke on that campus. The College Chaplaincy Support Fund supports the religious life ministries of Louisburg College, NC Wesleyan College and Methodist University.

The Raleigh Wesley Foundation

In the recent best seller, The Shack, there is a line that states, "Life takes a bit of time and a lot of relationship." This might be an apt description of campus ministry at the Raleigh Wesley Foundation. In many ways, we strive to be an Acts 2 church. We truly practice "Radical Hospitality" in that all students have a place around our table. While most of our students are United Methodist, there are some who are not and some who have little or no church background. We are a place that welcomes the stranger (and the familiar) regardless of who they are, what they are, or where they are in their faith journey. Some are drawn by our "gastro-evangelism" but they stay because they find a place to belong and call home. They stay because they are nurtured personally and spiritually and form vital relationships that will continue to shape their lives. Kathryn, a student from Goldsboro, says, "As a freshman, the Wesley Foundation was a place where I made some of my first and closest friends at college. Now, it is a place I can go every week to enjoy Christian fellowship and learn more about myself and about God. I can't imagine college life without the Raleigh Wesley Foundation."

We are also marked by passionate worship and value our role as a worshipping community. At least once a month, we use our weekly meeting time to share in worship that is diverse and to share in the celebration of Holy Communion. Worship is an important part of our retreats and mission trips as well. With the addition of our new worship center, we now have a "sacred space" where we can gather for worship or weekly vespers. The Robert Bryant Memorial Worship Center was made possible through donations from Wesley Foundation alumni and friends. It honors the memory of a former RWF student.

We are intentional about spiritual formation as well. We offer a number of small group experiences in addition to our weekly meeting; time set aside for Bible study, discussion and spiritual formation. This past fall we started a group called "Soul Tending" that focused on spiritual practices and disciplines. At least twice a year we plan weekend retreats to build community and strengthen faith. We have also started an informal discussion group called the "Upper Room Fellowship" which meets after our weekly dinner and meeting to discuss current events or topics that have an impact on our lives as Christians.

Finally, risk taking mission is also a vital part of our ministry. We believe that our students should be challenged to meet the needs of others through mission and service, both local and abroad. Each year we plan a mission trip, alternating between domestic and international trips, so that our students can be exposed to diverse cultures, lifestyles and environments. By expanding their perspectives, students learn that there are many of our brothers and sisters who are in need and for whom we should be concerned. In May of 2009 we will travel to Costa Rica to work through Volunteers In Mission. We have also participated in campus wide service events such as Shack-A-Thon to benefit Habitat for Humanity, Service NC State to help package over one million meals for Stop Hunger Now, and Service Raleigh.

Life does take a bit of time and we only have our students for a few years before they move on. In that short time, the Raleigh Wesley Foundation seeks to form vital relationships that will nurture, sustain, transform, and prepare the next generation of Church members and leaders. Skip, a student from Asheville, says, "I find the Wesley Foundation to be an enriching, fun group of university students who gather regularly for fellowship and worship. We are a Christian community in every sense!"

Kirk Oldham, Campus Minister

Duke Wesley Fellowship

After 25 years of sojourning on the Duke Campus every Sunday night for Wesley Worship (and sojourning is not all it's cracked up to be, especially when your reservation gets canceled at the last minute), Duke Wesley has pitched a tent at Asbury UMC, adjacent to Duke's East Campus. So, with the Duke Wesley house on the southeast corner and Asbury on the northwest corner of East Campus, we've got them surrounded. I expect the unconditional surrender of hedonism and licentiousness any day now. Until then we continue to go faithfully about the mission and ministry of embodying The United Methodist Church for Duke University. Our outpost in the basement of Duke Chapel continues to offer respite for sin-sick souls at the hub of the campus. In short, we are grateful to the congregation of Asbury for taking us under their wing, to the North Carolina Conference for providing some resources to model Christian Community, and to Duke University for extending hospitality of space. In each of these places lives are shaped because God is at work.

Jennifer E. Copeland, Ph.D.

United Methodist Chaplain and Director of the Wesley Fellowship, Duke University

Wesley Foundation of Greenville

January 1, 2008 – December 31, 2008

Our main service of the week continues to be Thursday nights. We have a home cooked meal, often prepared by different United Methodist Women's groups all around the Greenville District, at 6:00 PM. Our praise band then leads praise and worship for about 35 minutes and then we have a message by the campus minister or a program by the students.

The Wesley Singers is our main outreach to other churches. We did 11 praise concerts over the year. This is our biggest "commercial" for Wesley and a great opportunity for the students to express their faith and energy in positive ways.

In January we had 13 students involved in a Chrysalis weekend. In February we volunteered at the North Carolina Food Bank. In March we had two Spring Break mission teams. One group of 6 students went to New Orleans to do hurricane recovery work and a group of 19 went to the Dominican Republic. These are life changing opportunities for the students and well worth the effort and expenses. While in the DR we visited a Haitian refugee village and took food for distribution. Crowds of people with bowls came in long lines up to our vans like something you only see on TV happening in countries like India. It was an experience our students will never forget.

Later in March we decorated five rooms in our building for people to walk through like some churches do for a haunted house, except we had a "House of Prayer". We had done this several years ago and it had gone over so well, we wanted to do it again. Each room featured a different type of prayer: confession, meditation, empowerment, healing, and intercession. For the meditation room we had a 30 foot labyrinth. For the empowerment room we had a reenactment of the day of Pentecost, complete with tongues of flame and a mighty wind. The highlight again this year was a Witness Wall where people could read the testimony of other students and post their own. These were really powerful. In the intercession room, not only could they pray for specific soldiers and missionaries by name as they looked at their picture, but then they could actually write them a letter and put it in a "mail box". Later, all the letters were taken to the Post Office.

In April we had 12 students go on our spring Spiritual Retreat. We went to Camp Rockfish. Our theme was the many different ways to worship God. Our closing worship service was a wonderful celebration of music, drama, mime, poetry, preaching and dance. Also in April we went to NC Wesleyan College and led music for our Conference's Youth Rally Day. We also did a Habitat work day.

In May our campus minister, his wife and 5 of our students and four students from other Wesley Foundations around the NC Conference went to Student Forum in Washington, DC. This was a great opportunity to get to know other students involved in "Wesleys" all across the country and to be challenged to reach out to those different than us and to take a stand for justice and equality in the name of Christ.

During June and July our campus minister and several of our students participated in 8 orientation sessions for incoming students. For the first time ever, we also participated in a new student orientation at Pitt Community College. We were the only religious organization there.

In August our student officer team held their annual planning retreat, where we planned out the year's activities. In late August we had 11 of our students participate in One Million Meals, sponsored by Stop Hunger Now. Joining with students from NC State and Carolina, we prepare and packaged one million meals to be served to the hungry all around the world. Dry ingredients were sealed in plastic bags along with directions for boiling in water. It was fun for us, as well as a powerful ministry to others.

In September we started a new Bible Study called Naked Flamingos, "exposing" a new topic that we would "fly" with each week. We also participated in a Habitat for Humanity fund raiser that raised $20,000 through barbeque chicken dinners sales.

In October we worked at a homeless shelter.

In November we did a second spiritual retreat at Camp Rockfish, this time with 15 students. Our theme was "Spiritual Survival Kits". Everyone got a camouflaged kit with a devotional book, a set of "Christ Is Lord" prayer beads, a copy of In His Steps, a packet of prayer cards and a prayer journal.

In December we had our annual Christmas party at the home of our campus minister and his wife. After the party we went Christmas caroling around their neighborhood. For many of our new students it was their first time caroling!

Lindsay Norris, a junior, and member of Swansboro UMC, says, "My first few weeks at college were tough! I called my mom to come and take me home, but then I went to Wesley. I was welcomed with open arms. Mrs. Vickie (our campus minister's wife) said, 'You just let Wesley be your home-a-way-from-home.' I did just that and now it is the highlight of my week!"

Ashley Colley, a junior from Eden, NC, and raised Southern Baptist, says, "A friend invited me to an Ice Cream Social that Wesley was having for freshmen. I'm so glad I went. I didn't have much of a relationship with God back then, but everyone at Wesley has helped me develop and strengthen my walk with Christ so much now. I feel truly blessed to have Wesley and everyone who goes to Wesley in my life."

Chase Taylor, a pre-dental senior from Trinity UMC in Jacksonville, NC, writes, "Wesley is a place to fellowship and worship God with friends, but it's about more than just receiving. During my four years here, I feel God has worked THROUGH me, as well. For instance, I went on two spring break mission trips: one to Mississippi to do hurricane Katrina relief and the other to the Dominican Republic where we painted a church and did vacation Bible School with about 100 children. Wesley has helped me learn that being a Christian involves helping others who are less fortunate than me. I've truly been blessed to be a part of the Wesley Foundation."

Senior Randy Meisenholder is a member of St. Joseph UMC in Pikeville. He writes, "The Wesley Foundation here at ECU has had a profound impact on my spiritual life. When I came to Wesley, I was already a devout Christian, but I was living in the shallow waters of faith. Wesley has challenged me to step out in the deep water. I have grown immensely, realizing that there are gray areas in life and that is OK. I've learned I will never know enough about God or be able to do enough for Him to make up for the immeasurable grace He has shown me. I will soon graduate, but I will never forget or "leave" Wesley. I will support it with my heart, my finances and my prayers. Plus, Pastor Scott just assisted in my wedding with many of my Wesley friends present. Wesley is now closer than ever!"

Rev Scott Wilkinson, Campus Minister

Wesley Foundation at UNC-Chapel Hill

The ministry of UNC Wesley provides students a place to find and strengthen their own faith. Each year our Campus Minister asks us why we are United Methodists and we seek to ground ourselves in the Wesleyan tradition of grace and the Spirit of God. Our theme this year has been "Why we do what we do." We asked students what they wanted to know about church. We have learned about United Methodist tradition, baptism, doubt, sexuality, John Wesley, why we have creeds, why we care about Global health and the poor, why we go to church at all. We have discovered this year that we have a rich history, and that we are a diverse community with a vested interest in God's family.

Our ministry is defined by those fruitful practices of radical hospitality – we welcome students of every persuasion; passionate worship – designed by students for students; risk-taking mission – this year on the streets of New York City and in the desert of Arizona; intentional spiritual formation – two spiritual growth retreats, Bible study on the book of Romans, transition groups for first years and seniors, small groups to tackle questions of faith and discern God's direction for life; extravagant generosity – giving most obviously of the gift of time, logging nearly 7000 hours of volunteer service and leadership over the academic year.

All of our programming is planned by students. We serve communion, plan worship, write our newsletters, plan social events, lead weekly programs, plan our mission trips and outreach projects. We are the "emerging church" – laity and clergy in training, developing programs and skills and leadership identity for the church over the next fifty years. "What does Wesley mean to you?" Ask most students here at UNC Wesley this question and you will hear one word repeatedly: family. Students at UNC Wesley find their place in Christian family among other students. In and through this community we develop opened-minded, responsible, and invested young people – the future of the church.

Thank you, North Carolina United Methodists, for supporting us on our journey of faith!

Emily Osterhus, Student President and Jan Rivero, Campus Minister

NC Wesleyan College

I am currently serving in my sixth year as the chaplain at North Carolina Wesleyan College, and I love my ministry here so much that I would gladly retire from this position 15 years from now. At Wesleyan the chaplaincy became a fulltime position in 2005 as a hybrid faculty/staff slot, so I serve in the academic arena as well as in other forms of campus ministry, utilizing my M.Div. degree from Duke and my M.Ed. degree from N.C. State (along with my two bachelor's degrees). I am also working on a Doctor of Education degree from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary – it is scheduled for completion in May of 2011, and I am hoping that my dissertation on John Wesley's Theology of Discipleship and Spiritual Formation will be published.

I consider my classroom teaching work a genuine ministry. I intentionally choose to teach first year students in introductory religion courses for two main reasons. First, it is a prime opportunity to meet freshmen and develop lasting relationships with them. Second, the subject matter in an Introduction to Christianity class gives me a perfect opportunity to teach gospel truths in a non-threatening manner to many who have never heard the gospel presented rationally in an easily understandable format. Each of the four students who wrote testimonials for this report met me in Religion 101. I also teach College 101 orientation classes and take on the extra load as a freshman advisor because it increases my visibility on campus and opens doors for my ministry of counseling.

Additionally, I teach adult and traditional students at night in ADP (Adult Degree Program) classes. Now in my eleventh year of teaching ADP classes at two different institutions, I have mastered the format of graduate school style seminars which promote soul-searching discussion. Like my daytime classes, my ADP classes tend to be full, even at times of low enrollment at Wesleyan overall. In ethics and religion courses I am able to share the gospel in the Wesleyan theological tradition while staying true to the classic liberal arts format. This is exciting ministry for me! All of my course syllabi include an emphasis on love, respect and tolerance, and that is a keynote for the courses. Muslims, Bahais, Wiccans, atheists, agnostics and others of diverse theological perspectives have intentionally taken multiple elective classes with me because they have found the open minds, open doors and open hearts in the classroom.

Of course, my ministry as a chaplain includes pastoral counseling. I maintain office hours at least five days a week during the academic year, and sometimes on Saturdays and Sundays. Perhaps my most enjoyable ministry on campus is serving as a chaplain to the football team. At the request of the coaching staff I preach a pre-game message before every home game, and then spend the entire game on the sidelines with the Battling Bishops. Attendance at the pre-game service is voluntary, but includes 30-60 players and coaches. I have been requested by the head coach to perform the same function next season at home and away games. This ministry to the football team has opened up many opportunities on campus for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, the Refuge Ministry and the NCWC gospel choir, the Voices of Triumph. I promote unity among the various Christian groups on campus through joint programming by co-sponsoring events such as concerts, renewal services, seminars, cookouts, Bible studies, service projects and retreats.

These programs and projects are important, and they do consume much of my time as the chaplain at NCWC. But people are more important than these programs or projects. Illustrative of this point, I include these testimonials from a representative sample of students involved in various campus ministry groups. They are as diverse as Wesleyan itself, recognized by US News and World Report as one of the three most racially diverse colleges in the South.

"Rev. Drum is a major presence on campus. He has had a massive impact on many students' lives while he has been here. When I was a freshman, I took Rev. Drum's REL 101 class because it had been recommended to me by one of my co-workers. I entered the class as a believer in God – believing that most of the time He was there, but sometimes I wasn't so sure. When the class was finished, I left as someone who knew that God was with me at all times. Rev. Drum has helped me become stronger in my faith since then, and there are many others, including me, who don't know what we would do without him." – Jacob Strickland, junior, Richlands, NC.

-President, Refuge Campus Ministries

-President, Student Government Association (student body president).

"Professor and mentor to me, Reverend Drum has a ministry that transcends the reach of most others. A friend, a brother in Christ Jesus, a wise teacher in both spiritual and scholarly matters, he is truly a man of excellent moral fabric. Souls are saved every day, and through the Father working through this man who is one of your own, mine was brought back into the fold after a long absence." –Jesse Tamez, sophomore, Castalia, NC.

-Youth Minister, Marvin UMC, Rocky Mount, NC.

"Rev. Drum has ministered the teachings of religion and everyday life throughout my time at North Carolina Wesleyan College. I had faded away from the Church upon arriving at NCWC, but Rev. Drum has inspired me in many ways through religion and leadership that has made me who I am today. I do not know what path I would have taken if it weren't for the strong teachings, and lessons in and out of the classroom that he provided me with." –Cheyenne Hall, senior, Stafford, VA.

-Women's basketball player.

"Rev. Drum is very engaged with his students' learning. He's always teaching them using creative illustrations and he relates well with all the students. He's also very patient. Rev. Drum always seems to have a smile on his face and an uplifting word of encouragement. Not only does he serve as a positive Christian role model in the classroom and during Bible study, but he's also available for private counseling. On several occasions I've been able to come to him with my problems, and he's helped steer me in the right direction with the proper praise, criticism or prayer that I need."

-Ben Lilley, junior, Jamesville, NC.

-Southern Baptist lay preacher.

CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The North Carolina Board of Church and Society has long been a sounding board for our Annual Conference in matters where issues of faith and issues of society intersect. We have sought to teach and to lead in the making of caring and responsible disciples for the transformation of the world.

Often, we, as Christians, find ourselves at odds with the secular culture that surrounds us. The teachings of Jesus Christ draw us into this intersection where faith meets world in ways that usher in the kingdom of God.

Methodism was founded at the intersection of social activism and the life of faithful discipleship. Our church's founder, John Wesley, set up societies that brought good news to the poor, release to the captives and set the prisoner free. The Board of Church and Society seeks to live within the tension that calls us to examine society through the lens of Christological understanding.

During this new quadrennium, our goal is to empower the local church in theological (and practical) ways to respond to the socio-economic turmoil in which we find ourselves. We have embraced the four-fold path of developing leadership, creating places for new people, eliminating poverty and improving global health. This path, as embraced by the 2008 General Conference, is otherwise known as the four foci.

Our primary focus is on the concept of Sabbath Economics. Sabbath economics is an economic model championed by Christian economist Ched Myers. This model applies economic aspects of the Biblical "Sabbath" to modern socioeconomics. In the introduction of his book, Myers states that God's people are instructed to dismantle, on a regular basis, the fundamental patterns and structures of stratified wealth and power, so that there is 'enough for everyone. Foundational to Sabbath Economics is the Biblical understanding that we live, surrounded by God's abundant nature. God's grace, provision and love are all given in abundance. As children of God we are to share abundantly, as well. Therefore it becomes a question not just of the stewardship of our money but of our lives! As we embrace Sabbath Economics, we find ourselves working as fellow laborers with the poor to overcome the plight of poverty, not in the future, but now.

We seek to develop leaders and create places for new people through cluster group trainings in Biblical Animation. Biblical Animation is a process by which we are able to retell the message of the Bible as it relates to the geo-political world in which we live and worship. Jesus did not teach in a vacuum, nor do we! Jesus taught within a certain geo-political system. His teachings are directly applicable to our world situation today. Biblical Animation gives us a framework to understand the Bible's teachings as it relates to the least, the last and the lost, in our modern society; whereby our work in the intersection of faith and societal issues are strengthened and enhanced.

The leadership of our youth, and thus for the church, is enhanced by providing scholarship funds for our young people to attend the annual Global Vision event. This event is designed to help the youth of our Annual Conference to expand the scope of caring and ministry, beyond the local level, to a world-wide level, by participation in workshops at the United Nations and in Washington, DC.

And finally, our focus is on the intersection of Spiritual Development, Social Responsibility and Scriptural Engagement, as they are found in our United Methodist Social Principles. As we learn more about our Social Principles, we uncover truths about the inequalities of global health, injustice, poverty and exploitation. And as these truths are revealed, the local church will be empowered to carry on the work of Jesus Christ in the world in which we live.

EVANGELISM, COMMISSION ON

In obedience to the command of Jesus Christ and the mission of the United Methodist Church, the mission of the Commission on Evangelism is to make disciples of Jesus Christ to transform the world (Matt. 28:16-20 & ¶201). The Commission provides training opportunities and resources to equip clergy and laity to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with all persons for the "Heart of Christian Ministry - Christ's ministry of outreaching love." (¶125).

During the past year, the Commission has provided grants for multi-district evangelism training events, multi-church local training workshops, and continuing education scholarships for the Congress on Evangelism. In Spring 2009, the 7th annual Academy of Christian Witness for Clergy was held at the Bergland Center at Camp Rockfish, with full scholarships, books, and resource materials provided to the participants. Each year, upon the recommendation of the District Superintendents, approximately 36 pastors are trained and inspired by 14 presenters with workshops including worship as evangelism, witnessing to post-moderns, pastoral leadership as evangelism, local missions as evangelism, spirituality of the pastor-evangelist, personal faith sharing, getting the Word out, and "taking it to the streets." In 2008, the Commission held the first Lay Academy of Christian Witness with 35 lay people participating in similar workshops to be equipped for evangelizing through their churches and in their communities.

The Commission on Evangelism continues to embrace the visions to which God has entrusted us for outreach, nurture, strengthening clergy and lay leadership, and equipping the saints for ministry through the Wesleyan model for making disciples of Jesus Christ to transform the world. The North Carolina Conference continues to be one of the few in the United Methodist Church to report annual net growth of membership. The Commission on Evangelism urges all United Methodists to be faithful to their calling and their membership vows, to go into the world and to witness to make disciples for Jesus Christ.

MEDIA CENTER, COMMITTEE ON

The year of 2008-2009 marked the first completed year under the new system of requiring no additional fees for local churches to borrow materials from the conference resource center. Many first time churches participated by contacting the Media Center and borrowing materials. The most used resource of the whole collection which includes hundreds of video based programs, over 500 books, curriculum examples and leadership materials was the DVD based program, "What Does it Mean to Be United Methodist".

Other most used resources were Adam Hamilton's programs, especially "Christianity and World Religions", Rob Bell's series from NOOMA, and Bible Studies from Dr. James (Mickey) Efrid. Contact is easy through e-mail, the Conference webpage and telephone.

Plans for continued transformation to DVD format and an increase in materials for training and enhancement of the Conference emphases are underway. Organizing for the move to the new facilities will be an exciting part of the work and planning for the Media Center in the coming year.

OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES, COMMITTEE ON

The committee seeks to be the focal point for aging issues which impact the program and ministry of the local church and the Annual Conference as a whole. The committee works to raise awareness of how, where, and why the church ought to be involved in ministry to, with, and by older adults. The committee has promoted the following services and learning programs:

The Conference Older Adult Ministries Web page offers ideas, news, networking and resources for Older Adult Ministry. A resource library is maintained in the Conference Media Center for use by local churches. Members of the committee are available to speak on issues pertaining to Older Adults and ministry to, with and by older adults.

- Each year in August, we encourage Older Adults and those working in the area of Older Adult Ministry to attend the SEJ Older Adult Conference at Lake Junaluska.
- We partner with other conference groups and agencies in the sponsorship of education and training of clergy and lay persons in the Spiritual Development of older adults. On May 13, 2009, the OAM Committee sponsored a 'Day Apart' held at St. James United Methodist Church in Greenville. The theme was, "Aging to Perfection". Worship, informational displays, workshops in many areas including nutrition, prayer, exercise, biblical storytelling, and networking opportunities were offered.
- A display table at annual conference provides resources and ministry ideas. A recommended reading list is compiled and distributed each year.

SAFE SANCTUARIES, COMMITTEE ON

At Annual Conference in June, 2005 the following was adopted by the Annual Conference:

- a. Conference and district program agencies which work with programs for children and youth, in covenant with the United Methodist Church, within the following policy, in order that the abuse of children and youth in all conference and district related settings may be prevented to the fullest extent possible:
As a Christian community of faith, we pledge to conduct the ministry of the Gospel in a manner that assures the safety and spiritual growth of all children and youth and the adults who work with them. We will follow reasonable safety measures in the recruitment and selection of staff. We will implement prudent procedures of operation for all programs and events. We will educate those who work with children and youth in conference and district settings as to the use of all appropriate policies and procedures. We will have a clearly defined procedure for reporting suspected incidents of abuse that conform to the requirements of state law.
- b. Each and every local church will adopt and implement for themselves a safe sanctuary policy and procedures as outlined in the 1996 General Conference Resolution (Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church, 1996, pp. 384-386) for use in their present and future ministry with children and youth.
- c. A Conference Safe Sanctuaries Committee, selected by the Conference Committee on Nominations, will provide oversight for the Conference safe sanctuary policy and procedures and resource the implementation of a safe sanctuary policy and procedures within local churches of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

The Safe Sanctuaries Committee continues to give oversight to implementation of the Conference safe sanctuary policy and procedures and to provide resources to local churches. Annual review of charge conference reporting data for safe sanctuaries is conducted and follow-up and plans are made to resource local churches accordingly. In the fall of 2008, three regional workshops were held to give particular assistance to local churches in the areas of cyber safety and cyber ministry. The committee continues to plan for further training opportunities in this area particularly for those working with youth ministries.

An email listserv has been developed for local church safe sanctuaries coordinators. Periodically tips, reminders, resources and articles on various aspects of safe sanctuaries will be sent out to this email listserv. To subscribe to the listserv go to <http://listserv.nccumc.org/mailman/listinfo/safesanctuaries>.

The website resources continue to be updated for accessibility by local churches: www.nccumc.org/children/safe-sanctuaries.

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH

"With Heart, Soul and Mind" is the theme for the year 2009 in Conference youth ministry. This theme is focused on the Scriptures to love God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength. Our mission statement for Conference youth ministry is to walk with youth in their journey to know Christ by creating an environment in which youth can experience Christian communion to hear the Gospel, to know God's love and to respond in faith by loving and serving others...for in all of this we are making disciples of Jesus Christ. Through local church youth ministry with a variety of faces and programs and service projects; through districts offering opportunities for youth; with close to 8000 youth and adults participating in Conference youth events; and with the general church Division on Ministries with Young People, we can indeed focus on loving God with all that we are and all that we seek to be.

Youth (and adults) from across the Conference have participated in nine events over the year: PK Getaway, Confirmation Celebration, Global Vision, Kaleidoscope, Rally Day, Appalachian Trail Hike, Summer Breakaway, ACS-Annual Conference Session for Youth, and Pilgrimage. PK Getaway, held every other year, offered support and fellowship for the particular circumstances that "preacher's kids" face. The Confirmation Celebration offered an experience of the connectional church and the covenant vow to support the church through prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness to those in confirmation classes from local churches. Global Vision included a visit to Washington DC and New York City with a seminar to explore issues around poverty and globalization. Kaleidoscope is a Conference youth event that offers a spiritual life retreat for middle school youth. Rally Day was a bright and sunny spring afternoon that celebrated the place of youth within the life of the church. The Appalachian Trail Hike proved to be a mountaintop experience of God for those involved. Summer Breakaway and ACS offered times of worship and sharing experiences of fellowship and faith in small and large groups. Pilgrimage (with over 6000 in attendance from close to 300 churches) in the Crown Coliseum with challenging messages of God's call on our lives to know Christ and experience God's grace and then to pass it on and share that Gospel good news with others from Bishop Hope Morgan Ward and music by Chris Hughes and our own NC Conference youth will be a Pilgrimage not soon forgotten.

Youth Service Fund continues to be an avenue of mission for United Methodist Youth. Grants to such ministries with youth as Positive Attitude Youth Center in Burlington, ZOE Ministries in Africa, Jubilee Project in Tennessee, Footprints Youth Mission Camp at MERCI, Appalachian Service Project, Salkehatchie Summer Service in Durham, an oral history project in rural Mississippi, and the Society of St Andrew – Harvest of Hope program are possible only in as much as local churches support and contribute to Youth Service Fund. Youth Service Fund is money raised by youth and spent by youth to benefit youth. While the contributions to YSF at Conference youth events are very good, more support from local churches is needed to reach our goal each year of remaining a "Top 10 Conference" in the denomination and jurisdiction. We rejoice in the vision that local church youth ministries are living toward in areas of mission, service, study, outreach, fellowship and spiritual growth. We celebrate and give thanks to the Annual Conference and all the people within local churches giving support and encouragement to youth ministry. We pray for God's guidance and blessing as we seek to love God with all our heart, mind, and soul.

WORSHIP, COMMITTEE ON

"Worship the Lord in the beauty of His holiness." (Psalm 96:6)

The work of the Committee on Worship is centered in Christ. "To God be the glory, great things He has done, so loved He the world that He gave us His Son." We sing as we believe!

The Committee serves as the primary resource for the planning and conduct of liturgy and worship for the Annual Conference. In addition to the five services typically celebrated at the annual session in June, the Sacrament of Holy Communion is offered in the mornings. Liturgists, celebrants, musicians and preachers are chosen with the counsel and help of Bishop Alfred W. Gwinn, to reflect the church's reverence for God and the diversity of the Body of Christ. A joyful witness is presented through the singing, movement and prayers of the faithful.

The 2008 Conference welcomed the Rev. Dr. Marcia McFee as our Worship/Music leader. Musical interludes, teaching moments and development of our conference theme were seamlessly woven together to enhance the spiritual dynamic of the Annual Conference. A variety of musical styles was represented and a revised Wesleyan celebration of the Love Feast was offered.

Preparations for the 2009 Annual Conference are well under way at the time of this writing. Dr. Elise Eslinger is the Worship/Music Leader for this year's conference, bringing her many years of experience as a spiritual retreat leader, church musician, worship professor and recently, editor of the Upper Room Hymnbook. When the Conference convenes, again in Greenville, a new theme will be introduced for the quadrennium: "A Future with Hope." This year, a sub-theme or emphasis draws the NC Methodists together for "Learning." In the next three years, the emphasis will be on "leading," "loving" and “living faithfully”. A new logo that announces the theme was designed by a member of the Worship Committee, Susan Southern.

While Annual Conference worship is a significant aspect of the Committee’s work, the Worship Committee also serves the needs of the local congregations and districts of the NCC. Committee members and Conference staff are available to facilitate workshops or to answer questions about liturgy, music, worship space and worship styles. The theology and tradition of the church shapes the presentation, while openness to the Holy Spirit allows for expressions of worship that are contemporary and culturally engaging.

The servant-leaders of the NCC Worship Committee are dedicated to excellence in worship and open to the guidance of the Holy Spirit in the planning and conduct of worship in every setting where the name of Jesus Christ is honored.

Bill Weisser, Chairperson

LEADERSHIP TEAM

THE LEADERSHIP TEAM SERVES TO EQUIP LEADERS WHO IMPLEMENT THE VISION.

ACADEMY FOR LEADERSHIP EXCELLENCE

The Academy for Leadership Excellence was established to provide mentoring, training and leadership development of church leaders in support of empowering the mission and ministries of the local church. It was born out of the passion to grow and strengthen the practical leadership skills of both clergy and laity, so that churches might more effectively fulfill the call of God to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

United Methodists in the North Carolina Annual Conference are confronted by five critical brutal facts. These include the fact that the growth of church membership has not kept pace with the population growth of our state. Second, many of our congregations are content to remain status quo faith communities. Third, many of our pastors are maintainers rather than leaders. Fourth, we are failing to recruit young clergy and fifth, many pastors lose their passion and motivation for ministry in their mid-careers.

In concert with the Bishop and the Cabinet and other church leaders, the Academy seeks to play a strategic role in addressing these and other leadership challenges within a changing cultural and religious landscape. These include the mentoring, coaching and support of new church planters; developing and growing the leadership skills of church leaders through identifying, assessing and discerning leadership gifts and by holding seminars and training events led by the most effective church leaders within our nation.

The vision of the Academy is to provide practical leadership skills not addressed in degree programs. Such skills include being an entrepreneurial, transformational leader; leading change; growing the team around you; ministry by strengths; finishing strong, enduring well; reviving languishing churches and managing fast growth in thriving churches.

A unique strategy of the Academy also embraces “taking the show on the road.” Training events are not only held at the Academy now located at Edenton Street United Methodist Church in Raleigh, but also throughout Annual Conference districts. The Academy Board is also committed to holding district town hall listening sessions designed to help identify the leadership concerns of local church leaders. The Academy seeks to be connectional but also ecumenical, including being open to learning about leadership skills and stories from servant leaders “outside the walls of the church.”

The Academy is Spirit-driven in its devotion to be faithful by responding proactively and prayerfully to what we believe is this God-inspired leadership investment vision. Along with Bishop Gwinn and the Cabinet, our Board and staff invite fellow United Methodists to seize imaginatively, sacrificially and joyfully this once-in-a-lifetime trust to make an eternal difference within the lives of those, who God would embrace in Jesus Christ. Together, let us impact the kingdom of God through the Academy of Leadership Excellence.

Brian Gentle, Interim, Executive Director

LAITY, BOARD OF

The primary purpose of the Conference Board of Laity is to make known the good news of God’s love and salvation through Jesus Christ, and to challenge, inspire and equip the laity of the North Carolina Annual Conference for ministry in the local church.

In the past year the District Lay Leaders have implemented training workshops for local church Lay Leaders, held District Lay Rallies to celebrate the ministries of laity, and ensured that Lay Speaker Training courses were offered in their districts. The “Healthy Congregations” assessments continue to be a focus for our Districts and Local Congregations. In many churches there is a real sense of expectation and anticipation growing as lay people discover new ways to extend radical hospitality, participate in passionate worship, risk-taking mission and ministry, and focused spiritual formation all for the purpose of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world!

Laity Sunday was promoted on the third Sunday in October by the General Board of Discipleship, and many congregations participated. However, because lay people are participating more in worship services throughout the entire year “Laity Sunday” has taken on different forms in some congregations.

Our Conference United Methodist Men, United Methodist Women, and United Methodist Youth sponsored many events aimed at spiritual enrichment, leadership development, and education (please refer to their individual reports).

Every year the opportunity to lift up an Outstanding Lay Ministry is given to each district. These will be celebrated at Annual Conference as we “shine the spotlight” on excellence in ministry. (Please refer to the following report to learn more) This year we will once again be recognizing the “Acts 2 Congregations” in response to a challenge set forth by Bishop Gwinn.

This year rather than the usual “Laity Event” we have traditionally held on the Friday night of Annual Conference, the Conference Board of Laity will be sponsoring speaker, writer and teacher Adam Hamilton as he joins our Annual Conference for a presentation on Friday afternoon and then again on Friday evening June 12th.

Over the last year, the Conference Board of Laity has continued to embraced the council of Bishop’s seven pathways as a means of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world and has begun to see its’ role in the life of the Annual Conference in a new light. Excitement is building as we discover fresh ways to live into this focus through our servant leadership. May our work together as disciples of Jesus Christ bring glory to God.

Emily Innes, Conference Lay Leader

LAY MINISTRIES OF THE YEAR

Burlington District: Hillsborough UMC – “Prayers and Squares Ministry”

Through this ministry small “prayer quilts” are made and distributed to people in need of comfort and support. The entire congregation is given an opportunity to participate by coming to the altar to pray for the needs of others and tie a knot in the quilt. Over the last 3 years 94 quilts have been given away. 20% of the quilts have been given to church members and 80% given to people all over the United States.

Durham District: McMannen UMC – “Reconciliation and Justice Ministries”

Members of McMannen UMC offer God’s love, mercy, and salvation to persons in prison through ongoing long and short term courses of Disciple Bible Study. 50 inmates at the Federal Prison and 50 young adults at Polk Correctional Institution have participated. The fruits of this ministry have resulted in 28 professions of faith. The congregation is also working with “at risk” children in the community.

Elizabeth City District: Elizabeth City District Churches – “Mobile Food Pantry”

This ministry brings together laity and clergy from several United Methodist Churches as well as other denominations in an effort to meet the physical and spiritual needs of the poor. In addition to supplying food through the mobile food pantry some ministry sites offer prayer and communion stations as options for those who come to receive. To date the ministry has feed over 3,400 families.

Fayetteville District: Solid Rock UMC—“Solid Foundations Inc.”

Solid Foundations Inc. has made it possible for Solid Rock UMC to minister to tens of thousands of people in several surrounding counties through a food pantry and three child care centers (two of which are located on public school campuses). Food is distributed to over 3,000 individuals every month and over 1,000 children are the recipients of high quality child care each month. Parents are also given the opportunity to learn or improve parenting skills.

Goldsboro District: Garris Chapel UMC – “Dana’s Wardrobe”

A member of Garris Chapel UMC who owns a bridal and formal wear retail store was inspired to begin a ministry that would provide new prom dresses free of charge for girls whose families couldn’t afford to purchase one. The owner of the store contacted other formal wear retailers throughout the eastern US with the idea and gowns began to flow in. Other members of Garris Chapel UMC contacted school counselors, church pastors and area social workers for the names of girls who might benefit from such a gift. They also scheduled the appointments and assisted the girls in their dress selection and alterations. Some accessories and make-up are also provided. Over 300 gowns have been collected for girls to attend the upcoming proms this year. Through this ministry the girls are shown Christian love and invited to church youth activities.

Greenville District: Salem UMC – “Kids for Jesus”

This ministry is focused on reaching the diverse children of the community and drawing them into the life of the church. A Wednesday night meal and ministry with children is held weekly as well as special holiday events. The outreach to the community is widespread and the events are publicized through the public schools and area day care centers. Also, the children are encouraged and inspired to participate in mission related activities. Worship attendance at the church has grown from 150 to 250 persons since the beginning of this ministry.

New Bern District: Bethlehem UMC – “Helping Hands Ministry”

Young people (under UMYF age) of Bethlehem UMC are organized and ministering to their small rural community. They are helping the elderly with chores, gardening, and clean-up projects. They also help with clean-up around the church and they regularly pick up trash along the highways. They make soup and deliver it to shut-ins. They also visit nursing homes and deliver flowers. Recently they collect canned goods for a community food pantry. Their mission is to devote time to their community and serve the Lord.

Raleigh District: Fuquay-Varina UMC – “Covenant Community Garden”

The Covenant Community Garden is a community of friends who seek to be in a covenant relationship with each other and with all of creation. It brings together people of different faiths, ages (especially children), races, and economic backgrounds from the Fuquay-Varina area to provide fresh, organic produce to those in the community who are hungry. Participants also, learn an appreciation and understanding of how food is grown and are encouraged in healthy eating habits.

Rockingham District: Hickory Grove UMC – “Outreach Ministry”

Hickory Grove UMC was a small dying church that has now been revived through the leadership of a volunteer retired minister, a volunteer lay associate minister and the committed lay people of the congregation. The congregation is now growing and effective and through their outreach ministries are making a difference in their community for the sake of Jesus Christ. They are involved in lay evangelism visitation, ministries with the poor, food distribution, tutoring, computer classes, and GED classes for adults

Rocky Mount District: Jackson UMC- “Holiday Ministries”

Jackson UMC is a small rural church that is reaching out in ministry to their community. They express the love of Jesus Christ to their community by simply “just being out there at times when the community naturally gathers” to “be the church”. Two such times include the community Christmas parade during which members serve free hot cocoa and spend time in fellowship with those who come by or the Trunk or Treat event held on Halloween where people in the community are invited to come to the church parking lot for candy distribution, free food, and fellowship. At Thanksgiving the congregation held a thanksgiving dinner at the church and then also, delivered hot meals to those in the community who were shut-in. 135 meals were served.

Sanford District: Page Memorial UMC – “White Christmas Ministry”

This is a ministry of Page Memorial UMC which provides “Christmas” for families who would otherwise not be in a position financially or in some cases spiritually to provide a meaningful Christmas for their loved ones. In addition to gifts, food, and bibles, invitations to church as well as transportation to worship are offered.

Wilmington District: Pine Valley UMC – “Celebrate Recovery Ministry”

Celebrate Recovery, a Christ-centered Twelve Step ministry, began at Pine Valley in January 2006. This recovery ministry blends the gospel of Jesus Christ with the principles of the traditional twelve step programs and is open to anyone who has a “habit, hang-up or hurt,” needing God’s transforming power. The ministry has opened doors into the community and the healing power of Jesus Christ is evident as lives are being changed. Celebrate Recovery is growing each week as people are welcomed to a fellowship dinner, and worship with teaching and testimonies, followed by small groups. Every Friday night people gather to celebrate the recovery found only in the transforming power of Jesus Christ.

CHRISTIAN UNITY, COMMITTEE ON

I am deeply humbled to present my first report as the newly-elected Chairperson of the CCUIC for the quadrennium 2008-2012. Under the new structure approved by the 2008 NC Annual Conference, the CCUIC is represented within the Leadership Team of the Conference Connectional Table. The 2008 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference elected several leaders from the NC Conference to the ecumenical board and commission:

Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns

Rev. Edgardo Colon-Emeric

National Council on Churches of Christ in the USA General Board (Nominations Pool)

Rev. Patricia Archer

Sam Isley

Will Archer

Duncan McMillan

Rev. Laurie Hayes Coffman

Jeanne Rouse

Rev. Edgar De Jesus

Jimmie Shuler

Rev. Charles Michael Smith

As members together in the Body of Christ, we seek to “work toward the full reception of the gift of Christian unity in every aspect of the Church’s life and to foster approaches to ministry and mission that more fully reflect the oneness of Christ’s church in the human community. We also seek to “work for the establishment and strengthening of relationships with other living faith communities, and to further dialogue with persons of other faiths, cultures, and ideologies” (paragraph 1902 of the Book of Discipline). Our responsibilities are listed in paragraph 642 of the 2008 Book of Discipline, and our Commission is in connectional relationship with the General Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns.

During 2008, three CUIC members attended the National Workshop on Christian Unity in Chicago, Illinois, an ecumenical event hosted by the Roman Catholic church with ten participating communions. This year, four CUIC members will attend the National Workshop on Christian Unity to be held in Phoenix, Arizona with an aim of continuing to raise up a new generation of ecumenical leadership.

In recent years, ecumenical ties between the UMC/Episcopal Church (USA) and UMC/ELCA (Evangelical Lutheran Church in America) have been strengthened through establishment of Interim Eucharistic Agreements. We are represented in the ongoing statewide Episcopal/United Methodist Dialogue, led through the years by the Rev. Dr. F. Belton Joyner and Dr. Pat Page. We also represent the North Carolina Conference in the House of Delegates of the NC Council of Churches. And the CCUIC sponsored an ecumenical dialogue during the Bishop's Day Apart in 2008 with Dr. Carl Braaten (Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology) and Dr. Rollin Russell (NC Council of Churches) as the main presenters.

Finally, we affirm the work of many local congregations throughout the NC Conference in fostering Christian unity and strengthening our relationships with people of other faiths. Indeed, through our ministry, we seek "to advance and strengthen ecumenical and interreligious commitments that are essential to the Gospel of Jesus Christ, by forming and inspiring the clergy and lay leadership within the Annual Conference."

Edgar De Jesus, Chairperson

CLERGY CARE, COMMITTEE ON

Since 1971 the Committee on Clergy Care (formerly the Committee on Pastoral Care) has served clergy in the North Carolina Annual Conference by providing financial aid for confidential professional counseling and marriage and family enrichment. Beginning 2004, in keeping with our understanding of the call and ministry of those who serve the Church as commissioned minister, deacon, diaconal minister, elder, or licensed local pastor under appointment, the Committee is now referred to as the Committee on Clergy Care. The Committee is comprised of five members from the Board of Ordained Ministry (one of whom serves as chairperson); one representative from the Conference Clergy Living Committee; one representative from the Clergy Partners Association; and one Pastoral Counselor. Funding for grants and expenses of the committee is included in the budget of the Board of Ordained Ministry and the awarding of grants is dependent upon the availability of funds.

Financial aid is available to both clergy and diaconal ministers and their families, as described in the section below entitled, "Eligibility for Financial Grants". The financial grants, of up to $400 per family per calendar year, are provided to cover one-half of the cost of counseling sessions. Ministers under the NC Conference health insurance program should review the Health Care Benefits for outpatient psychiatric care. The coordination of insurance benefits and Clergy Care Grants should not exceed 100% of fees charged.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY ENRICHMENT

The Committee on Clergy Care encourages participation in marriage and family enrichment events, including those focusing on the needs of single, as well as married ministers. Grants up to $100 per individual, or $200 per family or couple, per calendar year, are available. A schedule and/or outline of the events, leaders' names and credentials and verification of participation should accompany a letter of application for the grant.

ELIGIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Persons who qualify for financial grants:

1. Clergy who are members of the NC Annual Conference whose status is active and serving within the boundaries of the Conference, or any person, regardless of conference relationship, who is serving a local church of the NC Annual Conference, or a dependent.
2. Diaconal ministers and or candidates who are serving a local church and are members of the NC Conference. Conference clergy and diaconal ministers and their families are eligible for grants. A family is defined as dependents of the minister living in a ministers' home or parsonage, including spouse, children, parents and grandparents. Ministers' children through the age of 22, whether attending college or living at home, are eligible to receive financial grants.

COUNSELORS AND THERAPISTS WHO QUALIFY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Only counselors and therapists who meet the following criteria qualify to receive grants from the Committee on Clergy Care:

Psychiatrist: American Medical Association (AMA) Board Certification, North Carolina License;

Psychologist (Clinical): Licensed Practicing Psychologist LPP and/or HSP-P), North Carolina License;

Pastoral Counselor: Member, Fellow or Diplomate of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, Inc. (AAPC)

Counselor: Clinical Member of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT), North Carolina Certified Marriage and Family Therapists, North Carolina Licensed Professional Counselors (LPL)

Social Worker: Member Association of Certified Social Workers (ACSW).

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

The Counselor or therapist, at the request of the qualifying client who is receiving the counseling, is to make application for a grant to the Chairperson of the Committee on Clergy Care in the following manner:

1. The counselor or therapist requests an application form and instructions from the Office of Ministerial Relations. This request should be addressed in care of the Office of Ministerial Relations, PO Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605, or by calling either 919-832-9560 or 800-849-4433, ext 244.
2. Once the application and instructions for a Clergy Care Grant are received by the counselor/therapist, and a determination is made that the client qualifies, the application should be completed and returned to the Office of Ministerial Relations for processing. To protect the confidentiality of the client, the client's name and social security number shall never appear on the application. When more than one member of the client's family is involved in counseling, all family members shall be assigned the same case number.
3. The counselor/therapist will receive the financial aid grant on behalf of the client to apply to the client's account or to refund to the client if the account has already been paid. Clients should request from the therapist a statement showing the amount of financial assistance received from the Clergy Care Committee and should request the counselor/therapist to contact the Chairperson of Clergy Care to negotiate an acceptable procedure if any problems arise concerning the process. The client, not the Clergy Care Committee, is responsible for all contracts, negotiated fees and payment of services that are provided.
4. The deadline for submitting grant applications is December 20th of the calendar year in which the services were provided.

In 2008, the Committee on Pastoral Care granted $5,603.30 for counseling sessions. This represents 191 sessions with counselors and therapists during the calendar year. Grants processed in 2008 totaled 32, representing 94 sessions for clergy, 0 for cleric and spouse, 24 for spouse, 67 for children and 12 for clergy family together. Of these 32 grants, 6 received the 2008 maximum of $400.00 in assistance and 10 received at least half to two-thirds of the maximum grant.

Deborah Wilkins, Chairperson

CLERGY COUNSELING AND CONSULTATION

The 2000 Annual Conference voted unanimously to establish and fund the Clergy Counseling and Consultation Service (CCCS) to provide support for our pastors and their families. It created this Commission to develop and oversee this program. Jane Clark Moorman, MSW, LCSW, BCD has served as Director since beginning the Service January 1, 2001.

The primary purposes of the CCCS are: 1) to meet the emotional/psychological needs of pastors and their families; and, 2) to provide mental health consultation for clergy to assist them in providing effective pastoral care, counseling, and leadership to members of their congregations. Ms. Moorman also provides round-the-clock assistance to pastors in caring for parishioners in crisis and handling other emergencies. There are no fees for CCCS services.

Ms. Moorman provides diagnostic assessment, counseling, psychotherapy, and referral services for clients within their own faith perspective. In 2008, 185 persons from 148 clergy families (19% of our active clergy under appointment) utilized her services. She provided 1,063 direct counseling hours and 342 mental health consultations. Clergy have received help for themselves, their families, and their parishioners in dealing with depression, anxiety, marital conflict, parent-child problems, spiritual concerns, addictions, sexual concerns, grief, moving/transition difficulties, professional identity, and congregation-related issues. A network of mental health providers and pastoral counselors across our Conference is continually updated for referral as needed.

Ms. Moorman adheres closely to a policy of strict confidentiality which guards the privacy of each person who contacts or uses the CCCS. No information is released to anyone without prior written authorization. The Director reports only to this Commission and this Commission reports only to the Annual Conference.

Services are available in five locations: In addition to the main office in Durham, Ms. Moorman provides services four or five days each month in satellite offices in Washington, Edenton, Fayetteville, and Wilmington. For further information, consultation, or an appointment, please call toll-free 866-440-4200 or locally 402-4200.

The 2008 Annual Conference voted to continue the director's salary in the 2010 budget it approved; however, due to significant budgetary shortfall, CF&A is now recommending that these funds be withdrawn. Mindful of our country's difficult economic downturn, this Commission is requesting a reduced budget to maintain these services that support our clergy and congregations in times of need. During the 2010 fiscal year, the Commission will be working with the Clergy Wellness Initiative to restructure the current Services to become integrated into a holistic approach to health. We believe that healthy clergy and healthy congregations are supported best when physical, spiritual, social, and psychological needs are fully addressed.

We appreciate the past support of the CCCS by the Annual Conference and anticipate moving forward as a strong partner in wellness.

Regina S. Dickens, Ed.D., Chair person

CONFERENCE RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Conference Relations has as its primary responsibility the assisting of any clergy who seek to change or terminate their relationship with the Annual Conference. Changes in conference relationship may occur in any of the following ways: 1) discontinuation, 2) leave of absence, 3) retirement, 4) sabbatical leave, 5) maternity/paternity leave, 6) family leave, 7) termination of conference relationship (surrender of credentials), 8) honorable location.

The Conference Relations Committee meets with the person who is seeking a change in conference relationship upon the request of that person, or upon request of the Cabinet or the Board of Ordained Ministry. The committee attempts to determine what is appropriate in each case by posing questions, offering counsel and providing support. The committee then discusses the request and acts upon it by making a recommendation to the Board of Ordained Ministry. In any event, the person requesting the change and the Conference Relations Committee acting on the request must follow the requirements in The Book of Discipline.

The Book of Discipline provides specific guidelines applying to each of the categories of conference membership. All those persons in the various categories of conference membership (other than the effective relationship) should remember to familiarize themselves with, and adhere to, the disciplinary guidelines which apply to that category. The Committee on Conference Relations issues a yearly reminder of these guidelines through a letter approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry at its annual meeting. Following the appropriate guidelines is particularly important for clergy on leave of absence; for these persons, exercise of any ministerial function is restricted to the Charge Conference in which their membership is held. The Conference Relations Committee would take this opportunity to reiterate that pastors on leave of absence cannot perform weddings, conduct funerals, or administer the sacraments outside the bounds (both geographical and membership bounds) of that charge conference.

Every spring (since 1987) the Conference Relations Committee has hosted a luncheon for those who will be retiring from the North Carolina Annual Conference at the June session of that year. At this luncheon, the retirees and their spouses are informed about various matters relating to their retirement such as insurance, housing, and pension benefits. This year's retirement luncheon was held at St. Luke United Methodist Church in Goldsboro on Tuesday, May 13, 2008.

CONTINUING EDUCATION, COMMITTEE ON

The Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry has the responsibility of developing continuing education programs that will enable ministers to fulfill the Disciplinary requirements. According to the Book of Discipline, "Clergy shall be expected to continue their education and spiritual growth throughout their careers, including carefully developed personal programs of study augmented periodically by involvement in organized educational and spiritual growth activities." The Discipline further states that, "In most cases the ordained ministers' continuing education and spiritual growth program should allow for such leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered as part of the ministers' vacations and shall be planned in consultation with their charges or other agencies to which they are appointed as well as the bishop, district superintendent, and Annual Conference Continuing Education Committee."

In providing the resources to enable pastors to meet the minimum requirement of The Discipline, the Committee on Continuing Education has edited a brochure that applies to all clergy and diaconal ministers of the NC Annual Conference. The brochure contains information defining Continuing Education, the role of the local church, and how the pastor's continuing education can be financed. The brochure is printed as part of this report.

Continuing Education for Ministry in the NC Annual Conference:

Rationale: A prime expectation of every minister of the NC Annual Conference is professional growth. In recent years, one of the major avenues through which such growth occurred has been continuing education. In The Book of Discipline it states, "There are professional responsibilities that elders are expected to fulfill and that represent a fundamental part of their accountability and a primary basis for their continued eligibility for annual appointment. Growth in vocational competence and effectiveness through continuing formation is expected of conference members."

Definition: Continuing education is defined as an organized structured program of formal study under competent leadership with clearly defined goals and objectives. Here the key words are "organized," "competent leadership," and "clearly defined goals and objectives." By this definition certain activities, though worthwhile, are not considered "continuing education"; e.g., degree programs, recreational programs, course of study programs, promotional meetings, worship services, entertainments, undirected reading, and study travel (except for limited lecture, seminar, or workshop time), and the like.

The Conference Program:

The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, through the Committee on Continuing Education, performs three functions: 1) it sets minimum continuing education standards for ministry; 2) it establishes guidelines for continuing education; and 3) it seeks to insure their availability.

1. Minimum Standards: The NC Conference has established as a minimum standard one Continuing Education Unit (CEU) to be earned by each minister from an approved continuing education program each year. One CEU is defined as ten contact hours of participation in an approved continuing education program.
2. Guidelines for Continuing Education Programs: CEUs will be approved for those persons sponsored by organizations which are accredited by a) a regional educational agency (such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), b) a professional accrediting agency (such as the American Medical Association), or c) the Council on the Continuing Education Unit. It should also be noted that only those programs which relate directly to ministerial growth and development will be approved.
3. Insuring their Availability: Efforts by the Board of Ordained Ministry to insure the availability of continuing education programs include encouraging conference-related and other colleges within the Conference bounds to offer courses for ministers, providing supplementary financial aid for ministers, publicizing approved programs, and identifying specific subject areas for needed programs.

Role of the Local Church: In addition to the minister, the local church has a significant stake in the success of continuing education programs. The local church, therefore, has an important role to play in continuing education.

The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the Local Church:

1. Confers with the pastor and the district superintendent in the development of a continuing education program that will enhance the total ministry of the church.
2. Provides study leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such study leaves are not to be considered vacation time.
3. Recommends to the church's Finance Committee budgetary funds to be applied toward the minister's continuing education program. In providing funds for continuing education programs, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee should insure that only those programs which meet both the definitions and specific guidelines above are funded.

Financial Aid to Clergy:

Funding for continuing education is the combined responsibility of the participant, the congregation, the sponsoring institution, and the Annual Conference. Conference funds for continuing education are derived as a portion of conference apportionments. Thus, it is not possible (nor is it desirable) for the conference to assume a major responsibility. Continuing education can be expensive. For this reason, local churches are encouraged to provide a minimum of $300.00 annually for each clergy and diaconal ministers' continuing education.

All persons under Episcopal appointment to charges, conference staff positions, Conference Evangelists, retired supply, and Extension Ministries appointed to conference-related agencies and institutions are eligible for grants from the Conference funds provided:

1. The program meets the definitions and Conference guidelines described above.
2. The applicant has documented his or her efforts to secure funding from other sources, including local church, Duke Endowment, and personal resources.
3. The application for a grant is filed on the appropriate form which furnishes complete information about the event and bears the signatures of the applicant, the Pastor-Parish chairperson, and district superintendent.

Continuing Education Grant Guidelines:

1. The maximum grant to an individual applicant over one conference year is $300.00
2. Grants are available for ordained, commissioned, licensed and diaconal ministers who receive less than the CAC (Conference Average Compensation), which includes salary and utilities, or less.
3. Applicants must use all funds designated by their local congregation or employing organization prior to requesting Conference grants.
4. Grants for District Continuing Education Seminars shall be limited to $100.00, based upon the availability of funds, regardless of the number of CEUs involved and within the limits outlined in #1, 2, and 3.
5. Grants for Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) can be given when the CPE program offers the required CEU credits. No more than $300.00 per CPE unit will be granted in any given year. Grants for CPE are given only for non-degree programs.
6. Holy Land Trips: A grant according to the current policy may be made once in a pastor's career, providing funding is available.

Monitoring Continuing Education Units:

1. The district superintendent, in annual consultation, may suggest to the clergy or diaconal minister the area of continuing education he or she should take to facilitate his or her professional growth. The pastor's annual Continuing Education Report will be given to the district superintendent at the annual consultation or other appropriate time.
2. Clergy shall have the responsibility for securing from the institution granting Continuing Education credit a record of earned credit and providing a copy of this record to the Office of Ministerial Relations.
3. It is the responsibility of each participant to determine, in consultation with the Committee on Continuing Education, if a proposed program meets the criteria prior to participation and funding.

ENLISTMENT, COMMITTEE ON

A simple look at the ages and faces of clergy in The United Methodist Church, one has a better understanding of the statistical projections about the tremendous loss of clergy through retirement over the next eight to ten years.

In our conference, for example, over 100 clergy are currently eligible for retirement should they choose to do so. The means by which clergy are eligible for retirement are as follows:

- Mandatory retirement at age 72
- Early retirement
- Retirement base upon years of service

If these eligible clergy were to retire in the next 3-5 years, the Bishop and the Cabinet would be faced with an awesome void within the North Carolina Annual Conference.

The primary concern of the Committee on Enlistment is to raise the awareness of our constituency within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference so that identification and enlistment of ordained ministers is an ongoing concern that touches every dimension of the body of Christ. In keeping with this goal the Committee on Enlistment is ready to provide direction and encouragement in the process of clergy enlistment. More importantly, the primary responsibility for identifying youth, young adults, and second career individuals who are ready to answer God's call, falls upon local church pastors, laity in the local churches, and campus ministers.

All too often, some people place God's call to the ministry behind economic or security concerns. Sometimes a friend or a respected leader in a local church is more aware of a calling upon an individual than the person him or herself. One of the roles of individuals and Pastor-Parish Relations Committees in local churches is to confirm the claim of God upon those that are called by directing them to their local church pastors, District Superintendents, and District Committees on Ministry.

The Committee on Enlistment will continue to work closely with Bishop Gwinn and his Cabinet to find creative ways to help young people explore God's calling in their lives. This will include making appeals at conference youth events but we hope it also involves a more visible presence in our conference camps, campus ministries and other ministries to youth and young adults.

There are other spiritual encounters [opportunities] that have proven to be helpful in understanding a call to ministry, such as, Disciple Bible Study and Emmaus. Events like these have awakened and provided opportunities for so many to hear and respond to God's call.

The Committee on Enlistment encourages all pastors and laity to continue to be open to the Holy Spirit's leading in directing people to give thought and prayer to the possibility that God may be calling them to ordained ministry.

HISPANIC AND LATINO MINISTRIES, COMMITTEE ON

In a year of transition the Hispanic/Latino Ministries working with a new Committee took big steps towards equipping our leadership. This has been done through workshops, "Renuevame" gathering, Embrace Workshops and by our leadership pursuing their theological education at Duke Divinity School, retreats, and the Convocation in Greensboro by the Duke Endowment. We continue to reach out to the marginalized, the poor and oppressed through our 15 ministries and four Embrace districts: New Bern, Durham, Sanford and Burlington. We have received several grants that had been used for children's festivals called "Dia de los Ninos", and other development programs. Grants are our main funding source, but we intend to make that change. We have appropriated a lot of our budget towards youth programs that have included retreats in Florida, the Outer Banks and Marcha in the Southwest.

We have taken steps towards extending hospitality to our neighbors. We encourage people to join to join the Religious Coalition for Justice for Immigrants [www.welcometheimmigrant.org]. We also work towards making a rainbow of all people. To do this we participated in the first Black, Brown, and Beyond "conversation" at Duke Divinity School. Work has begun in the Goldsboro district with Rev. Gail Myers to be a Church of all people. A forum was held in which questions were answered by Alex Lluch of the governor's office and the rights were explained by a representative of "El Pueblo." A representative from this institution is available to our conference, to do "Know Your Rights" workshops.

We intend to put emphasis in "Information." We intend to equip every leader with a laptop or Translator Kit. Our Director Rev. Cookie Santiago is leading us towards minimizing the animosity towards undocumented persons. She is overwhelmed by people making calls and sending E- Mails asking for financial, presence and legal help. We try to do our best to cooperate and support by putting the word out and with prayer and attending different activities.

We are thankful to the Duke Divinity School for providing a Field Ed Intern. We are always in the need of recruiting leadership but without adequate funds it becomes a challenge. But we are thankful to our conference , districts and churches that have responded to the Hispanic/Latino Community by providing resources and creative minds. We urge Our Conference as we pursue the seven pathways to make the Hispanic/ Latino Ministries and the community it ministers in North Carolina a priority to respond to. Our Office in Raleigh can be contacted to get any information concerning mandates or resolutions on immigration.

God is blessing our ministries and we are thankful to Bishop Al Gwinn, churches, clergy and lay people in the NC Conference for their increase awareness and desire to help and make a difference in the Hispanic/ Latino ministries and community. For such positive attitudes we are excited and encouraged. We look forward towards a new year in which we will help our Conference become God's bright beautiful rainbow. God bless you.

We All belong to One Family~ The Family of God

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND, COMMITTEE ON

The Ministerial Education Fund (MEF) is one of the most "unsung blessings" of our connectional support! In addition to being the underlying support to our seminaries, it provides invaluable support for the following ministries: Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry for programs they provide for clergy, both Elder and Deacon in Full Connection, diaconal ministers; scholarships for students studying for the ordained , both Elder and Deacon In Full Connection in the 13 outstanding United Methodist seminaries and in non-United Methodist seminaries approved by the Division of Ordained Ministry and taught by seminary professors and conference leaders throughout the United Methodist Church; Continuing Education; Course of Study Schools (more than 4,700 people are involved in 12 Course of Study Schools); research and special programs related to candidacy and enlistment; pastoral care initiatives; clergy women concerns; racial and ethnic concerns; spiritual formation; testing and evaluation; training of boards of ordained ministry; international theological education; jurisdictional block grants; supervision issues and Dempster Fellowships. All of these ministries are funded by money from the Ministerial Education Fund. According to ¶816.1, "Of the total money raised in each annual conference for the Ministerial Education Fund, 25 percent shall be retained by the annual conference that raised it, to be used in its program of ministerial education as approved by the annual conference and administered through its Board of Ordained Ministry."

The general policies for the North Carolina Annual Conference's portion of the Ministerial Education Fund are set by the Board of Ordained Ministry. Brochures with guidelines and policies for the MEF scholarships are available from the Office of Ministerial Relations.

Some interesting facts regarding MEF are:

- Hundreds of millions of dollars have been given by local congregations to the MEF since 1968.
- More than twenty-five percent (25%) of that amount from the MEF has supported conference board services in each annual conference since 1970.
- MEF supports Duke Divinity School, which for over 79 years has prepared men and women for leadership in the church as clergy and laity.

Other institutions supported by Ministerial Education Funds are: Boston University School of Theology, Boston, MA; Candler School of Theology at Emory University, Atlanta, GA; The Theological School at Drew University, Madison, NJ; Iliff School of Theology, Denver, CO; Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, GA; Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, Evanston, IL; Methodist Theological School in Ohio, Delaware, OH; Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, TX; Saint Paul School of Theology, Kansas City, MS; Claremont School of Theology, Claremont, CA; United Theological Seminary, Dayton, OH; Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, DC.

MONITORING AND ACCOUNTABILITY, COMMITTEE ON

The purpose of the Monitoring and Accountability Team is to seek a full and equal participation of the racial and ethnic constituency in the total life of the Conference through teaching, advocacy and by reviewing and monitoring the practices of the Conference to ensure racial Inclusiveness. Helping conference, districts or churches develop affirmative action and racial inclusiveness policies and a plan to achieve these goals. Also are functions of the Monitoring and Accountability Committee.

The ministry goal of the Monitoring and Accountability Team is to challenge, invite and call the Annual Conference in all of its leadership, ministry and practice to a full vision and recognition of human dignity, including race, gender, age and status.

The Monitoring Team would like to teach and engage our constituency toward a biblical and theological understanding of the dignity of all persons. The Monitoring Team has begun to monitor District events, The Conference Connectional Table and we will monitor our Annual Conference.

The Monitoring and Accountability Team will continue to advocate for inclusiveness - Building a community of Love and Justice for all.

NC PASTORS SCHOOL AND DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL CONVOCATION

On October 13-15, 2008, 420 clergy gathered for the annual Convocation and Pastors' School at Duke Divinity School. The event focused on the theme "For Such a Time as This: Christian Leadership in a Changing World." The event featured inspiring lectures, seminars and worship services. Featured speaker Ron Heifetz, author and Harvard Professor, offered an insightful lecture. The Franklin S. Hickman Lecture was presented by Adam Hamilton, United Methodist pastor. A panel discussion with Bishops Al Gwinn, North Carolina Annual Conference; Janice Riggle Huie, Texas Annual Conference; Greg Palmer, Iowa Annual Conference; and Larry Goodpaster, Western North Carolina Annual Conference was held, as well. The Convocation preachers were Bishop Janice Riggle Huie, Bishop Greg Palmer and Bishop Larry Goodpaster. Fifteen different continuing education seminars enrolled over three hundred and forty participants. The seminars included "But it Shall Not Be with You: Exercising Authority in the Church," "Theological Entrepreneurship: What's 'Christian' about Christian Leadership?" "Equipping the Saints for Ministry: Developing Lay Leaders in Your Congregation," and "Deer Hunting with Jesus: Faithful Ministry in Blue-Collar Communities."

The 2009 Convocation and Pastors' School will be held October 5-7, and will explore the changing identity of Christianity in a global context with Philip Jenkins, author and humanities professor; Os Guinness, author and co-founder of The Trinity Forum; Kenda Creasy-Dean, assistant professor of youth, church and culture at Princeton Theology Seminary; and Tyrone Gordon, United Methodist pastor. A detailed brochure will be available from Duke Divinity School later this summer. Individuals are encouraged to contact the Center for Lifelong Learning for more information (<http://www.divinity.duke.edu/learningforlife>, email div-conted@duke.edu, phone 888-845-4216).

PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING AND BACKGROUND

The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry evaluates all prospective and continuing candidates in accordance with requirements in The Book of Discipline 2008. Those seeking to enter ordained ministry or licensed ministry undergo a comprehensive evaluation. One component of the evaluation process involves psychological testing and background investigation, conducted under the direction of the Committee on Psychological Testing and Background Checks.

Psychological testing serves two purposes: (1) It provides the individual with valuable information, feedback and guidance related to psychological health and wholeness. (2) It provides the Board of Ordained Ministry and District Committees with useful information as they evaluate and mentor prospective and continuing candidates to determine their fitness, potential, and promise for fruitful and effective service in ordained and/or licensed ministry.

Psychological evaluation services are being provided through a contract with Dr. Bert Lucas, a member of St. Luke United Methodist Church in Sanford, North Carolina. Dr. Lucas has done an outstanding job this past couple of years in providing this service, and the Committee is indebted to him for his guidance and counsel.

Expenses for psychological evaluations are borne by the Board of Ordained Ministry for those persons residing within the annual conference and for those transferring into the conference when they are included with North Carolina Conference candidates for group testing.

Background checks on prospective and continuing candidates are furnished through a contract with Kroll Background America, Inc. Each background check costs $60.00 and the cost is borne by the applicant. The applicant is provided with a copy of their background check report once completed by Kroll.

On average the Committee processes 80 psychological tests and 90 background checks a year.

The other members of the Committee on Psychological Testing and Background Checks are the following persons: Liz Roberts, Valerie Balance, Marilyn Boyce, Richard Jackson, Andy Keck and Sam Lewis. I am very appreciative of the seriousness and dedication with which the Committee approaches its work. The Committee would like to thank Tim Russell for his guidance and wisdom, and Linda Bourey for her assistance with the administrative aspects of our work.

RESIDENCY IN ORDAINED MINISTRY, COMMITTEE ON

The North Carolina Conference Residency in Ordained Ministry (RIOM) program began in fulfillment of ¶417.3 of the 1984 Discipline requiring Annual Conferences to provide Counseling Elders for Probationers. Adjusting to changes in the mentoring process mandated by subsequent Disciplines, RIOM continues to provide an opportunity for probationary members to grow and find support as they live and learn through this opportunity of concentrated focus and reflection on ministerial theology and practice. Twenty years of experience with this program have demonstrated the great value in preparing probationers for Full Conference Membership.

The North Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry uses a "Cluster Group Model" to meet the Disciplinary requirements for providing leadership and supervision for our probationary members. Probationers meet in small "cluster" groups throughout the probationary period. These groups are arranged, as often as possible, by geographical area in order to minimize travel time and facilitate greater fellowship. Cluster leaders are Elders who, by intention, are not members of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Recognizing that these cluster groups become an important source for collegiality and support, every effort is made to keep each participant in the same cluster throughout the probationary period.

Following the General Conference of 2008, a candidate can now complete his/her requirements for Deacon/or Elder in Full Connection within two (2) years by accepting a full-time appointment and participating in the RIOM process. The Book of Discipline provides a maximum time line of six (6) years to complete these requirements. Last fall our Board agreed to move to a two year probationary period, which necessitated changing the way our RIOM groups are structured. Year A will focus on Spiritual Disciplines, Leadership and Healthy Congregations. Year B will focus on helping candidates prepare for the oral and written work necessary for ordination.

Despite the change to a two year probationary period, certain candidates may be required by the Board of Ordained Ministry to spend an additional year or more "continuing" the probationary process. A continuance does not mean the probationer has failed or that he/she does not have the gifts and grace for ministry. This continuance is better understood as an opportunity for the probationer to continue to grow in grace as they seek to answer God's call to ordained ministry.

In September of each year, Duke Divinity School sponsors a conference for candidates who are preparing for Full Connection interviews in the coming year. This annual seminar is led by faculty from the Divinity School and focuses on theology, worship, and pastoral concerns. Though not mandatory, we strongly recommend this time of reflection for all who are planning to come before the Board for Full Connection interviews. As a part of this seminar, participants are given the opportunity to meet with representatives from the Board of Ordained Ministry's interview committees to discuss their preparations for the coming year and to address questions they may have. Duke Divinity School also sponsors a seminar each October for candidates who are writing their first papers and seeking commissioning/probationary membership.

The Residency in Ordained Ministry Committee would like to offer a word of sincere thanks to: Donnie Jones, Duke Lackey, Hope Vickers, Tommy Sweeley, Bob Wallace, Charles Moseley, Grace Hackney, Jenny Wilson, Jim Bell, Jim Reed, Rich Greenway and Teresa Lawrence for their service as Cluster Group Leaders during the past conference year. These gifted servants have enabled our Annual Conference to offer candidates an enriching and worthwhile experience of growth and reflection. We, as a committee, are committed to helping candidates for Ordained Ministry in every way possible.

The Committee wants to express sincere thanks to the Reverend Timothy J. Russell, Director of Ministerial Relations and Assistant to the Bishop and to Linda Bourey, the executive assistant to the Director of Ministerial Relations for their guidance and assistance.

Ken Hall, Jr., Chairperson

SEXUAL ETHICS SUPPORT TEAM

The Board of Ordained Ministry was asked at the 1999 Annual Conference to implement a policy on professional sexual misconduct for the North Carolina Conference. Since this time the committee was organized and implemented the policy. The present committee is comprised of the following members: Francis Daniel (Chair), Jeff Severt, Judi Smith, Donna Thompson, Fred Hight, Sandra Ray and Chanequa Walker-Barnes.

The committee continued the training of sexual ethics support teams, persons available if the bishop wishes to deploy them to support persons who bring a complaint of sexual misconduct, to support persons against whom such complaints are made, and to support congregations which might be impacted by such circumstances. The careful training, coordinated by Mary Jane Wilson-Parsons, has prepared nine persons to serve as support team members.

In response to the request of the Board of Ordained Ministry in 2000, Bishop Edwards appointed The Reverend Mary Jane Wilson-Parsons to a less-than-full-time extension ministry as Coordinator of the Sexual Ethics Concerns. Her responsibilities include: 1) Design and implement training for SEST; 2) Make recommendations to and serve on the subcommittee of the Board of Ordained Ministry as a consultant and advisor to policy decisions; 3) Coordinate each SEST response, providing supervision to team members as needed; 4) Be available to consult with the bishop or members of the Cabinet regarding any instance of alleged clergy misconduct; 5) Provide outreach and education to members of the conference regarding the Sexual Ethics Policy and the role of the response team; 6) Be responsible for staffing the toll-free Clergy Ethics Hotline. This ministry began July 1, 2000, and is funded by the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Moral responsibility underlines the importance of our attention to this area of our life together. The sub-committee invites you to review the Sexual Ethics Policy (pgs. 248-250 of The Journal 1999 – note: will be reprinted in 2007 journal). The policy is also available on disk from the Conference Secretary's Office. Awareness of and fulfillment of that policy will strengthen our covenant and will offer new avenues for grace in our lives.

The Sexual Ethics Support Team, in conjunction with the Bishop and the Cabinet, will provide opportunities for each clergy person to attend workshops that will provide continuing education to assist us in maintaining moral responsibility in our work as pastors. Each pastor will be notified in advance by his/her district superintendent regarding the location and dates for these meetings, and each pastor is required to attend. Opportunities for the laity to be involved either has been, or will be shared in the January Workshops, or at a time chosen by the district superintendent.

Plans for workshops to continue from time to time in the future in order that pastors may be assisted in maintaining moral responsibility as ministries are shared for the cause of Christ. Every new minister to the North Carolina Conference is required to attend Orientation Workshops that also include a one-day training in this area as they begin their ministry. This workshop will be held this year on August 6 at Garner United Methodist church.

This ministry is getting ready to undergo some restructuring to align it with other Sexual Ethics Support Teams across the denomination. In keeping with other annual conferences we will no longer have a paid person coordinating this effort. In light of that, we wish to sincerely thank Mary Jane Wilson-Parsons for her work in this area since 2000. We wish her well in her new appointment and will do our best to carry on the good work she began.

STRENGTHENING THE BLACK CHURCH, COMMITTEE ON

The Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century Committee is composed of seven members. Five of the members are new members of the committee coming on board for the first time in 2008. The committee is composed of four men and three women. The committee has been actively dialoguing with clergy and laity on strategies that can assist the Black Church in the North Carolina Conference in areas such as leadership, resources, training, evangelism, financial strategies, and community outreach. The committee has developed a tool to analyze the areas of need of the Black Church to accurately assess the status of the Black Church. Such an endeavor allows for strategic planning of events and strategies for the Black Church in the 21st Century.

The bi-annual Convocation on the Black Church will be held on September 17th through the 19th at Hay Street United Methodist Church in Fayetteville, North Carolina. The theme for the convocation is as follows: "Can These Dry Bones Live? The State of the Black Church in North Carolina. Our first session begins on Thursday with clergy only. The event is designed to introduce innovative strategies for continual revitalization and church growth for clergy and laity.

In conclusion, Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century Committee is working with the Office of Multicultural Ministries. Churches have been identified that can benefit from consultation and coaching insights. We are in collaboration with the General Board of Global Ministries: (Urban and Congregational Development); Strengthening the Black Church in the 21st Century and the General Board of Discipleship Black Desk. We are excited about the possibilities for building stronger and more relevant ministries by providing professional development and training resources. Strengthening our Black Churches in North Carolina to become more effective in mission and ministry is our goal as we seek to make Disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the World.

STEWARDSHIP TEAM

THE CHRISTIAN FORMATION TEAM SERVES TO EMPOWER MINISTRY.

COMMUNICATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

With the beginning of a new quadrennium, the Communications Committee seeks to improve communications in our Conference in the following ways:

- By improving cross-connectional communication within the Conference and its leadership: Members of the Communications Committee sit on the Conference Connectional Table (CCT) and all four of the Table's teams. They submit summaries to one another and to the CCT of the Team meetings. Notes from the CCT meetings will be more widely available through the Conference website and The Advocate.
- By helping Conference groups, teams, and committees to have alternatives to face-to-face meetings when needed: With the high cost of travel and ongoing improvements in technology, we hope to facilitate and encourage use of conference calls and web-meetings when face-to-face meetings are not necessary.
- Through a new-and-improved Conference website and new tools for helping local churches with creating and improving websites: We welcome a new full-time webmaster to the Conference staff! Derek Leek and his team have redesigned the Conference website at www.nccumc.org and they have included new social networking and calendaring tools. Derek will now be transitioning into doing more equipping of local churches with tools and resources to help them build or improve their own websites.
- Training across our Conference in the new "Rethink Church" campaign: You remember "Igniting Ministry" with its "Open Hearts. Open Minds. Open Doors." Media? "Rethink Church" is a new media campaign that builds on the unprecedented success of Igniting Ministry. The Communications Committee will be coming to your area to help train pastors and lay persons on how they can "Rethink Church" and how they can give communities ten-thousand new doorways into church life and participation.
- Through excellent video production for local churches: Many of you have shared your appreciation for the Conference's DVDs that you have been able to show in your churches. We plan to continue this very effective communication tool and build on it for the future, possibly through on-line "video ministry" training for local churches in and through increased use of "web videos" for Conference ministries.

Our new Conference Committee is comprised of excellent leaders from across our Conference, both clergy and laity, and we thank them for their faithful service. We thank the Conference for making it possible for our Executive Team to benefit from outstanding training at the 2008 meeting of the United Methodist Association of Communicators. The Conference has benefited tremendously from the effective communication of The North Carolina Conference Advocate in 2008 and we commend the Advocate Board and Editor, Bill Norton. And we thank our Conference Communications staff for being so dedicated and terrific: Bill Norton, LeeAnne Thornton, Derek Leek, and Linda Smith. Surely God has blessed us with a strong Communications ministry for such a time as this.

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

The Book of Discipline mandates that “there shall be in each annual conference a commission on equitable compensation” (§ 625), whose purpose is “to support fulltime clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference” (§625.2). Three broad areas of responsibility are outlined in §625.2, which are: “(a.) Recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b.) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (c.) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations.”

God calls persons to ministry to go into all the world, preaching, teaching and baptizing (Matthew 28:19), for without them the world would not have heard Christ preached (Romans 10:14). These are called to be stewards of the mysteries of God (1 Corinthians 4:1). The Church lifts up some persons for the role of clergy and ordains these persons to the work of pastoral ministry to be servants of the servants of God.

Those who are ordained to pastoral ministry answer affirmatively the historic question of John Wesley, (§330.17) “Are you determined to employ all your time in the work of God?” For such a called, set apart and committed clergy, the Church assumes an obligation to plan adequate support. The Book of Discipline is clear that “the primary responsibility for payment of pastoral salaries remains with individual pastoral charges (§625.5; see also §247.13). Pastoral charges carry a responsibility for clergy salaries as one expression of their missional and ministry presences in the community. We recognize that such a missional presence also includes faithful payment of apportionments in full as ministry beyond the local church.

The Commission seeks equity and fairness for both pastors and local churches. Why should this commission be so concerned about equity and fairness? Our prayerful consideration of scriptural and historical foundations are found in the following:

- Jesus says, “the laborer deserves to be paid,” (Luke 10:7) and Paul reminds us “Let the elders who rule well be considered worthy of compensation, especially those who labor in preaching and teaching; for the scripture says, “You shall not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain,”” (1 Timothy 5:17,18).
- Wesley was concerned that clergy have responsibility not to be “in debt so as to embarrass you in your work” (§330.18), which implies that the Church has a responsibility that it neither lead its clergy into positions of embarrassing indebtedness, nor leave them there.
- The Great Commission to “go into all the world preaching, teaching and baptizing” brings with it a cost. Systems of clergy support which foster the use of the right pastor in the right place, hold up the hope of seeing the Great Commission bear its promised fruit.
- The Commission on Equitable Compensation embraces the Great Commandment to “love our neighbors as we love ourselves” by desiring for each pastor what our members’ desire for themselves – compensation adequate to free persons for the work of pastoral ministry.

Through our prayers, working and considering together as both laity and clergy from across The N.C. Annual Conference, we make the following recommendations, which we believe will help us move toward fairness for both local churches and pastors as together we support ordained ministry in The N.C. Annual Conference.

For the year 2009, the average full-time salary increase was approximately 4.16%. The CPI (Urban South) for the last twelve months ending December 2008 showed an increase of 4.2%.

The Commission currently recommends a 4.16% ($1,677) increase in Salary, a 9.0% ($200) increase in Utilities, and a 0% ($0) increase in Travel. Including the recommended travel amount this represents a total increase of 4.0% for the year 2010. Our recommendation is based on several factors: (1) the average compensation from other conferences; (2) it more closely reflects the majority of salary increases for this conference; (3) shows concern for general economic trends.

I. Recommended Schedule of Minimum Compensation for 2010:

A. Salary Schedule

We recommend that the student minimum salary be based on 65% of the minimum salary of full-time pastors.

PASTORS UNDER FULL-TIME APPOINTMENT	2009	2010
(Full Connection, Associate, Probationary, Local Pastor)
Salary	$40,319.00	$40,319.00
STUDENT PASTORS (Local Pastors or Conference Members)
Salary	$26,207.00	$26,207.00

B. Utilities Expense

It is recommended that each local charge would provide at least $2,400 for utilities expense. Utilities have been defined in guidance from the Internal Revenue Service to be electricity, heat, water/sewer, trash pick-up, and local telephone expenses. In order to increase accountability surrounding utility payments and to help ease transitions during appointment changes, the Commission recommends that the local church pay utilities directly to the utilities companies instead of through unvouchered allowances to the pastors.

C. Travel Expense

Although travel is reimbursed by the local charge as an item of pastoral expense, it is expected that each local charge would provide at least $4,000 for travel expense. The Commission encourages each charge to establish a plan to reimburse the pastor for all legitimate business mileage at the current rate established by the IRS. Where such a plan is established for reimbursement of business mileage, equitable compensation support shall not be affected by payment of travel expenses. However, where a reimbursement plan is not implemented and a travel allowance is given, any travel allowance in excess of $4,000 will result in a reduction of equitable compensation support.

D. Pension Program

Charges receiving Equitable Compensation Funds support are responsible for paying the total amount required for the Clergy Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) based on the pastor's cash base compensation (including funds from the Equitable Compensation Fund, Duke Endowment, and any other sources), and housing (percentage of cash base compensation designated by the General Board of Pension/Health Benefits or housing allowance, if provided in lieu of a parsonage).

II. Principles Governing Eligibility for Equitable Compensation Funds:

The pastor's base compensation is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, each charge of The North Carolina Annual Conference should be so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Compensation Funds, its pastor, and the district superintendent responsible for that charge, to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward total self-support. To enable the Annual Conference, the Commission and the district superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

- A. Base Compensation: In considering the base compensation for the charge, all income, including base compensation, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as base compensation in determining appropriations from the Equitable Compensation Fund. Base compensation support for retired supply, interim supply, part-time local pastors, less than full-time conference members, or associate pastors in other than larger parish arrangement of churches will not be available. Equitable Compensation funds shall not be used to supplement amounts above minimum full-time compensation.
- B. Annual Stewardship Campaign: Churches receiving Equitable Compensation Funds shall conduct an annual financial/stewardship campaign in the second year of receiving Equitable Compensation funds, to accurately gauge the level of financial support the local church can reasonably expect from its members.
- C. Any Equitable Compensation Fund supplement will be terminated immediately upon information that the pastor has taken full-time, secular employment. The supplement may be reinstated at the time the charge's appointed pastor returns to full-time or student status. Exceptions to this provision will be permitted only by the approval of the executive committee of the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon the recommendation of the district superintendent of the pastor seeking to be employed outside their ministerial responsibilities for emergency reasons.
- D. Disbursement of funds from Conference Treasurer's Office: Equitable Compensation Funds are to be sent to charges that have applied for their use to provide their pastor with the minimum base compensation established by the Annual Conference. The monthly base compensation supplement checks sent by the Conference Treasurer's office are to be deposited by the charge treasurer into the charge/church bank account. Checks shall not be endorsed nor cashed by the pastor.
- E. Application for funds: Churches or charges applying for Equitable Compensation Funds shall submit a request on the appropriate form, supplied by the district superintendent. The pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent, shall carefully analyze the request. The application form must have the signatures of the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent affixed to it, and receive the approval of the charge conference. Applications received that are not completed in full are not eligible for consideration by the Commission until such time that they have been completed and resubmitted.

- F. The Commission on Equitable Compensation will not fund any charge that is also receiving funds from The Emerging Church Salary Fund. The Commission on Equitable Compensation plans further consultation and study with other Conference boards and agencies to seek ways to more adequately provide for the temporal needs of our pastors and churches.
- G. In some instances, for missional reasons, consideration may be given to make funds available for the deacon in full connection when the primary appointment is to a local church. (Discipline 2008, paragraph 625.4)

III. Policies Governing Use of Equitable Compensation Funds

- A. Charges must be so arranged that no more than one third (1/3) of the total base compensation will come from the Equitable Compensation Fund on the first application of the charge.
 - 1. Charges seeking more than one third (1/3) supplement shall provide specific information with their application, indicating the reasons for their inability to meet these guidelines. Information shall be made available to the Commission on Equitable Compensation and the district superintendent regarding the terms of Equitable Compensation support, giving the date of its inception and the present amount of support being received by the respective charges.
 - 2. When the division of a charge is desired, Equitable Compensation funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop and the approval of the cabinet. In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such a church shall assume total responsibility for base compensation and its proportionate share of all apportionments.
 - a. The remainder of the charge in such a division assumes full pastoral support and proportionate share of all apportionments. In no case will the Commission on Equitable Compensation provide more than one third (1/3) of the base compensation required for such a division.
 - b. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge shall pay initially two thirds (2/3) of the pastoral support established by the division.
- B. Annual Reduction and Length of Time for Support:
 - 1. The Commission further recommends that each charge which is receiving, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Compensation Fund assistance, shall reduce this aid by at least twenty-five percent (25%) each year, until the charge has achieved full self-support in five (5) years.
 - 2. A minimum mandatory reduction of ten percent (10%) will be required each year.
 - 3. At the end of the fourth (4th) year an evaluation shall be conducted with the church and the district superintendent to evaluate the ability of the church to sustain a full time appointment in the future.
 - 4. After review by the cabinet and the Commission, an extension in the length of time for support can be granted for missional purposes.

The Commission wants to be clear at this point that its intent in this recommendation is that each charge will accept in full whatever increases are made in the minimum base compensation for their pastor each year and receive at least ten percent (10%) less each year in assistance from Equitable Compensation Funds than granted the previous year.

- C. Merit Grant Supplemental to Base Compensation: Each full-time minister, associate member, or member in full connection of The N.C. Annual Conference, serving full time, and who, in the opinion of the cabinet is rendering unusually effective service, may apply for a grant in the amount of $400, when such clergy person's salary and utilities are equal to the Conference minimum base compensation.
 - 1. This grant must be applied for on an annual basis, with an annual incremental increase of $400 per year, not to exceed $2,000 per year, for five years of full-time service. This grant may not exceed a lifetime maximum of $6,000. Special attention shall be given to ethnic pastors serving ethnic ministries (Book of Discipline 2008, paragraph 625.6). Said incremental increase is to be administered by the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon the recommendation of the cabinet, approval by the charge conference, and the district superintendent.
 - 2. Further, the local church shall be responsible for all Clergy Pension Plan and Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) payments on incremental increase.
 - 3. This policy does not restrict the Commission on Compensation, upon the recommendation of the cabinet, from making additional grants in extraordinary circumstances.
- D. Anticipated future funding needs: The cabinet shall report to the Executive Committee of the Commission the anticipated Equitable Compensation funding needs immediately after the first appointment session prior to Annual Conference.

IV. The Commission reports that 16 charges received a total of $106,552.02 in compensation assistance in the year 2008.

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION, COUNCIL ON
III. FINANCIAL POLICIES

The United Methodist Church is a connectional church, and all local churches participate in the mission and service giving of the larger church. The outreach and mission giving opportunities of the Connection are distributed to the churches of the NC Conference by means of a formula based on the financial performance in each local church. Every effort is made to develop a computation which is shared with fairness by all. Church leaders are encouraged to interpret the work of the Connection so that each congregation understands these funds to be a necessary extension of the ministry and mission of the church beyond its local organization.

A. APPORTIONMENTS:

1. The funds to be apportioned are:
 - World Service and Connectional Ministries
 - Past Service Liability - Pensions
 - Episcopal Fund
 - Interdenominational Cooperation Fund
 - Black College Fund
 - Africa University Fund
2. Formula: The Apportionments for each year shall be based on the average of the total monies disbursed by each church in the four years immediately previous to the apportionment year less the approved exclusions each year, or on the most recent year less the approved exclusions, whichever is lower. The change in unadjusted apportionments from the previous year shall not increase in excess of 15%. The exclusions are: Payments on World Service and Connectional Ministries, Past Service Liability – Pensions, Episcopal Fund, and all other apportionments; district work fund; principal and interest on indebtedness; buildings and improvements; 50% of property insurance; local benevolences paid directly by the local church; General and Conference Advance Specials; Ten Dollar Club; up to $4,500 for travel paid by a charge for each pastor; United Methodist Student Day; Human Relations Day; Peace and Justice Sunday; Native American Awareness Sunday; One Great Hour of Sharing; World Communion Sunday; UMW Funds sent to district or conference treasurer; housing allowance paid in lieu of furnished parsonage to a minister serving under Episcopal appointment in a charge of the Conference; offerings taken for disasters as designated by the Disaster Response Committee and the Resident Bishop.
3. Effective July 1, 2004, new congregations shall be assigned an apportionment beginning in the year in which the church is chartered (Year A in the following table). The new and projected charter dates for all new churches shall be reported annually by the Office of Congregational Development to the Treasurer's Office immediately following Annual Conference. The amount to be apportioned shall be a percentage of the apportionment as computed on the standard formula described in III.A.2 above. Because this formula results in a lower apportionment for a longer period than earlier new church formulas, no adjustment will be allowed to the apportionment computed as shown in the following table:

Year	Percent	Base Year Net Disbursement Formula	Maximum % Change
A	0%	None	None
B	60%	$=(4A)/4$	None
C	65%	$=((3A)+B)/4$	None
D	70%	$=((2A)+B+C)/4$	None
E	75%	$=(A+B+C+D)/4$	None
F	80%	$=(B+C+D+E)/4$	None
G	85%	$=(C+D+E+F)/4$	None
H	90%	$=(D+E+F+G)/4$	None
I	95%	$=(E+F+G+H)/4$	None
J	100%	$=(F+G+H+I)/4$	None

4. Apportionments to the churches shall be made by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) based on the current formula. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from funds received up to the amount fixed by the Annual Conference. In the event receipts shall fall short, all items shall be paid pro-rata. The CFA is authorized to make supplementary appropriations between sessions of the Annual Conference, if funds are available, for emergency or unforeseen needs. Such supplementary appropriations shall be made only from available undesignated funds. It is the intent of CFA that 50% of supplemental funds available be designated for the retirement of our current liabilities. In the light of possible unforeseen and emergency need beyond available resources within the Annual Conference, the CFA is authorized to adjust the pro-rata distribution by up to 10% at its discretion and is authorized to use such funds to make supplementary appropriations according to this provision. General Church apportionments will be paid in full as collected to general agencies and will not be subject to adjusted pro-rata distributions. All supplementary appropriations made under these provisions shall be reported in the Conference Journal for purposes of information.
 5. Apportionments will be delivered from the treasurer's office to the district superintendents by July 17, 2009.
 6. The percentage payout rate for local churches shall be based upon payment of all six apportioned items as listed in Section III.A.1 above.
- B. The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Apportionments. General Church special offerings include United Methodist Student Day, Human Relations Day, Peace with Justice Sunday, Native American Awareness Sunday, One Great Hour of Sharing, and World Communion Sunday. Annual Conference approved special offerings include Project AGAPE Mission to Armenia, Methodist Home for Children, Mother's Day Offering for the Methodist Retirement Homes, Golden Cross Sunday and Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries.
 - C. No Conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of CFA. All funds granted to a non-conference agency must be spent consistent with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.
 - D. No transfer of funds shall be made from one line item in the Conference Budget to another.
 - E. All General Church Funds (World Service, Episcopal, Ministerial Education, Black Colleges, Africa University, Interdenominational Cooperation, General Administration), Past Service Liability Fund, Jurisdictional Conference, and Methodist Building Routine and Capital Maintenance Funds will be raised and paid out in the same year. College Sustaining Fund will be raised and paid out in the same year until funds are received in advance equivalent to one year's budget. This transition will take place over 4 years beginning in 2010 and ending in 2013 operating budgets. All other funds will be raised and paid out in the subsequent year on a schedule determined by the CFA.

- F. Investment Policy: The investment of the funds of the conference shall be such that funds available for mission are maximized in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church. Investments are with the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. (local), the United Methodist Church Foundation (national), area banks, and with specific minority financial institutions within the bounds of the NC Conference. Investments of funds reserved for use in the next budget year shall be invested 50% fixed income investments and 50% equity investments.
- G. Monies paid by the churches shall be reported to the statistician by the pastors at the end of the year on the Table II, Financial Report. The Table I and Table II reports for 2009 shall be due to the statistician no later than January 31, 2010.
- H. The Council may enact its own bylaws governing meetings, quorum, and other matters of procedure as authorized in the Discipline, Para. 610.5.b.
- I. The Council shall maintain a central treasury for all Conference agencies as authorized by Para. 611.11 of the Discipline, and the 1953 session of the Annual Conference. Annual Conference boards and agencies, including those separately incorporated, are required to maintain their funds on deposit in the central treasury unless exempted by the Annual Conference or the Discipline. Exemptions are granted to the Methodist Home for Children, the Methodist Retirement Homes, the Colleges, the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., Board of Missions, Inc., Asbury Homes, and North Carolina United Methodist Camp and Retreat Ministries, Inc.
- J. All new programs or entities which would not be funded by an existing approved budget shall be referred to the CFA for review of budget needs and supplemental funds available prior to approval by Annual Conference. If the item is approved, the next year's budget shall be amended to include the necessary funds based on the CFA recommendation.
- K. Contracts executed by commissions, boards, or agencies which obligate the Annual Conference must: 1) be created for periods of no more than 12 months and should be completed by June 30 annually, 2) not involve expenditures exceeding $50,000 in the aggregate and 3) not include a guarantee by the Conference of debt incurred by a separately incorporated entity. All contracts that exceed a 12-month period and/or $50,000 must be authorized by the Council on Finance and Administration. Should authorization be needed between meetings of CFA, it can be given by two signatures from the Executive Director of Connectional Ministries, the president of CFA or the Conference Treasurer and will require ratification by CFA at its next meeting.

IV. APPROVAL TO SOLICIT FUNDS

Any organization designated as a Conference Advance Special may ask local churches to consider opportunities for giving. It shall be at the discretion of the local church as to whether, when and how these opportunities will be presented to the membership. Solicitation or private campaign may not be taken directly into local churches of the Conference through solicitation in classes or other groups or by the use of membership lists (either partial or in entirety).

Approval is given to the requests of the following agencies and programs for the privilege of soliciting funds under these policies throughout the District or Conference.

- A. Christmas Offering for District programs and/or projects.
- B. The Commission on Congregational Development for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club and the John Wesley Endowment for Congregational Development.
- C. The Board of Directors for Camp and Retreat Ministries, Inc. to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the three camps of the North Carolina Conference.
- D. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College; and Asbury Homes for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto.
- E. The United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
- F. The Disaster Response Committee upon joint decision of the committee and the Resident Bishop to respond to disasters within the bounds of the NC Annual Conference.

The CFA continues to recommend that 100% "Missional Service Giving" be the on-going priority. The Council also recommends that stewardship continue to be a missional focus, Conference priority.

V. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' SALARY

The Council on Finance and Administration recommends that the formula for computing the annual salary for the district superintendents be the average of the top 25 pastors' salaries in the Conference for the previous year. Salary is defined as cash salary plus nonvouchered allowances. The 2010 salary for district superintendents will be $100,388.

VI. ORGANIZATION and PROCEDURE (presented for information only)

- A. The audit for 2009 will be by McGladrey & Pullen, Raleigh, NC.
- B. The president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of the CFA shall serve as the executive committee of the Council. The Council shall elect two additional members to the executive committee from its voting membership.
- C. The Conference treasurer will include in the monthly financial reports, for any given month, all monies received in the office by 8:30 a.m. on the 5th day of the following month, except when the 5th day falls on a weekend or holiday the report will include the funds received by 8:30 a.m. on the following workday.
- D. The treasurer may approve minor overexpenditures of a budget line item up to $5,000 or 5% of the line item, whichever is less. A request for such overexpenditure shall be submitted in writing in advance and shall state the reason for the request. The overexpenditure will be reported to CFA and will be listed in the Conference Journal.
- E. Any Conference or non-conference agency which receives financial support from Conference funds or from any authorized conference-wide appeal in excess of $1,000 shall submit, with any budget request, an annual detailed audited budget report of all receipts, disbursements and assets. A statement in effect that "All funds granted have been spent consistent with the social principles of The United Methodist Church" will be furnished to CFA upon submission of the audit. Such reports received may be reported in whole or in summary form in the Conference Journal and shall remain on file in the treasurer's office. An agency may be exempted (for just cause) from this reporting requirement by CFA. Note: CFA requests the Board of Institutions to provide regular reports (at least annually) regarding its financial monitoring of related institutions/programs. The financial monitoring shall include consideration of a final independent audit for the institution, pension plan and affiliated entities, including journal entries, the auditor's management letter and any other reports of the auditors; liability insurance coverage levels; and the institution's projected budget for any subsequent fiscal years, including the current fiscal year.
- F. A carry-over of budgeted funds remaining (not including any supplemental appropriations) of up to 10% of the amount raised for the subsequent year will be allowed for Conference budget line items. Any carryover or portion thereof by this policy may be rescinded in any year in which funds are not available to meet basic ministry needs as determined by the CFA.
- G. Funds appropriated to a board or agency must be spent in the calendar year of the appropriation unless otherwise allowed.
- H. Supplemental Appropriations: The Council will consider requests for supplemental appropriations in the following priority order:

First Priority

- Salary and benefit items previously approved according to the policies of the Annual Conference or General Conference (i.e. Equitable Compensation Funds, staff salaries, etc.)
- Programs authorized and mandated by the NC Annual Conference which are not included in the Annual Conference budget for that financial year.
- Amounts required by the Past Service Funding Plan adopted jointly by the Board of Pensions and the CFA which are not raised by the Board of Pensions annual budget requests.

Second Priority

- New creative programs to respond to emerging needs and to expand the mission of the Annual Conference which are not included in the Conference budget for that year. Such programs will be funded through supplemental appropriations only on a short-term basis.
- Emergency needs and programs in the life of the boards and agencies of the Annual Conference. The petitioning group shall make such requests in writing to the treasurer's office at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.

Third Priority

- Any other type of funding requests.

Procedure for seeking supplemental appropriations:

1. All requests for supplemental appropriations shall be made to the CFA President and/or the Conference Treasurer's office in writing at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.
 2. The normal procedure for requests for supplemental appropriations will be a review by the CFA supplemental appropriations committee which will make a recommendation to the full Council.
 3. If an emergency request for supplemental appropriations is received between scheduled meetings, the CFA supplemental appropriations committee will consider the request and direct the Conference treasurer to forward it to the membership via mail or email with a recommendation for action.
- I. Interest shall be paid to/from the Board of Pensions, Insurance Fund, Blackburn Scholarship Fund, Church Extension Redevelopment, and Church Extension Salary Endowment funds using the rate of the conference interest bearing checking account, compounded monthly, on monthly average balances held by the Conference treasurer.
- J. Retroactive adjustments for transfer or posting delays will be made to the Board of Pensions and the Insurance Fund accounts for earnings calculations.
- K. Funds in excess of operational needs for the Board of Pensions and the Insurance fund are invested in the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. of the N.C. Conference the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits or other socially balanced investment funds as deemed appropriate by the Council.
- L. In order to prevent a loss of funds due to investment risk, and in order to have funds available for emergency use, the goal of the Council is to maintain minimum reserve funds equal to 15% of the current operating budget for World Service and Connectional Ministries and the Past Service Liability. Supplemental appropriations from current year earnings shall follow the guidelines in paragraph H above. Supplemental appropriations beyond current year earnings shall follow the following guidelines: 1. If reserves are less than or equal to 20% of the current operating budget, then only supplements to meet payroll for existing positions may be considered. 2. If reserves are above 20% and below 30% of operating budget, then only supplements to meet payroll for existing positions, ministries and unfunded liabilities may be considered. 3. If reserves are equal to or greater than 30% of operating budget, then other requests may be considered. 4. No request may be considered if the amount requested would reduce reserves below 15% of operating budget.
- M. Mailing address labels will be available for a nominal fee to conference agencies, clergy and lay members of Annual Conference or other United Methodists for church related uses.
- N. CFA Meeting Schedule: The executive committee meets at the call of the President. Scheduled meetings are:
June, 2009: There may be a called meeting in conjunction with Annual Conference if necessary to elect officers or conduct other business.
September 1, 2009: An optional meeting to be held if necessary to consider general business matters.
November 3, 2009: An optional meeting to be held if necessary at the call of the President.
December 1, 2009: To consider apportionment matters and supplemental appropriations for salaries.
January 22, 2010: To look at the shortfall and make a decision regarding paying out the general church apportionments.
(Subject to change based on GCFA final closing date.)
February 2, 2010: To consider the operating budget for the current year. All payments on apportionments are due to the Treasurer by mid-January. A report of receipts, amounts allocated to the budgeted boards and agencies, and supplemental appropriations are decided at the meeting.
March 2, 2010: To consider the budget to be recommended to Annual Conference which will be raised in the subsequent year and spent in the year following that. Additionally, the CFA policy recommendations to the Annual Conference are adopted.
- O. Dates to Remember:
July 17, 2009: Apportionments sent to the Districts.
September 10, 2009: Requests for the 2012 budget, to be adopted at the 2010 Annual Conference, due in the Treasurer's Office.
November 4, 2009: Requests for supplemental appropriations for the 2009 operating budget due in the treasurer's office.

January 13, 2010: Annual Conference and General Church remittances must be received by 8:30 A.M. in order to receive credit for 2009. (Subject to change based on GCFA final closing date.)

January 22, 2010: Requests for supplemental appropriations for the 2010 operating budget due in the treasurer's office.

January 30, 2010: Tables I, II and III due to the Conference statistician.

VII. UNITED METHODIST PERSONAL INVESTMENT PLAN (UMPIP), and UMLifeOptions

A. GENERAL

1. The lay employee's supervisor is responsible for making lay employees aware of these rules and procedures. Detailed information on the UMPIP and the UMLifeOptions is available from the treasurer's office. Supervisors will have lay employees who are eligible for these benefits contact the treasurer's office 60 days before they are eligible for participation, or sign a waiver form if they decline to participate in the UMPIP and the BPP. The form will be kept on file in the treasurer's office for future reference.
2. The Conference treasurer's office will administer the UMPIP and the UMLifeOptions.
3. Contributions will be withheld from the employees pay and remitted to the General Board of Pensions by the treasurer's office within ten business days after receiving the bill from the General Board of Pensions.

B. UNITED METHODIST PERSONAL INVESTMENT PLAN (UMPIP - Effective January 1, 2006)

1. The lay employee must be full time (at least 20 hours per week).
2. The lay employee must be an employee for 1 continuous year before becoming eligible for UMPIP.
3. The conference contribution will be twelve percent (12%) of the employee's base compensation.
4. The lay employee's required contribution will be 3% of the employee's base compensation. Participants in the UMPIP must be participants in the UMLifeOptions.

C. UMLifeOptions

1. The UMLife Options plan is a death and disability plan for lay employees.
2. The UMLife Options is an employer funded plan and, as such, is required enrollment for all eligible employees.
3. Employees are eligible after one year of employment working at least 20 hours per week.

Danny Allen, President

INCAPACITY, COMMITTEE ON

The Joint Committee on Incapacity acts as the advocate for those pastors in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional incapacity to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of incapacity within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are incapacitated, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each pastor or deacon seeking Incapacity Leave, including the source of their disability income. The Joint Committee on Incapacity has begun a study of the utilization of incapacity benefits in our annual conference and how our utilization compares to denominational and jurisdictional averages. The committee will continue to monitor resource levels needed to fund incapacity benefits as one part of efforts to ensure the long-term sustainability of our support for clergy on incapacity leave.

Persons interested in discovering more about the process of being granted Incapacity Leave can contact a district superintendent or the chair of the Joint Committee on Incapacity.

The following recommendations are presented to the 2009 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference:

I. General Policies

- A. The Joint Committee on Incapacity, through the Conference Treasurer's Office, will make available upon request the necessary forms for any full time pastor or deacon to make application for Incapacity Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the pastor or deacon, the physician, chair of the Joint Committee on Incapacity, Conference benefits officer, and the district superintendent before the request for Incapacity Leave can be acted upon. Whenever possible incapacity requests are to be submitted ninety (90) days prior to Annual Conference except in life-threatening situations after that date, or when the disabling condition occurs after that date. Requests presented before May 15 will be included in the Committee's report to the Annual Conference.
- B. Definition of Incapacity: For the first 24 months, an active participant will be considered incapacitated for the purposes of the Comprehensive Protection Plan or the Basic Protection Plan as of the date the Administrator determines, on the basis of medical evidence, that such active participant was unable to perform the usual and customary duties of his/her employment by reason of bodily injury, disease, or mental or emotional disease or disorder that will presumably last for at least six continuous months, exclusive of any incapacity resulting from service in the armed forces of any country, warfare, intentionally self-inflicted injury, or participation in any criminal or unlawful act.
- C. Definition of Clergy: Clergy in The United Methodist Church are individuals who serve as commissioned ministers, deacons, elders, and local pastors under appointment of a bishop (full- and part-time), who hold membership in an annual conference, and who are commissioned, ordained, or licensed.
- D. A pastor or deacon seeking to be on Incapacity Leave secures a disability claim kit from the Conference Treasurer's Office. The applicant completes Form A, has his or her physician complete Form B, completes the applicant's portion of Form C, and submits all these forms to the Conference Treasurer's Office for completion. Unum reviews the claim and recommends a determination to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits who retains the authority to approve or deny a claim.
- E. We recommend that pastors applying for Incapacity Leave be approved only when the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits grants their request for incapacity benefits through the Comprehensive Protection Plan.
- F. The Annual Conference and Conference Board of Pensions (effective January 1, 2007), will fund pension contributions for the Clergy Retirement Security Program-Defined Benefit Plan in the required annual payment for normal cost as defined by the plan document and the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for all pastors receiving incapacity benefits from the Comprehensive Protection Plan.
- G. The Comprehensive Protection Plan (effective January 1, 2007), will fund contributions for the Comprehensive Protection Plan and the Clergy Retirement Security Program-Defined Contribution Plan which is 3% of plan compensation as defined by the plan document and the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for all pastors receiving incapacity benefits from the Comprehensive Protection Plan.
- H. Hospital Insurance, and Life Insurance shall be paid by the Joint Committee on Incapacity both for those approved by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits and those approved by the Joint Committee on Incapacity who are pastors receiving incapacity benefits from the Comprehensive Protection Plan according to Section II, below.

- I. Pastors on Incapacity Leave are reminded to investigate the penalties by the Social Security Administration if they do not elect to come under Medicare at age 65. Participation in Medicare Part A and B is required at the earliest possible date in order to receive full health insurance benefits.
- J. Effective July 1, 2008, we recommend that a lump sum grant of $4,300 be made at the beginning of Incapacity Leave. This grant will be available only one time in a pastor's years of service.
- K. The Joint Committee on Incapacity will review the progress of each pastor or deacon on Incapacity Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the pastor's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the pastor to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances.
- L. We recommend the following pastors to be continued on Incapacity Leave:
 1. Wilson Edward Barber, P O Box 4931, Emerald Isle, NC 28594 252/354-5635
 2. Camille O. Yorkey Compton, 112 Market St. #1, Wilmington, NC 28401 919/345-4129

- N. Who have been placed on Incapacity Leave since the last Annual Conference?
Ronnie Richard Dawson, Effective June 1, 2008
- O. Who have had their Incapacity Leave terminated since the last conference session?
NONE
- P. Who are to be removed from Incapacity Leave at this Annual Conference?
NONE
- Q. We recommend that pastors and congregations in the communities in which our disabled pastors reside seek to establish a supportive relationship with those on Incapacity Leave to maintain good fellowship and provide for pastoral opportunities.

II. Incapacity Policies Related to Life and Health Insurance

- A. Insurance Coverage — Participants approved for Incapacity Leave must be covered under the Conference life and/or health insurance plan immediately preceding the approval date of Incapacity Leave in order to have life and/or health insurance coverage after the appointment of Incapacity Leave.

- B. Five Year Rule — Participants must be covered for five consecutive years immediately prior to the date of retirement in order to retain health insurance benefits after retirement.
- C. Life Insurance –
 - 1. The life insurance premiums are paid by the Joint Committee on Incapacity.
 - 2. Current participants on Incapacity Leave who are enrolled in the life insurance are covered as follows: $25,000 life coverage, $10,000 on eligible dependents.
- D. Health Insurance –
 - 1. The health insurance premiums are paid in full by the Joint Committee on Incapacity until the participant is Medicare eligible due to age and eligible to retire. Upon reaching Medicare eligibility due to age and eligibility to retire, clergy receiving CPP benefits will receive the same contribution towards the health insurance premium as if they were retired.
 - 2. If the participant is enrolled in Medicare (part A and/or B) due to Incapacity, the Conference health insurance will coordinate benefits with Medicare as primary, the Conference plan as secondary. Family members (with no other coverage) will be covered as primary by the Conference health insurance plan. Participation in Medicare Part B is required at the earliest possible date in order to receive full health insurance benefits. Participants, who choose not to participate in Medicare Part B at that date, will receive the same contribution towards the health insurance premium as if they were retired. The Conference health insurance will coordinate with Medicare as primary, the Conference plan as secondary whenever possible.

Ralph Brown, Chairperson

INSURANCE, COMMITTEE ON

I The Insurance Committee is to be made up of representatives from the following boards and agencies: 2-Board of Pensions; 1-Board of Pensions Chair; 2-Board of Ordained Ministry; 2-Joint Committee on Incapacity; 2-Lay Members appointed by the Commission on Laity; 5-At Large Members. The following members are without vote: 1-Conference Treasurer; 1-Controller; 1-Benefits Manager; 1-Director of Ministerial Relations; The representative should be elected at the organizational meeting of these boards and agencies. Once elected from its constituent groups at the beginning of each quadrennium, the Insurance Committee's membership will remain established for the remainder of that quadrennium

II. Group Term Life Insurance

- A. The current life insurance program is provided by Metlife.
- B. Our coverage is $25,000 for active participants, $12,500 for retired clergy up to age 72. Effective July 1, 2005 the coverage for retirees age 72 and over is $5,000. Current spouse and child coverage is $10,000 per person. The spouse's insurance terminates upon retirement of the subscriber.
- C. The life insurance plan is non-contributory. Life insurance premiums are to be paid by the salary-paying unit.
- D. Supplemental Life insurance guidelines (voluntary individual enrollment):
 - 1. Participant must be enrolled in active Conference life insurance plan.
 - 2. Initial voluntary enrollment November 1-30, 2007 for an effective date of January 1, 2008.
 - 3. Premiums should be withheld by the salary-paying unit on an after tax basis. Premiums will be included on the monthly invoices issued by the Treasurer's Office.
 - 4. Late applicants are subject to health questions and must be approved by MetLife.

E. LIFE INSURANCE CLAIMS PAID IN 2008:

Death Claims Paid in 2008:

Auman, James A	$ 5,000.00
Capps, Clingman C.	$ 5,000.00
Davis, Herman F.	$ 5,000.00
Epps, Ralph I.	$ 5,000.00
Harrell, Haywood L.	$ 5,000.00
Kinley, Grady L.	$ 5,000.00
Millwood, Paul C.	$ 5,000.00
Murray, Eric O.	$ 5,000.00
Peele, Luther M.	$ 5,000.00
Roberts, John M.	$ 5,000.00
Butson, Sharon	$ 10,000.00

TOTAL BENEFITS PAID$60,000.00

III. Health Insurance Benefits

A. Group Health

- 1. The Insurance Committee will provide the proposed benefits to the members immediately before each Annual Conference session. The committee considers the most current financial information that is available before adopting its recommendations.

2. Insurance companies who make inquiries, for the purpose of submitting proposals, will be notified of a $200 processing fee. This fee will help cover the costs of preparation and processing of the information necessary for proposals.
3. A Health Fair will be sponsored by the Insurance Committee on a biannual basis. The Insurance Committee encourages everyone to take advantage of this service in 2009.
4. The Insurance Committee will donate $1,000 for handicap camperships on an annual basis.

B. Policy and Rules

1. Effective January 1, 2004, the North Carolina Conference offered a Preferred Provider health insurance plan administered by Blue Cross Blue Shield of North Carolina. Benefits will include health, dental, pharmacy, mental health, Medical Reimbursement Accounts, Dependent Day Care Accounts, and life insurance. Details may be obtained by contacting the Benefits Manager in the Treasurer's Office, 800-849-4433.
2. Medical Reimbursement and Dependent Care Accounts must be established during Open Enrollment (November 1 - 30) for an effective date of the following January 1. If you do not claim these funds prior to March 31 for the preceding plan year (plan year being the previous calendar year plus a 75 day grace period of the current year), these funds are forfeited. Participation in the Medical Reimbursement and Dependent Care accounts is contingent upon participation in the health insurance plan.
3. A change of life circumstances (divorce, death, loss of spousal coverage) will allow a mid-year change. When there is a change in family status, or a change of address, it is the insured's responsibility to notify the Treasurer's Office within 30 days. The toll free number to the Methodist Building in Raleigh is 1-800-849-4433 where staff persons continue to provide personal attention to insurance matters.
4. Effective January 1, 2004, health insurance for the subscriber may continue for 18 months after employment is terminated provided that full payment of the monthly premiums is made in advance. The continuation of life insurance beyond the termination of employment is not permitted by the life insurance carrier.
5. Adding new family members must be completed within 30 days of the qualifying event.
6. Participants applying at any time other than the initial enrollment period (30 days from the date first eligible) would be subject to the one year pre-existing conditions clause. Submission of a valid Certificate of Insurance may eliminate or decrease this 12 month clause. The exception to this rule would be possible by a change in life status causing loss of coverage: divorce, death of spouse, loss of spouse's employment, reduction of hours regarding spouse's coverage.
7. Effective January 1, 2004, the Conference health insurance plan will be the primary carrier for active participants who continue to work past the Medicare eligibility age, and are enrolled in the conference health plan.
8. Retired participants should sign up for Medicare parts A and B upon reaching the Medicare eligibility age. The Medicare Companion Plan is the only plan offered to retirees past this age. Medicare becomes the primary payer, with the Conference plan as secondary.
9. A participant must be covered in the Conference insurance for five consecutive and uninterrupted years immediately prior to retirement to retain health benefits after retirement. All participants enrolled on January 1, 2001 will be prorated under this rule.
10. Pre-Certification of all in-patient admissions is required. Effective January 1, 2004, call Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC at 800-214-4844. Mental Health benefits should be pre-certified through Magellan Behavioral Health at 800-359-2422
11. Denial of claims or incorrect processing of claims should be appealed through Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC. There are two levels of appeal.
12. Payment for the church's portion of the insurance programs must be made by the church/charge treasurer. Personal checks cannot be accepted due to IRS regulations governing Section 125 cafeteria plans. The personal portion of insurance premiums should be withheld from the participant's salary by the salary-paying unit on a pre-tax basis.
13. Premiums for health and life insurance may be paid in ADVANCE on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual basis.
14. Lay persons or clergy on maternity/family medical leave may continue their insurance coverage, as long as the premiums are paid.
15. The Insurance Committee may terminate the coverage for non-payment of premiums Insurance payments which are 60 days late (from the date of the bill) will result in termination of benefits. Termination will take place on the last day of the month in which the 60th day has occurred. Benefits may be reinstated without lapse in coverage if full payment is made within 30 days of the termination date. Thereafter, insurance coverage may be reinstated upon full payment and coverage will be effective the first day of the following month. The one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply to all reinstatements where a lapse in coverage occurs.
16. In case of termination of coverage, the church is responsible for the premium until the Treasurer's Office is notified in writing of such termination.

IV. Statement of Intent

The NC Annual Conference established a Group Health and Life Insurance Plan with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired clergy. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plan without the consent of individual participants.

V. Eligibility Policies of Non-Retired Participants

- A. If you enroll in the Conference insurance plan, you are eligible for your coverage to begin on the first day of the month following the date of hire, or appointment. Coverage is not automatic. Completion of an enrollment form on a timely basis is required (within 30 days of original eligibility).
- B. You must work a minimum of 30 hours per week to be eligible for the Conference insurance plans.
- C. Health insurance and life insurance through the Conference groups will be available to the following:

1. Clergy who are members in full connection of the Conference, probationary and commissioned probationary members, associate members, student local clergy, part-time local clergy, interim supplies (covered as lay employees) serving full-time or part-time (half-time or greater making one-half of minimum salary as determined by the Pension Worksheet line 7) and working at least 30 hours per week under appointment in:
 - a. One of the churches or charges of the NC Conference.
 - b. One of the institutions or agencies of this Conference receiving financial support from the Conference.
 - c. An institution or agency established to provide a ministry or service provided that:
 - i. Clergy shall elect in writing within 30 days after the appointment to continue the coverage. If the coverage is discontinued, a one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions may apply.
 - ii. The institution shall be responsible for payment of all insurance premiums by the due date.
 2. Clergy on Leave of Absence, provided a written request to retain benefits is submitted to the Benefits Manager within 30 days of the appointment of Leave of Absence. The participant is responsible for the entire monthly rate (church portion and personal portion) by the due date.
- D. Post Retirement Benefits
1. Eligibility for post retirement benefits may be viewed in detail in the Board of Pensions Report Section B.
 2. Post retirement health plan eligibility for clergy newly licensed, commissioned or ordained effective July 1, 2009, under Episcopal appointment to a NC Conference responsible appointment (i.e. eligible for enrollment in the Conference Insurance plan) will be based on total months enrolled in the Conference Insurance Plan with a minimum of 180 months total enrollment with 60 consecutive months enrollment immediately preceding the date of retirement for funding eligibility.
- E. Clergy Couple Appointments
1. Clergy couples will be enrolled in the life insurance program separately. This affords the clergy couple with the maximum life insurance benefits available. Clergy couples are not permitted to cover each other under the provisions of the life insurance. Eligible dependents may only be covered by one member of the clergy couple.
- F. Incapacity Leave Appointments
1. Clergy placed on Incapacity Leave can remain covered under the Conference insurance plans, provided they were enrolled and covered in the Conference plan immediately preceding the approval date of Incapacity Leave.
- G. Clergy eligible for life and health insurance through the North Carolina Conference benefits under option V. A-C.1 (above) are entitled to these benefits.
- H. Lay Employees:
1. An insurance administrator must be appointed at each church/charge to manage insurance policies dealing with lay staff. It is the responsibility of each local church/charge and its officers to be apprised of the parameters of the Conference insurance plan.
 2. Each local church must have at least 75% participation of the eligible lay employees to participate in the Conference plan.
 - a. As of January 1, 2007, churches who currently have less than 75% participation will be allowed to continue the current participation of their lay employees under the Conference plan.
 3. The employee must work a minimum of 30 hours weekly and must be enrolled in the period specified for initial enrollment.
 - a. This period being within 30 days of date first eligible, or be added as a late applicant during Open Enrollment.
 4. Persons appointed as Interim Supply are enrolled as lay employees.
 5. The Committee recommends that the church provide this benefit to lay employees with the same premium payment policy as recommended for clergy.
 6. All churches providing post-retirement benefits to lay employees will be billed in full for all premiums associated with retirement insurance benefits. The Annual Conference is not responsible for the premiums of local church retired lay staff.
- I. Continuation of Benefits
1. The participant may be eligible to continue health insurance for up to 18 months following the loss of employment or appointment.
 2. Written requests for continuation should be submitted to the Conference Benefits Manager within 30 days of the termination of employment or loss of appointment.
 3. The life insurance cannot be continued.
 4. Flexible Spending Accounts are not available to terminated participants, as they are no longer receiving salary from which to withhold these funds. Funds already contributed must be claimed within 90 days of the termination date.
- J. Open Enrollment
1. Open Enrollment is held each year from November 1 through November 30.
 2. During Open Enrollment, an active employee or appointee may enroll in the Conference insurance plan.
 3. Flexible Spending Accounts must be established for the upcoming year during Open Enrollment. If the participant does not establish a new account during each Open Enrollment, they cannot participate in the Flexible Spending Accounts for the upcoming year.
- K. The Insurance Committee continues to explore eligibility options for future benefit plans and questions of church participation.
- L. Participants enrolled in the Conference health and life insurance plans may continue to be enrolled in the Conference benefits as long as they are Episcopally appointed, employed as lay staff, meet the qualifications of Continuation as defined in Section I above, and meet the required eligibility rules and regulations.
- VI. Historically, the Insurance Committee has developed rates based on maximum actuarially projected claims. The Insurance Committee may use funds in excess of the plan's operational needs to fund post retirement benefits.

VII. The Insurance Committee strives diligently to present the best possible health and life insurance coverage available to the North Carolina Annual Conference. Careful consideration is given to benefits and rates that are proposed each year.

VIII. Health and Life Insurance Monthly Rates

Health Church Portion	$918.02

ITINERANT CLERGY MOVING EXPENSE, COMMITTEE ON Effective Date June 1, 2009

The Itinerant Clergy Moving Expense Committee met to study moving expense needs and policies. The Committee makes the following recommendations.

- I. Eligibility
 - A. Pastors of local churches continuing under appointment to local churches within the Conference, district superintendents, and Conference ministerial staff whose salaries are paid from the Conference treasurer's office.
 - B. Pastors in section I.A. who become Conference Evangelists upon moving from an appointment to new residence. Their moving expense to return to any of the above categories will also be paid.
 - C. Pastors in section I.A. who retire from serving appointment or who assume approved incapacity leave or return into active service from approved incapacity leave.
 - D. Widows or widowers of those identified in section I.A. upon moving from place of appointment to new residence.
 - E. Pastors moving into an appointment in the North Carolina Conference to assume full time or student appointments under section I.A.
 - F. Interim Supply pastors
 - G. Pastors being appointed to leave of absence are entitled to moving expense for one leave of absence.
 - H. Pastors who are called to active military duty will be entitled to moving expense at the time of call up, if need be, and at the time of return, if need be, if not covered by the military, with substantiation of the military orders.
- I. Persons moving who are not defined above will not be eligible to make claim.
- II. Payment of Claims
 - A. All reimbursements must be substantiated with paid receipts for actual moving expenses. All reimbursements must be for expenses which are deductible for income tax purposes according to Internal Revenue code, Section 217, non-taxable fringe benefits. Payment will be granted to all who are eligible to make claims as follows:
 1. Active itinerant clergy in section I.A., I.B., I.E., I.F., I.G. and I.H. (except retiring clergy, widows, widowers, and clergy couples) will receive reimbursement of costs up to $2,000.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expense.
 2. Retiring itinerant clergy, widows, or widowers will receive reimbursement of costs up to $3,000.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. The retirement amount may be granted upon request when taking incapacity leave in lieu of receiving the retirement benefit at retirement.
 3. Itinerant clergy couples will receive reimbursement of costs up to $2,400.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. If only one member of the clergy couple is re-appointed, section II.A.1. will apply.
 - B. Travel: Mileage is reimbursed at the standard IRS rate for moving expense deductions. This rate may be paid per mile per vehicle for a single trip to move each vehicle to the new residence. If a vehicle is used to move household goods, i.e., in lieu of a moving company, additional trips may be reimbursed as necessary. The per trip mileage will be computed from appointment to appointment, or from the Conference boundary to the appointment, or from the appointment to the residence/Conference boundary (in case of retirement), whichever is less. Either the mileage as described above or actual out of pocket expenses for gas, oil, etc, may be reimbursed from the Conference boundary.
 - C. Reporting and Payment Requirements
 1. IRS guidelines require that moving expense reimbursements be reported on a W-2. Based on recommendation from legal counsel and their consultations with the Internal Revenue Service, we recommend that the W-2 be issued by the local church. The Conference Treasurer will provide to the local church all moving expense information to be reported on the W-2. The Conference Treasurer will make payment to the new local church appointment. The new local church will pay the clergy and include the moving expense on the W-2 that they issue to the pastor at the end of the year. In absence of a new appointment, payment will be made to and reported by the old appointment.
 2. The Conference Treasurer will make this payment upon receiving the Itinerant Clergy Moving Expense Requisition form signed by the person receiving reimbursement and approved by the sending District Superintendent, along with appropriate receipts to substantiate the expenses.
 3. The pastor should send the completed document, "So You're Moving" checklist to the sending District Superintendent. This will fulfill the 2008 Discipline, Paragraph 2532.4, which states "The chairperson of the board of trustees or the chairperson of the parsonage committee, if one exists, the chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to ensure proper maintenance.”

4. Moving expense funds will be withheld by the Conference treasurer if the district superintendent determines that the parsonage was inadequately cleaned or was damaged beyond normal wear and tear. If an inspection by the district superintendent and the pastor-parish relations committee or the parsonage committee reveals monetary needs for cleaning or repairs, or for having the fuel tank filled, the remaining balance of the moving expense due said pastor shall be made payable to the respective district to pay for needed cleaning or repairs. If the district superintendent or the moving pastor is NOT in agreement with said pastor-parish relations committee or the parsonage committee, the superintendent may request the arbitration committee of the clergy living committee to inspect the parsonage involved and give an impartial recommendation.
 - D. The Conference treasurer will make an advance payment up to a $600.00 to eligible itinerant clergy to cover the expense of deposit and fees for moving expenses prior to their move, upon approval by the district superintendent. Those receiving an advance must substantiate their expenditures, and any money that is left over shall be refunded to the Conference treasurer. All advance payments shall be included in W-2 information provided to the local church by the Conference Treasurer for inclusion on the W-2.
 - E. No additional claim can be made against a local church, district, or the Conference for payment of moving expenses.
 - F. Reimbursable expenses include the cost of boarding and moving domestic animals, the moving of recreational vehicles, boats, etc., moving household and personal goods, travel as defined in II.B., lodging, packing, crating, in-transit storage and insurance, labor costs, and any other expense necessary to physically move household items. Expenses which are not reimbursable include meals, purchase of household items, or any other item not reasonable or necessary for the move.
 - G. The request for moving expense reimbursement must be received in the Treasurer’s Office no later than four months following the date of the move.
 - H. Reimbursement will be considered a qualified, non-taxable fringe benefit not subject to income and self-employment tax when:
 - Your move is 50 or more miles from the old appointment to the new appointment and
 - Your new appointment is full time for at least 39 weeks during the first 12 months at the new location.If your appointment does not meet the above conditions, then the reimbursement will be reported as taxable for both income and employment tax. However, if your reimbursement is treated as taxable income, an additional stipend in the amount of 20% of the taxable income portion will be provided. The maximum stipend will be no more than 20% of the applicable limit stated in section II.A.
- III. Review Committee
- A. There will be a Review Committee consisting of two persons appointed by the chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, one district superintendent appointed by the Bishop, the Conference treasurer, the director of Ministerial Relations and the chair of the Moving Expense Committee.
 - B. The Review Committee will consider and have final authority over any questionable or disallowed claim or special claim beyond allowances set in the approved plan.

Report B Recommendations for the Pension Program and Post Retirement Benefits

I. Funding Plan for Supplement One of the Clergy Retirement Security Program

- D. Defined Plan Benefits: Supplement One of the Clergy Retirement Security Program (Pre-82 Plan) provides defined benefit pension benefits to participating retired clergy for all service rendered to the North Carolina Conference through December 31, 1981. This plan will continue until all pastors with past service benefits and their surviving spouses are deceased and is administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBOPHB).

E. Current Past Service Rate: For many years, the Book of Discipline has defined Pre-82 Plan defined benefits as a fixed payment per year of past service. This fixed payment is the Past Service Rate (PSR). The benefit goal is stated to be a PSR of 1% of the Conference Average Compensation (CAC). Participation in the Clergy Retirement Security Program requires that an Annual Conference maintain its PSR to at least 0.9% of the CAC. The 2009 CAC for the North Carolina Conference is $65,199. The 2009 PSR is $601 or 0.92% of the CAC. Our Conference Board would like to maintain a PSR of at least 0.9% of CAC. North Carolina CAC has increased by approximately 4.6% over the past 10 years. We estimate future PSR increases to average approximately 5.0% each year.

F. Funded Status: The Conference is required to fund all future benefits of the Pre-82 Plan by December 31, 2021. Funded Status (previously called unfunded liability) is the difference of the current assets held by the GBOPHB for future benefits of North Carolina participants and the total present value of all future benefits to be paid under the plan at the approved PSR. The GBOPHB values assets and liabilities of the plan every two years and projects data to current years based on the increase in PSR and investment earnings. For the 2009 Funding Plan, GBOPHB and the Conference use an assumed earnings rate of 7.0%.

The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits has determined that the portion of the pre-82 plan liability attributable to North Carolina Annual Conference is $51,933,655 with a 5.0% PSR increase assumption based on a 2009 PSR of $601. Plan funds currently held with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits have a value of $20,526,150 as of January 1, 2007 (for 2009 funding plan).

The difference between the total plan liability and current plan funding is $31,407,505. This represents the unfunded plan liability and will be provided through apportionments and non-plan funds that are held in various investment sources. The Conference intends for contributions to be made within the 13-year period, ending December 31, 2021. The minimum annual contribution due December 31, 2009 is currently estimated to be $2,491,386.

G. Funding Plan for 2009: Our conference pays for plan benefits through several potential funding sources. Both the interest and principal of non-plan funds may be available for retirement funding needs. Below is a description of the non-plan assets available to pay the present value of future contributions. Our Conference expects to utilize annual apportionments from the local churches as the primary source for pre-82 pension funding. Our Conference expects to receive annual apportionments in an amount of $3,300,000 for 2009 through 2011, then increasing $200,000 each year through 2015. Apportionments of $4,100,000 are expected for the year 2015. The present value of the expected apportionments is $19,120,434. This apportionment funding was originally approved by the 1991 Annual Conference.

The Conference maintains a General Deposit Account with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits that has a value of $9,526,080.32 as of January 1, 2009. Both the interest and principal from this account are available to meet future contribution requirements.

The Conference maintains and manages various liquid asset accounts that are available for Supplement One funding. The current value of these accounts are $1,633,599 as of January 1, 2009. Both the interest and principal from these sources are available to meet future contribution requirements.

The Superannuate Endowment fund has a value of $273,921.80 as of January 1, 2009. All of it is available except for the original balance of $87,195.39, from which interest only is available.

The 2009 funding plan as of January 1, 2007 is summarized below:

Supplement One Liability:

Assuming A PSR Increase of 5.0%	$51,933,655
Current Plan Funding as of 1/1/07	$20,526,150
Unfunded Plan Liability as of 1/1/07	$31,407,505
Projected Unfunded Plan Liability as of 1/1/09	$28,916,119

Additional Plan Assets:

Present Value of Future Apportionments.....	$19,120,434
General Deposit Account (GBOPHB).....	$9,526,080
Conference Managed Liquid Asset Accounts	$1,633,599
Conference Superannuate Endowment Fund (GBOPHB).....	$273,922
Total Additional Plan Assets.....	$30,554,035

Proposed Past Service Rate: The 2010 CAC for the North Carolina Conference is $66,579. We propose that the past service rate beginning January 1, 2010 be increased to $626 per service year, or 0.94% of the CAC. Assuming 5% future PSR increases and 7.0% investment earnings, this increase creates an unfunded liability of $51,397,194. The minimum annual contribution due December 31, 2010 is currently estimated to be $2,603,119.

II. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) (effective through December 31, 2006)

Guidelines for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan are contained in the plan document. A copy of the summary plan document is available on request by contacting pension services in the treasurer's office.

- A. Service on and after January 1, 1982 through December 31, 2006 was funded on a defined contribution basis. This plan is basically deferred salary, and creates no unfunded liability because it builds an account of funds for a specific minister as his/her salary is paid.
- B. These contributions were placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship.
- C. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.

III. Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) (Effective January 1, 2007)

Guidelines for the Clergy Retirement Security Program and the Comprehensive Protection Plan are contained in the plan document. A copy of the summary plan document is available on request by contacting pension services in the treasurer's office. Service on and after January 1, 2007 will be funded on a combined defined contribution/defined benefit basis.

A. Defined Benefit

- 1. The Defined Benefit will be 1.25% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) according to the plan document.
- 2. The Defined Benefit portion will be funded based on a percentage of Plan Compensation calculated on a yearly basis using up to the normal cost rate provided by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits multiplied by the annual interest rate. The current assumed interest rate is 7.0%. Therefore, the funding percentage rate for 2010 is 10.4% of Plan Compensation.

B. Defined Contribution

- 1. Benefits will be provided based on the participant's account balance at their actual retirement date.
- 2. The Defined Contribution portion funding is based on three percent (3%) of Plan Compensation.

C. Plan Compensation is calculated by the GBOPHB according to the plan document:

- 1. Vouchered travel and utilities paid directly to utility companies are not used in Plan Compensation calculations since this is considered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits to be local church expense.
- 2. Clergy couples housing:
 - a. When only one of the spouses is furnished a parsonage, the one furnished the parsonage includes the housing allowance.
 - b. When one spouse is furnished the parsonage and the other a cash allowance, the one furnished the parsonage will use the 25% housing allowance and the other will report the actual cash housing paid.
 - c. When two parsonages are furnished each spouse claims a housing allowance.
 - d. When neither is furnished a parsonage, the actual cash housing allowance may be counted by the person/or persons receiving the allowance.
- 3. In accordance with the plan document, the housing allowance for those furnished housing is 25% times the cash salary.
- 4. Those furnished a cash housing allowance will report the actual amount in accordance with the plan document.

D. The Clergy Retirement Security Program contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the Conference Treasurer's Office.

E. The Defined Contribution portions are placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship.

F. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.

IV. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

- A. This part of the program contains provisions for a death benefit and disability income. In addition to the provisions of a death benefit for the pastor, there is a death benefit on the life of the spouse and dependent children under age 18 or who are dependent because of disability. The Comprehensive Protection Plan also includes educational benefits for the children of a deceased minister. This part of the plan is only available to those ministers covered under the CPP, whose charges are paying at least minimum full-time salary.

1. Death Benefits provide $50,000.00 as the benefit paid on the death of an eligible active participant. Upon retirement at any age, death benefits drop to $17,467.80 for the year 2009 and $18,102.30 for 2010. This is 30% of the DAC.
 2. Effective January 1, 2002, the disability benefit equals 70% of plan compensation, with plan compensation capped at 200% of the DAC. (The DAC for 2009 is $58,226 and for 2010 is $60,341) The disability benefit is reduced by any disability benefits payable under the Social Security Act. This revised benefit applies only to eligible clergy whose disability effective date, as determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, is on or after January 1, 2002.
 3. The Comprehensive Protection Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the Conference Treasurer's Office. (Effective November 1, 2004)
 4. Pastors who have been approved for a leave of absence for military service and who were enrolled in the CPP prior to the date of their leave will continue to be enrolled in the CPP under optional Conference enrollment.
- B. Effective January 1, 2007, the cost of the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) will be funded by billing up to the calculated percentage to fund the CPP each year using the rate required by the General Board of Pension. For 2009 the cost is a total of 3% of the actual Plan Compensation up to 200% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). The pastor shall be required to pay 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of 200% of DAC) on an after tax basis and the church or charge shall pay 2% of the Plan Compensation (up to 2% of 200% of DAC). ¶1506.19 in The Book of Discipline 2008.

V. Implementation of the Program

The benefit program adopted by your Conference Board of Pensions seeks to provide a wider range of support for the minister's family through death benefits for every member of the family, disability income for the minister in time of great stress, educational benefits for children of deceased ministers, minimum annuity benefits for surviving spouses, and clergy benefits based on the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC).

- A. Costs of the Clergy Retirement Security Program/Comprehensive Protection Plan will be borne by the local charge as an item of ministerial support according to the Plan Compensation of the minister and the category of the charge.
1. Effective January 1, 2007
FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) – 10.4% of Plan Compensation for CRSP – Defined Benefit portion and 3% of Plan Compensation for CRSP - Defined Contribution portion and 2% of Plan Compensation for CPP (up to 2% of 200% of the DAC)
STUDENT (Conference Member/Local Pastor) 10.4% of Plan Compensation for CRSP – Defined Benefit portion and 3% of Plan Compensation for CRSP - Defined Contribution portion
LESS THAN FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) 10.4% of Plan Compensation for CRSP – Defined Benefit portion and 3% of Plan Compensation for CRSP - Defined Contribution portion
INTERIM OR RETIRED SUPPLY no pension responsibility
- B. Effective January 1, 2007 Deacons and Probationary Deacons serving in Episcopal appointments to a local church or other entity that falls under the pension plan sponsorship of the Conference shall be enrolled in the plans according to the plan document.
- C. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the Conference Treasurer's Office through the local church treasurer for his/her 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of 200% of the DAC) on an after tax basis for CPP.
- D. It is recommended that the pastor make regular monthly payments through the local church treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for his/her personal tax paid or tax deferred contributions of at least 3%. (The following, Item VI, was approved by the 1997 Annual Conference to be placed in effect at the conclusion of the Session of the Annual Conference, Year 2000:)

VI. Policies Related to Life and Health Insurance

- A. The 2010 budget needed to fund health and life insurance, pension grants, administration, etc., is $2,700,000.
- B. Eligibility Policies
1. Five-Year Rule: A participant must be covered under the health insurance plan for five consecutive years immediately prior to the date of retirement in order to retain health insurance benefits after retirement.
 2. Clergy persons who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with twenty or more full time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference may receive life and health insurance benefits when the clergy person attains age 62 and receives pension benefits or retires with thirty (30) years of service and receives pension benefits provided at least twenty (20) of the thirty years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference. The North Carolina pension credit record used to determine insurance funding for retiring Deacons in Full Connection shall consist of eligible North Carolina earned pension credit years in both the lay and clergy pension plans.

3. Effective July 1, 2007, clergy persons who retire at age 59 ½ with 20 or more years may remain on the Conference insurance plan, provided written notification of this intent is provided to the Conference Benefits Manager. The clergy person will be responsible for 100% of the applicable monthly premium until the attainment of age 62 (Report B Section VI B2). At the attainment of age 62, the monthly premium will be adjusted according to the retirement rules in place at the time of retirement. Monthly premiums will then be calculated at the applicable percentages as defined in Report B Section VI D and E.
4. All retired clergy, spouses and surviving dependents must enroll in Medicare part A and part B when first eligible.
5. Effective August 1, 1992, Pastors who discontinued ¶313.1, or Probationary Members, ¶327.6, as well as Conference Members who are retired involuntarily, ¶358.3, who are granted Honorable Location, ¶359; who withdraw to unite with another denomination, ¶360.1; who surrender the ordained ministerial office ¶360.2; who withdraw under complaints or charges, ¶360.3; and Conference Members who are placed on Administrative Location, ¶362 are ineligible to receive retirement health or life insurance benefits when payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits begin. [Paragraphs noted are from The Book of Discipline, 2008]

C. Retirement prior to January 1, 2004

Clergy persons who retire prior to January 1, 2004 from the North Carolina Annual Conference will be subject to the current rate policy as outlined below. Effective January 1, 2004, there will be a minimum monthly contribution of $10 per participant (for all surviving dependents and retirees with a clergy retirement date prior to January 1, 2004).

The following policies apply:

1. Before the retired clergy person and/or spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility (currently 65 years of age), the retired clergy person will pay the amount of premium that he/she paid in the year in which he/she retires. The Conference Board of Pensions will pay the difference between the clergy person's payment and the costs of his/her health insurance. The retired clergy person must continue to pay the amount of premium that he/she paid in the year of retirement until both the retired clergy person and his/her spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility. Billings will be made monthly from the Treasurer's Office.
2. If a clergy person who, prior to retirement, has been covered as a single individual for the purposes of health insurance, wishes at the time of retirement to add family members to his/her health care plan, he/she must pay the premium applicable to that type of coverage for the year in which he/she retired. The retired clergy person must continue to pay that amount of premium until both the retired clergy person and his/her spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility.

A clergy person who retires from the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than twenty (20) full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference may receive life and health insurance benefits when the clergy person attains age 62 and receives pension benefits or retires with thirty-five (35) years of service and receives pension benefits provided at least twenty of the thirty-five years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference. Retired clergy persons and/or dependents with less than twenty years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will be responsible for the monthly insurance premiums as described in #1 above, with the remaining monthly portion shared by the retired clergy person and/or dependents and the Conference Board of Pensions, based on the following formula:

Years of Pension Credit	Individual Contribution	Board of Pension's Contribution
2	90%	10%
3	85%	15%
4	80%	20%
5	75%	25%
6	70%	30%

16	20%	80%
17	15%	85%
18	10%	90%
19	5%	95%
20	$10 Minimum	Remaining Premium

This payment formula remains in effect throughout the participant's lifetime (clergy person or surviving dependent).

D. Retirement after January 1, 2004

(Eligibility policies can be found in Report B, section VI B)

Effective January 1, 2004 the following schedule(s) will apply to all retired clergy and their eligible dependents, whose retirement date is January 1, 2004 or later.

1. Medicare Eligible (retiree and/or dependents)

Years of NC Pension Credit	Individual Contribution	Board of Pension Contribution
0-4	Not Eligible	Not Eligible
5-9	80%	20%
10-14	70%	30%
15-19	60%	40%
20-24	50%	50%
25-29	40%	60%
30-34	30%	70%
35-39	20%	80%
40 or more	10%	90%

2. Age Less than Medicare Eligible (retiree and/or dependents)

Years of NC Pension Credit	Individual Contribution	Board of Pension Contribution
0-4	Not Eligible	Not Eligible
5-9	80%	20%
10-14	70%	30%
15-19	60%	40%
20-24	50%	50%
25-29	40%	60%
30-34	30%	70%
35-39	20%	80%
40 or more	10%	90%

3. The minimum monthly premium billed to the individual will be no less than the active monthly personal portion of the premium for the applicable coverage type.

E. Retirement after January 1, 2007 (revised June 2008)

(Eligibility policies can be found in Report B, Section VI B.)

1. Effective January 1, 2007 the Conference Board of Pensions will fund only the % above as applied to the Medicare Companion plan rate. Retirees and/or dependents not yet Medicare eligible age will be responsible for the difference between the funded amount as calculated based on the above table(s) and the remaining cost of full coverage.
2. The above % of the Medicare Companion plan premium will be applied to the total active family rate until both the retiree and spouse attain the Medicare eligibility age.
3. Participants who retired under provision E1, (2007 rule) will have their rates re-calculated effective July 1, 2008 to comply with the new E2 provision.

F. Retirement after July 1, 2009

(Eligibility policies can be found in Report B, Section VI B.)

Clergy under appointment as of June 30, 2009

1. Post retirement health plan eligibility for clergy who are licensed, commissioned, or ordained under NC Episcopal appointment to a NC Conference responsible appointment (i.e., eligible for enrollment in the Conference Insurance Plan) as of June 30, 2009 will be determined using years of NC pension credit/pension eligibility accrued through June 30, 2009. Effective July 1, 2009, accrual of future year's credit toward post retirement benefits will be determined by months of enrollment in the Conference insurance plan with a minimum of 60 months immediately preceding retirement.
2. The retiree must participate in the NC Health Plan for 60 consecutive months immediately prior to the date of retirement.
3. Clergy with 60 months of participation in the NC Health Plan immediately prior to retirement, but less than 180 months in the plan (over the course of career) will have access to the NC Health Plan and contribute the full cost of the plan.
4. The retiree may only cover dependents that are covered at the time of retirement.
5. Funding will be based on the chart printed below:

Years of NC Pension Credit/Yrs inNC Ins. Plan	Individual Contribution	Board of Pension's Contribution
0-4	Not Eligible	Not Eligible
5-9	80%	20%
10-14	70%	30%
15-19	60%	40%
20-24	50%	50%
25-29	40%	60%
30-34	30%	70%
35-39	20%	80%
40 or more	10%	90%

G. Newly appointed Clergy (licensed, commissioned or ordained receiving first time appointment) effective July 1, 2009

1. Post retirement health plan eligibility for clergy newly licensed, commissioned or ordained effective July 1, 2009, under Episcopal appointment to a NC Conference responsible appointment (i.e. eligible for enrollment in the Conference Insurance plan) will be based on total months enrolled in the Conference Insurance Plan with a minimum of 180 months total enrollment with 60 consecutive months enrollment immediately preceding the date of retirement for funding eligibility.
2. Participants who meet the 60 consecutive months enrollment but do not meet the 180 months minimum will have access to the plan with no funding from the Conference Board of Pensions. The participant will be responsible for 100% of the applicable premiums.
3. Credited enrollment in the insurance plan, once earned, will not be reduced or terminated due to breaks in enrollment.
4. Funding will be based on the following:

Years in NC Insurance Plan	Individual Contribution	Board of Pension's Contribution
0-4	Not Eligible	Not Eligible
5-14	100%	0%
15-19	60%	40%
20-24	50%	50%
25-29	40%	60%
30-34	30%	70%
35-39	20%	80%
40 or more	10%	90%

H. Life Insurance - A clergy person must have been covered under the conference active life insurance plan in order to retain life insurance benefits after retirement. The Board of Pensions does not provide life insurance for dependents of retired clergy.

I. Clergy Couples Insurance

1. When one member of a clergy couple retires, medical and life insurance will be paid for the retiree according to the schedules and rules previously listed.
2. Health insurance will be provided for the spouse and eligible dependents of the retired clergy partner according to the rules and schedules previously listed.
3. Each member of a clergy couple would receive credit for the years they were covered under the plan.

J. Surviving Spouses

Surviving spouses of active participants:

1. Must be enrolled in the health insurance plan at the time of the participant's death in order to receive health insurance benefits under the current health insurance plan.
2. The Conference Board of Pensions will pay the health insurance premiums for surviving spouses and eligible dependents for up to six months following the death of the active clergy person.
3. Premiums thereafter will be determined by the retirement rules in place on the date of death.
4. When surviving spouses are employed and provided health insurance by their employer, the plan of the Board of Pensions will be the secondary carrier.
5. If the surviving spouse remarries, the conference health insurance will terminate. Future benefits under the conference health insurance plan are waived.

Surviving spouses of retired participants:

1. Surviving spouses of retired clergy must be enrolled in the health insurance plan at the time of the retired clergy's death in order to receive health insurance benefits under the current health insurance plan.
2. Surviving spouses currently enrolled who married the clergy person after the clergy person's retirement, can remain covered by the health insurance plan. The Board of Pensions grants a flat rate of $150.00 monthly towards the cost of the surviving spouse's coverage. The remaining premium will be the responsibility of the surviving spouse.
3. Surviving spouses of retired clergy who married the clergy person prior to the clergy person's retirement are subject to the payment schedule applicable prior to the death of the clergy person.
4. Effective January 1, 2001 retired clergy persons may not add new dependents to the health insurance plan.

VII. Intent

The North Carolina Annual Conference established health, dental, and life insurance plans with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired pastors. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health, dental, and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plans without the consent of the individual participants.

VIII. Dental Insurance

The Board of Pensions recommends that retired ministers covered under the health insurance plan have dental insurance. Dental benefits became available on July 1, 1987.

IX. Maximum Lifetime Benefit Under the Medicare Companion Plan. The lifetime maximum under the current Medicare Companion Plan is $5,000,000 for each participant.

X. Special Provisions

The North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for active participation in the CRSP and/or CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as active participants. (CRSP Plan Document Section 3.3 and CPP Plan Document Section 3.2.)

XI. Conclusion

Our constant aim is to provide our retired families with their needs for an adequate income to purchase essentials for living as well as to insure adequate care in case of illness. To these ends our recommendations are directed, and their satisfaction is found in the acceptance of the North Carolina Conference and its membership.

Report C Housing Exclusion Allowance (For Income Tax Purposes Only)

Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the North Carolina Conference

The North Carolina Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons");

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

1. THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits ("GBOPHB"), any amounts received from the Minister's Transition Fund (MTF) and including amounts received in this respect from the Duke Endowment, during the year 2009 and 2010 by each active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and
2. THAT the pension or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson's pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations thereunder to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71 280, 1971 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities."

Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Please Note: There is no place on your 1040 Tax Form to list this Housing Exclusion. The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits has provided a sample statement to be used: "I received $_____ from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Incorporated in Missouri; and/or from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline and $_____ from the Duke Endowment (total $_____) as reported on the attached 1099 - R's. I did not include that amount on Line 16b because $_____ has been excluded under provisions of IRC Section 107 of the Internal Revenue Code as a rental allowance exclusion. As a retired clergyperson, I am entitled to take this rental allowance exclusion." (In this blank put the least of the 3 amounts on your Housing Exclusion Worksheet.)

Attach this note to your 1099-R forms.

Report D Ministers' Transition Fund

- I. The Principles of the Fund - The Ministers' Transition Fund of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church (the "Fund") was established effective November 20, 1937, to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship in which a furnished parsonage has usually been provided, to the retired relationship in which the minister provides his or her housing. The Fund is established by apportionments to each local church in the Outreach Ministries-Fair Share Apportionments and by assessments to each minister who has membership in the Fund. Since all churches contribute to this Fund, it is the desire of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church that all ministers participate in the Fund. The Conference does not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers' Transition Fund as an additional benefit for their ministers, but as a benefit for all ministers of the Conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those that he or she contributed to the Fund.

The Conference vigorously emphasizes that the purpose of this Fund is to assist the minister's retirement transition and not to be an emergency fund available for any other purpose. All participant elections available shall be irrevocable. The Fund is intended to be a church plan within the meaning of section 414(e) of the Internal Revenue

Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") which has not made the election under section 410(d) of the Code and is also intended to meet the requirements of a retirement income account under section 403(b)(9) of the Code. The Plan shall be interpreted, wherever possible, to comply with the applicable terms of the Code and all applicable formal regulations and rulings issued under the Code.

- II. The Conference Treasurer - The Treasurer of the North Carolina Conference (the "Conference Treasurer") shall serve as Treasurer and custodian of this Fund. He or she shall promote this work, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of assessments received and benefits paid.
- III. Eligibility for Membership - Membership in this Fund is not mandatory. Each ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) who is serving full time in a charge or as a district superintendent, a Conference ministerial staff person, or others who are appointed to serve at a North Carolina Annual Conference Institution (Methodist Retirement Home, Inc.; Methodist Home for Children, Inc.; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College) or other Episcopal appointment of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be eligible to join.

In order to remain an active, participating member, the ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) must continue to serve full time in a charge or other appointment. A full-time local pastor may continue as a member of the Fund only during the time he or she is serving under episcopal appointment. Students under episcopal appointment who have previously served full time and who intend to return to full time service are eligible to continue. Those ministerial members on disability leave, leave of absence, or Conference members with less than full time service, may continue to be active, participating members by meeting the provisions discussed hereafter.

Ministerial members who transfer into the Conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the Fund in January of the year following the Annual Conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total salary and utility allowances for the six months between July 1 and December 31 computed to a twelve-month amount.

Each new member of the Fund shall file an application form. Upon filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his or her membership becomes effective. The deadline for enrollment for all ministers is January 31 of each year.

IV. Apportionments and Assessments

- A. Conference Contributions — Funds shall be placed in the Annual Conference budget annually as approved by the Annual Conference. This budgeted amount will be apportioned to charges on the same basis as all other Conference budget items. Funds may also be placed in the fund through special contribution by Annual Conference boards or committees. All such budget or other contributions shall become part of the Fund.
- B. Minister Contributions - Each minister in a pastoral appointment who participates in the Fund shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis one percent (1%) of all salary and utility allowances he or she receives each year from the charge he or she is serving and/or Conference sources. (Salary also includes Equitable Salary Fund payments, Duke Endowment Funds, and missionary sources.) Such contributions may be paid in monthly installments by check or electronic bank drafts.
- C. Council on Finance and Administration Contributions - The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment into the Fund an amount equal to one percent (1%) of salary and utility allowances usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and ministers appointed as Conference staff.
- D. District Superintendent and Conference Ministerial Staff Contributions - District superintendents and Conference ministerial staff shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis one percent (1%) of their salary and utility allowances.
- E. All Other Ministers - All other ministers who participate in the Fund shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis a sum equivalent to two percent (2%) of their annual salary and utility allowances or two percent (2%) of the Conference Average Salary, whichever is greater.

- II. Deadline For Receipt of Assessment - The plan (fiscal) year of the Ministers' Transition Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. No later than November 1 of each year, the Conference Treasurer shall notify all members their assessment is due. Each member of the Fund shall submit payment for the required assessment no later than January 31 of each year. Such contributions may be paid in monthly installments by check or electronic bank drafts. Assessments received after January 31 will be returned to the minister. If he or she has been a member less than ten (10) years, this lack of payment extends the period for one additional year before dividends can be received. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he or she will receive no dividends for the year involving lack of payment. If any member of the Fund fails to pay his or her required assessment for three consecutive years, he or she shall be required to withdraw from membership in the Fund.

- VI. Base Benefits - Base benefits shall be paid to retired members of the Transition Fund as follows:

If retired at the end of one year of membership	$200.00
If retired at the end of two years of membership	300.00
If retired at the end of three years of membership	400.00
If retired at the end of four years of membership	500.00

If retired at the end of five years of membership	600.00
If retired at the end of six years of membership	700.00
If retired at the end of seven years of membership	800.00
If retired at the end of eight years of membership	900.00
If retired at the end of nine years of membership	1,000.00
If retired at the end of ten years of membership	1,100.00
If retired at the end of eleven years of membership	1,200.00
If retired at the end of twelve years of membership	1,300.00
If retired at the end of thirteen years of membership	1,400.00
If retired at the end of fourteen years of membership	1,500.00
If retired at the end of fifteen years of membership	1,600.00
If retired at the end of sixteen years of membership	1,700.00
If retired at the end of seventeen years of membership	1,800.00
If retired at the end of eighteen years of membership	1,900.00
If retired at the end of nineteen years of membership	2,000.00
If retired at the end of twenty years of membership	2,100.00
If retired at the end of twenty-one years of membership	2,200.00
If retired at the end of twenty-two years of membership	2,300.00
If retired at the end of twenty-three years of membership	2,400.00
If retired at the end of twenty-four years of membership	2,500.00
If retired at the end of twenty-five years of membership	2,600.00

VII. Allocation of Dividends After Ten Years of Membership -After ten years of membership, and beginning with the eleventh year, the base benefit to be paid is increased by dividends credited to the members account. Any funds, except as provided below, including apportionments, assessments, forfeitures and earnings thereon, remaining after benefits have been paid to eligible members for the plan year shall be divided into equal parts, in the case of members who remained members through the year, and portions of such equal parts in the case of members who have retired during the year and who are entitled to a part-year allocation, as described below, and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for more than ten years and are not in arrears for the previous year.

A reserve equal to ten percent of the members' payments and dividend fund balances as of December 31 each year shall be maintained. Unrealized gains on investments shall be reserved and are not generally eligible to be distributed as annual dividends. The Hearing Committee may supplement the annual dividend from such reserves to maintain the declared dividend in an amount consistent with previous year levels when such action is deemed appropriate considering current investment returns and current economic conditions. The purpose of maintaining these reserves is to insulate the members in any year from market fluctuations and preserve the ability of the fund to consistently provide for housing needs in their retirement.

In the event a member retires during a year after completing ten years of membership, such member may elect to submit payment to the Fund of that portion of their assessment for the year equal to the product of (1) the assessment the member would have paid had the member not retired, and (2) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of whole months in the year prior to the date the member retires, and the denominator of which is 12. If a member pays the assessment described in the preceding sentence, the account of the member shall also receive as an allocation of dividends for such year an amount equal to the product of (1) the amount of dividends which would be credited to the account of such member had the member not retired during such year, and (2) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of whole months in the year prior to the date the member retires, and the denominator of which is 12.

VIII. Limitations on Contributions Pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code

A. In General - The contributions for any calendar year allocated to a member's account under Articles VI and VII on behalf of a member under all Qualifying Retirement Plans in which the member participates shall not exceed the member's Limit on Annual Additions as determined in subsection B of this Article VIII. The provisions of this Article VIII are intended to provide the limit on the amount of contributions to this Fund which are excludable from the gross income of the member pursuant to Code section 415, and shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with that Code section.

B. Limit on Annual Additions Under Code Section 415

1. A member's Limit on Annual Additions shall for any calendar year be an amount equal to the lesser of:
 - (a) 100% of the member's includible compensation within the meaning of Code section 415(c)(3)(E) in such calendar year, or
 - (b) $49,000, or such greater amount as is permitted under Code section 415(c) as adjusted under Code section 415(d)(1)(B).

For purposes of determining a member's Limit on Annual Additions, in the case of a member who has more than 50% control of an employer (a "Controlled Employer") within the meaning of Code section 415(h), contributions to a plan of the Controlled Employer that constitute annual additions (as defined in Code section 415(c)(2)) to the member shall be treated as contributions to this Plan.

2. A member's "includible compensation" for purposes of paragraph (1), above, shall mean the amount of compensation received from an employer within the meaning of Code section 403(b)(3) and 414(e) which is includible in gross income, computed without regard to Code section 911 for the most recent period ending not later than the close of the taxable year which is counted as a one year period of service as defined under paragraph (3) below. Such term shall not include any amount received by a former member after the fifth taxable year following the taxable year in which such member was terminated, or utilities to the extent such amounts are not includible in compensation pursuant to Code section 107.

3. A member's "period of service" for purposes of paragraph (2) above shall be expressed as a number equal to the member's number of full years of service plus one-twelfth for each one month period of service in addition to his or her full years of service. Part-time service of a member shall be taken into account as the percentage of such service that is equal to the percentage of full-time service served.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Article VIII.B to the contrary, the Limit on Annual Additions of a member who has made an election under Code section 415(c)(7) shall be determined under such Code section and the regulations issued thereunder.

C. Prohibition on Before-Tax Salary Reduction Contributions - Before-tax contributions under a salary reduction agreement shall not be permitted under this Fund.

IX. Death Benefits - When a participating member of the Fund dies, the Treasurer shall pay to his or her designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, otherwise to his or her estate, the full amount of the base benefit payments plus the dividends, if any, added to his or her account. In the event that a minister dies prior to the eleventh year of membership, the designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, or otherwise the estate, shall receive the full amount of the base benefit payments plus the assessments contributed by the participating member. In no case would the beneficiary, beneficiaries or estate receive less at the time of the minister's death than the member's assessments plus simple interest credited annually at the rate of The United Methodist Foundation, Inc., cumulative dividend yield for the most recent four quarters prior to the date of death.

X. Designation of Beneficiary - Each member shall provide the Conference Treasurer the name(s) of the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom the death benefits described in Article IX are to be paid in the event of death. The designation shall be indicated on a form provided by the Conference Treasurer. A designation shall not be effective unless such form has been duly completed and filed with the Conference Treasurer. In the absence of a designated beneficiary, benefits shall be paid to the member's estate.

XI. Irrevocable Election Regarding Distribution of Funds - Members actively serving must make, prior to attaining age 59 1/2, an irrevocable election to either terminate from the Ministers' Transition Fund beginning with the Annual Conference following the attainment of age 60 or to defer termination from the Fund until retirement, as defined in the Book of Discipline, 2008, ¶¶358.1, 358.2a, 358.2b, 358.2c. Such irrevocable election is the responsibility of the member and must be made in writing to the Conference Treasurer by age 59 1/2. Forms can be obtained upon request from the Conference Treasurer. Should the member fail to make the irrevocable election, the member will not terminate from this Fund until retirement.

IV. Payment of Benefits

A. In General - At retirement or early termination from the Fund, members who have accrued the same number of years of service credited under the Fund (during the same calendar years) will have exactly the same accrued benefit and will receive exactly the same benefit regardless of their total individual contributions. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Fund, all payments under this Fund must be made at least as rapidly as required under section 401(a)(9) of the Code and any proposed or final regulations thereunder, including but not limited to the incidental death benefit requirements of Code section 401(a)(9)(G).

In no case would the member receive less at retirement than the member's assessments plus interest computed at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. cumulative dividend yield for the four most recent quarters prior to the retirement date.

1. Ministers With Less Than Ten (10) Years. For ministers retiring between January 1 through Annual Conference, and who retire or terminate from this Fund with less than ten (10) years credit in the Fund shall be paid in a single lump sum immediately following the session of the Annual Conference at which he or she retires or terminates. For ministers retiring between Annual Conference and December 31, payment shall be paid between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires. The benefit shall be the base benefit as prescribed in the table for retired members under Article VI plus minister contributions

- 2. Ministers With Ten (10) or More Years. A minister who retires or terminates from this Fund with ten (10) or more years credit in the Fund must make an irrevocable election to receive benefit payments under one of the following options. This irrevocable election must be made no later than ninety days prior to the retirement month or month of termination due to early retirement or disability. For either option selected, total benefit payments shall be the base benefits as prescribed in the table plus the dividends credited. Interest will accrue on the principal balance beginning on the later of the retirement date or July 1 of the retirement year and will continue until the account is paid in full. The interest rate will equal the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. cumulative dividend yield for the four most recent quarters. All payments excluding the payment of member assessments shall be subject to income tax.
- (a) Two payment option: The first payment shall be equal to the cumulative amount that the member has paid in assessments. The second payment shall be the remainder of dividends and base benefit payment earned during their membership and interest accrued.
- (b) Six payment option. The first payment shall be equal to the cumulative amount that the member has paid in assessments. The remaining payments shall be five equal annual installments of the remaining dividends and base benefit payment earned during their membership and interest accrued. The six payment option shall not be available to a member following attainment of age 70.

For ministers retiring between January 1 and Annual Conference, under either option, the first payment shall be paid within 15 working days following the adjournment of the Annual Conference following the ministers' retirement or termination from the Fund. The second and subsequent payments shall be paid annually between January 1 and January 10 of each year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires until the account is paid in full.

For ministers retiring between Annual Conference and December 31, the first payment and second payment for either payment option shall be paid between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires. Unless the minister selects the six payment option, the account shall be disbursed in full in the first January after retirement. If the six payment option is selected, the four remaining installments shall be paid annually between January 1 and January 10 of each subsequent year until the account is paid in full.

B. Direct Rollovers

1. This Article XII.B applies to distributions made on or after January 1, 1993. Notwithstanding any provision of the Fund to the contrary that would otherwise limit a distributee's election under this Article XII.B, a distributee may elect at the time and in the manner prescribed by the plan administrator, to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover.
2. Definitions:
 - (a) Eligible rollover distribution: An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary, or for (a) a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under section 401(a)(9) of the Code as made applicable by section 403(b)(10) of the Code, any amount that is distributed upon hardship, and the portion of any distribution that is not includible in gross income (determined without regard to the exclusion for net unrealized appreciation with respect to employer securities).
 - (b) Eligible retirement plan: An eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account described in section 408(a) of the Code, an individual retirement annuity described in section 408(b) of the Code, an annuity contract described in section 403(b) of the Code (including custodial accounts described in section 403(b)(7) of the Code and retirement income accounts described in Section 403(b)(9) of the Code), a qualified plan described in section 401(a) or 403(a) of the Code, or an eligible plan under section 457(b) of the Code which is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state, or any agency or instrumentality of a state or political subdivision of a state which agrees to separately account for amounts transferred to such 457(b) plan from this Fund, that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution
 - (c) Distributee: A distributee includes an employee or former employee. In addition, the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in section 414(p) of the Code, are distributees with regard to the interest of the spouse or former spouse.
 - (d) Direct rollover: A direct rollover is a payment by the plan to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.

3. Within a reasonable time before making an eligible rollover distribution from the Fund, the Conference Treasurer shall provide or cause to be provided the written explanation to the distributee required by Code section 402(f).
- XIII. Disability Leave - A minister who is approved for and placed on Disability Leave granted by the Conference may elect to:
- A. Continue as an active member and pay two percent (2%) of the disability pay received from all sources. Should Disability Leave be granted between sessions of Annual Conference, 2% of the disability pay received from all sources computed to a 12 month amount shall be paid.
 - B. Be treated the same as a transferring member.
 - C. Receive benefits the same as a retiring member.
 - D. Terminate from the Fund and receive all benefits within thirty (30) days following the granting of Disability Leave.
- The minister shall notify the Conference Treasurer in writing of his or her choice of option within ten (10) days following the granting of Disability Leave. In no case would the member receive less than the member's assessments plus interest, determined as described in Article IX.
- XIV. Leave of Absence - A minister who is approved for and placed on Leave of Absence by the Conference may elect to:
- A. Continue as an active member by paying 2% of the Conference Average Compensation while on leave.
 - B. Be treated the same as a transferring member under Article XVI.
- Conference Average Compensation means the Conference Average Compensation as determined annually by the General Board of Pensions.
- XV. Less Than Full Time Service - A Conference member who is approved for less than full time service by the Conference may elect to:
- A. Continue as an active member for no more than three years by paying 2% of the Conference Average Compensation (within the meaning of Article XIV) while serving less than full time.
 - B. Withdraw from the Fund according to the provisions of Article XVII.
- XVI. Membership Transferring - Any ministerial member who leaves the North Carolina Conference by transfer to another annual conference of The United Methodist Church cannot make any further payment to the Fund. He or she may leave his or her account (including dividends, if any) in the Fund until retirement. If this is done, the benefit under this Fund will be computed as of the date of transfer from the North Carolina Conference with interest determined in the manner described in Article IX, determined from the date of transfer to the date of retirement. If the account is left, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he or she may reinstate his or her payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of transfer back into this Conference.
- XVII. Withdrawing From The Fund Prior to Retirement - If a member desires to withdraw from the Fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the Conference Treasurer, he or she shall receive the amount he or she has paid into the Fund, plus interest determined in the manner described in Article IX each year he or she was participating in the Fund. Amounts in the members account in excess of the amount determined under the preceding sentence shall be forfeited and reallocated as dividends for the year of forfeiture pursuant to Article VII. Each member whose membership is terminated in the Fund in any way will provide the Conference Treasurer with a statement indicating that he or she has received the funds for which he or she is eligible, and that he or she is no longer a member of the Fund. Any minister leaving the North Carolina Conference to join another denomination other than The United Methodist Church will be required to withdraw from the Fund and payment will be made to the minister according to the formula set forth in the first paragraph of this Article XVII.
- XVIII. Reinstatement - A member who has withdrawn from the Fund may not be reinstated, but is required to begin anew as though he or she were a new member. A minister shall not be permitted to rejoin the Fund more than two (2) times during his or her ministerial career.
- XIX. Hearing Committee
- A. The Committee - A Hearing Committee consisting of the Board of Pensions Executive Committee, Conference Treasurer, Director of Ministerial Relations, Conference Controller, and the Conference Insurance Group Administrator shall have authority to act on behalf of the Board of Pensions between Annual Conference sessions concerning matters that relate to, but are not specifically covered by, this constitution of the Ministers' Transition Fund. The Plan Administrator for the Fund for other plan administrative matters and matters delegated by the Hearing Committee shall be the Conference Insurance Group Administrator. Determinations by the Hearing Committee, the Board of Pensions or the Plan Administrator shall be conclusive and binding on all persons and shall be afforded the maximum deference permitted by law.
 - B. Claims Procedure - If a claim is wholly or partially denied, the Hearing Committee shall furnish the member or beneficiary with written notice of the denial within sixty (60) days of the date the original claim was filed. This notice of denial shall provide:

1. The specific reason or reasons for denial;
2. Provide specific reference to pertinent plan provisions on which denial is based;
3. A description of any additional information needed to perfect the claim and an explanation of why such information is necessary; and
4. An explanation of the plan's claims procedure.

The member or beneficiary shall have sixty (60) days from receipt of denial notice in which to make written application for review by the Hearing Committee. The Hearing Committee shall issue a decision on such review within sixty (60) days after receipt of an application for review as provided in the preceding sentence. Such decision on review shall be made in writing and shall include specific reasons for the decision written in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant. All decisions and denials of claims by the Hearing Committee shall be afforded the maximum deference permitted by law.

XX. New Rules and Constitutional Provisions - The rules and guidelines of this constitution supersede all previous Conference legislation regulating this Fund. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of this constitution without the consent of individual members of the Fund. No amendment shall have the effect of modifying any benefit election of any member in effect at the time of such amendment or modifying the benefit of any member who retired prior to the date of such amendment, unless the amendment expressly so provides. The Annual Conference established this Fund with the intent that it will be maintained for an indefinite period of time. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the Fund, in whole or in part, at any time. No amendment, modification or termination of the Fund shall adversely affect the members benefits accrued for his or her retirement at the time of termination of the Fund.

XXI. Miscellaneous Provisions

- A. Prohibition Against Diversion - Subject to Code section 414(p), there shall be no diversion of any portion of the assets of the plan other than for the exclusive benefit of members and their beneficiaries.
- B. Delegation of Authority - The Board of Pensions, Conference Treasurer and the Hearing Committee may authorize any agent or agents to carry out their duties, and may employ such counsel, auditors, and other specialists and such clerical, actuarial and other services as it may require in carrying out the provisions of the Fund.
- C. Notification of Mailing Address - Each member and other person entitled to benefits hereunder shall from time to time file with the Conference, in writing, such persons post office address and change of post office address. Any check representing any payment due hereunder, and any communication forwarded to a member or beneficiary at the last known address as indicated by the records of the Conference shall constitute adequate payment to such person and be binding on such person for all purposes of the plan. The Conference, Board of Pensions, Conference Treasurer and Hearing Committee shall not be under any obligation to search for or ascertain the whereabouts of any such person.
- D. Unclaimed Benefits - If any benefits payable to, or on behalf of, a member are not claimed within a reasonable period of time from the date of entitlement, as determined by the Hearing Committee, and if the member cannot be located at his or her last provided mailing address, such member shall be presumed dead and the post-death benefits, if any, under this plan shall be paid to his or her beneficiary if he or she is then living and can be located. If the member's beneficiary is not then living or cannot be located, or if no beneficiary was effectively named, the member's account shall be forfeited and treated as dividends pursuant to Article VII.
- E. Facility of Payment - Whenever, in the Hearing Committees opinion, a person entitled to receive any payment of a benefit under the plan is under a legal disability or is incapacitated in any way so as to be unable to manage such person's financial affairs, the Hearing Committee may, to the extent permitted by law, make payments directly to the person, to the person's legal representative, or to a relative or friend of the person to be used exclusively for such person's benefit, or apply any such payment for the benefit of the person in such manner as the Hearing Committee deems advisable. Any benefit payment (or installment thereof) made in accordance with the provisions of this shall completely discharge the obligation for making such payment under the plan.
- F. Commingling of Assets - The assets of the Fund may be commingled in a common fund made up of such accounts or in a common fund with other amounts exclusively devoted to church purposes, provided that the part of such fund which equitably belongs to the plan shall be separately accounted for and cannot be used for or diverted to purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of employees and their beneficiaries. The reasonable costs of administering an account may be charged against the account. Such costs may include the reasonable costs of administering a retirement income program of which the account is a part, including costs associated with informing employees and employers of the availability of the program.
- G. Governing Law - This plan shall be administered, and its validity, construction, and all rights hereunder shall be governed by the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, and by the laws of the State of North Carolina to the extent not in conflict with such Book of Discipline. If any provisions of the plan shall be held invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions hereof shall continue to be fully effective.

H. Limitations on Liability - The Conference, Conference Treasurer, Board of Pensions and members of the Hearing Committee shall not be liable to any person or entity for any of their acts carried out hereunder in good faith and based upon the information available at the time.

STEWARDSHIP, COMMISSION ON

As we face the economic challenges of today, we are reminded that Christians do not resort to worry and fear; instead we become better stewards of that which our God has so generously given us. That is the foundation and spirit of the Stewardship Commission.

Our Mission Statement is "To make disciples for Jesus Christ by proclaiming the sovereignty of God, crying out for deliverance from debt, training good stewards, and equipping church leaders to do the same." This is the focus of our annual Stewardship Seminar, where new clergy assemble to receive training, information and support as they begin to lead congregations in making disciples and building sound stewardship ministries. It is also the heartbeat of the ministries that we are encouraging local churches to embrace. In order for a church to have sound stewardship, we must encourage individual stewardship commitments from each of our members and this encouragement begins with empowering the membership with information and resources.

The Stewardship Commission is prepared to assist each local church, pastor and lay leadership with trainings, resources and references that will allow them to become equipped to build sound stewardship ministries at their churches, which include the stewardship of time, resources and financial gifts. Let us move forward, pledged to build stronger stewards and healthier congregations.

Gypsie Murdaugh, Chairperson

TRUSTEES, BOARD OF

The Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference is charged with responsibilities vital to the mission and ministry of the Conference as defined in paragraphs 2512- 2516 of the 2008 Book of Discipline. These include holding legal title and managing Conference property; receiving and holding bequests and donations; receiving and managing closed or abandoned churches and other property; recommending action to the Annual Conference regarding sale, lease or acquisition of property to serve the Conference interests and mission; and intervening to protect Annual Conference interests.

THE UNITED METHODIST BUILDING RELOCATION

Building Project Update

The relocation of the United Methodist Building as approved at the 2008 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference is well underway. The Board of Trustees has been working diligently since June 2008 to begin the programming and design phase of the project. Comments and suggestions were received from all over the annual conference and were used by the design team during this important first step. The Board of Trustees has selected several groups to assist with the project including Grubb & Ellis|Thomas Linderman Graham as the development consultants, HagerSmith Design, PA as the architect and Centurion, Inc., as the construction contractor. The facility will be on Waterfield Ridge Place in Garner and is located just off of Greenfield Parkway at the intersection of Interstate 40 and Highway 70. The design team, with the assistance of our architect HagerSmith Design, PA, has approved the exterior design, interior space plan and preliminary materials and colors for the new building. The building will be positioned at the north end of the lot with the driveway coming in from Waterfield Ridge Place on the south end of the lot. The site plan has been approved and all pertinent permits have been attained to begin site construction. The driveway will be shared with the adjacent property and will include a bridge to cross a small creek on the south side of the property. The site plan includes provisions to retain many of the existing trees and maintaining the natural look of the lot as much as possible.

Work to begin the bridge and clearing for the driveway began in mid-May. A ground breaking ceremony was held on May 29, 2009. The building will be approximately 33,500 square feet overall and will include space for lease to three tenants. The construction site and building permit applications were filed with the Town of Garner in May and the site permit has been approved. Initial site construction should be completed during June 2009 allowing for building construction to begin during July 2009. Building construction permits are under review by the Town of Garner and are anticipated to be approved prior to the expected building construction start date. The design and overall project progress is on schedule with an anticipated building completion date in April 2010.

Building Green

The building design process has included discussions of ways to build that will make the new facility environmentally friendly. Decisions based on these discussions have placed this facility in a good position to earn Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) certification as a green building from the U.S. Green Building Council. Some of the decisions made leading to this position include building positioning on the lot, use of recycled materials and recycling building waste, energy efficient windows, landscape irrigation, and much more. The application for LEED certification will be prepared during the building construction and, upon favorable vote by the US GBC, will be awarded after facility construction has been completed. The NC Conference will be among the first in the conference area to attain this certification and will lead by example in demonstrating careful stewardship of the many blessings given us, including the environment.

Property Update

The 2008 session of the NC Annual Conference approved the sale of the United Methodist Building and the land upon which it sits as well as the adjoining Wade Avenue property holding the apartments owned by Raleigh Townhomes, Inc. The Glenwood Avenue property was sold on August 13, 2008, including the United Methodist Building and the approximate 2.5 acres of land on which it sits. The portion of the United Methodist Building used by the Annual Conference was leased back for up to 18 months while the new building is being constructed. The due diligence period for the Wade Avenue property began just after the closing of the first property and the sale of the second tract was due to close in February 2010.

During this due diligence period on the Raleigh Townhomes property, issues arose and the renegotiated terms of the purchase contract were not beneficial to the NC Conference. The Conference Board of Trustees would not agree to terms that were not favorable to the NC Conference and the purchase contract expired. The result of this is that a listing agreement has been signed and the property is now on the market for sale. The Conference Board of Trustees has been in consultation throughout this ongoing process and voted to give authority to the Executive Committee to proceed with listing the property for sale during a conference call on March 16. The Conference Board of Trustees will consider carefully any offers received through this listing process and will update the Annual Conference as progress is made throughout this process.

CLOSED CHURCHES

- Charity – Goldsboro District – purchase contract pending for sale of property.
- Turkey – Goldsboro District – purchase contract pending for sale of property.
- Walstonburg – Greenville District – parsonage sold and purchase contract pending for sale of church property.
- New Hope – Rocky Mount District – church closing June 30, 2009 – property will be received by Conference Board of Trustees.
- Hoffman – Sanford District – offer accepted for sale of remaining land from Department of Transportation purchase of easement and church building in 2008.

The Board of Trustees continues to receive local church property as they are closed in compliance with the Discipline.

CONFERENCE PARSONAGES AND EPISCOPAL RESIDENCE

The Board of Trustees currently provides four Conference staff positions with housing allowances in lieu of parsonages. Funding available to pay the staff housing allowances is provided through the Conference budget as well as earnings on investments held from previous parsonage sales. Market value of those investments is currently $885,004 as of December 31, 2008.

The Episcopal Residence is maintained by the Board of Trustees and funding provided by the conference apportionments and the Episcopal Fund, which is managed by the General Council on Finance and Administration. The new residence obtained in 2004 still needs minimal maintenance and the Trustees will make future recommendations as needed.

FREDERICK AND CLOSS PEACE WARDLAW BEQUEST

In August of 2002, the Trustees received a bequest from the estate of Frederick and Closs Peace Wardlaw in the form of some fourteen acres with dwelling on the Virginia shoreline of Kerr Lake with the stated preference of providing a retreat or renewal location for clergy of the Conference. With concurrence of the estate trustees in 2003, the property was sold for $500,000 and a new lot in a gated community, Somerset Plantation, near Williamsboro, NC, was purchased. The remaining funds of the sale, $351,437.02 are held for future consideration of an appropriate way to honor Frederick and Closs Peace Wardlaw. These funds are invested with the United Methodist Foundation and have a market value of $304,406 as of December 31, 2008.

PROPERTY INSURANCE

Property insurance for the NC Annual Conference property continues to be insured through the denomination's Property and Casualty Trust

(PACT), a self-insured property insurance captive. In order to facilitate participation in the trust for local churches in North Carolina, a new non-profit insurance agency corporation was formed to provide the insurance administration for the PACT program in North Carolina. That corporation is named North Carolina Conference Property and Casualty Insurance Trust, Inc.

The Book of Discipline provides that one of the responsibilities of local church Trustees is to review insurance annually in order to ensure that the church, its properties and its personnel are properly protected against risks. In evaluating these levels of protection, the Conference Trustees recommend the following types and levels of coverage as guidelines for property and casualty insurance coverage:

- Building and business personal property insurance at full replacement cost,
- General liability coverage at $1,000,000,
- Physical abuse and sexual misconduct liability coverage at $1,000,000,
- Pastoral professional liability coverage at $1,000,000,
- Employee dishonesty and crime coverage at levels adequate to cover assets held by the church – each church needs to evaluate this coverage independently,
- Directors and Officers liability coverage at $1,000,000,
- Umbrella policy coverage at $1,000,000, and
- Workers' Compensation coverage at $1,000,000 for all employees whether or not the church meets the minimum requirements under North Carolina law.

The Trustees are continuing to evaluate options for full insurance participation for all local churches in North Carolina and will continue to advocate for adequate and cost-effective solutions to the special circumstances faced by North Carolina churches due to coastal exposure. Recommendations from the Trustees for insurance options will be brought to local churches throughout the year as PACT plan design changes are made.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Conference Board of Trustees seeks to be faithful stewards of the assets of the North Carolina Conference. Complete reports of the financial activities and assets held by the Conference Board of Trustees are available in the audited financial statements of the Conference. We will continue to manage property of the Conference to the best of our ability in compliance with the Discipline and welcome the suggestions, ideas and input of every person in this Conference. We thank you for your faithful support of the work of the Conference and seek your prayers for the work that is given to us.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS FELLOWSHIP

The purpose of CEF is to nurture, support, challenge, and advocate for persons responsible for working in all areas of Christian spiritual formation or discipleship training, such as Directors of Christian Education, Directors of Children, Youth or Adults, Sunday School leaders and teachers, and Small Group ministry leaders.

Regional networking groups have been established. They include: Sanford, Fayetteville, Rockingham Districts, facilitated by Dorothy Funkhouser, Burlington/Durham Districts, facilitated by Robin Marley, Raleigh/Rocky Mount Districts, facilitated by Helen Champion, and Wilmington District, facilitated by Donna Pinckney. The groups meet at various churches within the regions and discuss topics relevant to Christian Education. We are in the process of developing regional networking groups in the other areas.

The N.C. Chapter continues traditional events such as Book and Resource Sharing in May, and Celebrations/ Installation of Officers at the CEF Christmas Party in December, luncheon at Annual Conference. We hosted a CEF "Day Apart" in November with the theme; "Taking a Closer Look: Transforming Congregations " with Mary Jane Pierce Norton, the Associate General Secretary for Leadership Ministries at the General Board of Discipleship, and a Deacon in the North Carolina Conference.

Several Christian Educators from our Conference attended the National Christian Educators Conference, "Blessed to be a Blessing" in Albuquerque, New Mexico in October. All persons are welcomed to become members of the N.C. Chapter and National Chapter of CEF and help shape the foundation and future of the ministry of Christian Education.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS, REPORT OF BURLINGTON DISTRICT

In the spirit and witness of our Wesleyan tradition, many of the 56 charges of the district continue to live into greater practices of fruitfulness to Christ and his Church. Nine of the 56 were named Acts 2 Congregations at the last Annual Conference. Fifty-three paid 100% Missional Apportionment Giving 2008, yielding a district pay-out of 98.11%. The second Confirmation Retreat at Chestnut Ridge engaged 90 plus confirmands and adult leaders. Carr currently is building, with support from Duke Endowment, a new fellowship hall following "green" guidelines. The Congregational Health Specialists Team with now a part-time employed district director continues to be called upon by local churches for strategic planning and conflict intervention. A district Incubator of 12 clergy and laity, meeting eight hours monthly for a year, for spiritual leadership and learning was begun in January. Hispanic/Latino ministry, following the NCC model of EMBRACE, was begun in July 2008, with a district team working alongside the lay missionary located at Davis Street. The Anathoth Garden at Cedar Grove continues to draw attention and funding (e.g., Kellogg Foundation) from across the country and connection while modeling the local community garden in other locations: Union Grove and Chestnut Ridge Camp and Retreat Center. Union Grove, with Duke Endowment funding, is developing a curriculum for use in Sunday school and worship around "Shared Story." With Union Grove, the district sponsored a story-telling workshop, with renowned story-teller Tracy Radosevic. "Peace Matters," a district gathering at the beginning of Advent, focused on understandings of biblical peace as they relate to community and environment. Bellemont celebrated its 125th Anniversary on November 2. Six clergy attended "Change the World" Conference at Ginghamburg UMC in Ohio. A three-day seminar on Church by Size, led by Doug Anderson of the Rueben Job Leadership Center, attracted approximately 200 lay and clergy for a fuller understanding of unique differences and best practices based on church size. Some district church clusters share fellowship and witness at seasonal worship services and revivals. The district Christmas offering supported the Caswell Parish, MOSAIC Center, and EMBRACE. Two day-long lay speaker ministry trainings a year grow and equip laity for stronger witness and work. One scholarship was presented by the Board of Laity to a person "native" to the district pursuing ministry. The district laity rally, with Rev. Dr. Ben Witherington as guest preacher, included for the first time children ("Lamb Jam"). Third Thursdays, for fellowship, discovery, and worship with older adults at Chestnut Ridge Camp and Retreat Center, is now in its third successful year. "God is good...All the time!"

William H. Gattis, District Superintendent

DURHAM DISTRICT

The Durham District is growing to new strength and vitality as we focus on becoming a district of ever healthier churches in mission for Jesus.

There are growing churches in the Durham District: six of the strongest growing communities are in areas where population growth has either been static or actually declining, proving that a remarkable witness will win hearts and change lives.

The newly forming congregation in southeast Durham/northwestern Cary has taken the name “Abundant Life Church” in order to represent to that growing area of our state the abundant life to be found in Christ that is nowhere else to be found.

The Rev. Ken McLean is giving strong leadership to this initiative.

The congregation of Carr Church donated their property to Shepherd's House Church, an African congregation now at work to evangelize their neighborhood. They were helped in that work by McMannen Church's generous gift in connection to acquiring a church van. The Carr congregation now meets at Pleasant Green Church while discerning God's will for their future.

When Lakewood Church closed, Sanctuary at Lakewood was born. Sanctuary is a congregation with an intentional focus on reaching those often forgotten by traditional churches or people who have excluded themselves from the church, but not from Jesus' embrace; their attendance has doubled in the past 8 months.

This March we are celebrating a Mission Saturation Event, an occasion to have a United Methodist missionary in every church on Sunday, March 29, as well as, allowing us to promote United Methodist missions as a way by which every church in the Durham District is involved in ministries around the world.

Building projects are still on the board at several Durham District congregations, despite the economic downturn. Building a new sanctuary and Sunday School space is continuing at Union Chapel and should be finished at about the time Annual Conference meets. Other building plans are underway at various other churches.

I praise God for all those who work with me and strengthen me in my ministry in the Durham District. It is a joy to be among the great people of the Durham District and I am thankful for this opportunity to serve them and our Lord.

H. Gray Southern, District Superintendent

ELIZABETH CITY DISTRICT

There are stories of the abundant faithfulness of God and the people of God in the Elizabeth City District that should be told:

The story of the congregation that, at Charge Conference, celebrated its first Vacation Bible School in forty years – reporting that the lives of over thirty children were touched!

The story of the congregation that has grown, under the leadership of a local pastor, from an average worship attendance of 18 to 60 in three years. When asked by the Superintendent how, the response was “we've become a praying church.”

The story of how the Fairhaven-Clark's Bethel Charge, determined to renew itself in mission and ministry at Rodanthe, built and consecrated a new parsonage. Or of Wesley Memorial, in Columbia, whose new educational building/fellowship hall is testimony to its intent to thrive in a community in decline. Or of Ocracoke Church, seeking to restore a community landmark, the Rec Hall. Or of Moyock Church and its renovated playground, of Mount Olivet Church working to make its facilities open to all by becoming handicapped accessible, of Little Grove on the Hatteras Charge, renovating its sanctuary and fellowship hall, of Camden Church and its project of renovation of sanctuary and fellowship hall.

The story of the church going through a difficult time of testing that decided to view itself as “new church start” and find hope for future.

The story of New Hope Church, whose congregation burst into applause when it was announced in worship that the church had been accepted as a site for Food Bank distribution. Or of the first international mission team sponsored by Mount Hermon Church in Creswell. Or of mission teams from Duck, Bethany in Wanchese, and a host of other churches to the Gulf Coast. Or of the continuing success of the Mobile Food Pantry. All stories of growing missional energy among the churches of the district.

The story of the district's extravagant generosity in paying 97.4% of its conference apportionments in 2008. The story of the District Council on Ministries reorganizing itself into teams around the Four Areas of Focus to direct and envision ministry for the years ahead. The story of strong and faithful lay leadership, witnessed to by large turn-outs at the Lay Rally and annual training workshops.

The stories of heritage and faithfulness as milestone anniversaries have been celebrated: 200 years of witness by the Methodist movement at Edenton and New Hope, 150 in Kitty Hawk. The stories and hope of the future witnessed to by over 250 youth at the annual Youth Beach Retreat, by a successful, first time District Confirmation Event, and by a spring Children's and Youth Ministry Workshop around the theme “We All Need the Lord.”

The stories continue, stories of the abundant faithfulness of God and the people of God in the Elizabeth City District. It is my great honor and privilege to be the story-teller! Grace and peace.

GOLDSBORO DISTRICT

The sixty-nine congregations of the Goldsboro District have continued to press toward the goal of the high calling of God in Jesus Christ our Lord. Specifically this ministry has manifested itself in many different forms.

Although it was difficult to say good-bye to the one congregation that closed (Turkey UMC), this sorrow was tempered by the joy at beginning three new church launches in the rapidly growing area around Clayton, NC. Greater Heights UMC continues in its third year under the leadership of the Rev. Matt Evans. Trinity UMC under the leadership of the Rev. David Wehrle is beginning to gain traction in the Cleveland School area. Similarly, Showers of Blessing UMC, led by Gail Myers, seeks to make its impact felt in the African-American community.

There is a continued focus on meeting for inspiration rather than information. The superintendent has extended his efforts to reduce the number of unnecessary district meetings, and to transform the meetings that remain into a time of worship, inspiration and encouragement. Monthly meetings of the District Leadership Team are now being held by conference call. One especially inspiration district meeting was held at the Methodist Children's Home facility near the O'Berry Center. Officials from the Children's Home and the Goldsboro District agreed to make "1 K for 1 Kid" a priority for 2009. Information technology is used more widely than ever, and all of the district files have now been digitized and stored on the conference server.

Congregations facing special challenges have seen an increase in coaching sessions provided by the district to move them back to health. Similar coaching arrangements have been made for pastors who experience a need for growth. The new year of 2009 began with three separate seminars designed to help local congregations become or stay healthy. The first seminar, led by the superintendent, was offered at three different locations, and offered instruction in visioning and goal setting for local congregations. In February a team led by the Rev. Dr. Tim Reaves of the Bladen Charge, brought lay persons to speak with the laity of the Goldsboro District about how congregational revitalization can occur even in rural contexts. In March an educational event designed and executed by the Academy for Spiritual Formation brought Ken Garfield of Charlotte to instruct church leaders on ways to communicate to their specific communities. Coupled with the many other learning opportunities offered by conference boards, agencies, and fellowships, there was ample information available to any congregation interested in learning techniques to help them become more effective.

Continuing our emphasis on healthy congregations and healthy pastors is more than a metaphor. Throughout 2008 the pastors of the Goldsboro District participated in a health survey conducted by Westat for the Duke Divinity School/Duke Endowment Clergy Health Initiative in which over 95% of pastors contacted responded. Partly as a result of this effort, the Goldsboro District was chosen to be the target district for a pilot project on clergy health.

Perhaps one of the most exciting developments is the creation of an Incubator group modeled after the small group meeting pioneered by John Wesley. In a year-long series of sessions with Craig Robertson of Louisville, KY, the cabinet learned the techniques of forming and sustaining this primary accountability group, as a tool through which to bring God's presence into the district. Beginning on March 1, 2009 the superintendent began meeting with an Incubator group that will seek to replicate the experience of the cabinet.

In all of these endeavors, it has been the goal not for the district to become the delivery point for ministry. Rather, the district attempts to equip the local congregation as the delivery point for the proclamation of the gospel and the demonstration of Christ's love in each specific community context. In effectively executing this task, may local churches be transformed into communities that seek to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

NEW BERN DISTRICT

"Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened." – Matthew 7:7-8

"Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." – Matthew 28:19-20

Eleven more churches had professions of faith in 2008 than in 2007! Our churches have been asking, seeking, and knocking in order to make new disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. As they have embraced the Great Commandment and lived the Great Commission, God has blessed so many of our churches.

In August of 2008, we broke ground for a new sanctuary at Northwoods UMC in Jacksonville. It is now almost complete. Churches who identified early in the year that the paying of apportionments would take God's hand in the life of their church witnessed God's gracious and generous presence in tangible ways.

In September we had a wonderful "Vision Event" at Garber UMC in New Bern with over 400 persons participating in God's vision for our churches to be healthy. Our youth gathered at Camp Don Lee in October to support "Stop Hunger Now" and prepared thousands of meals as well as enjoyed a full day of fellowship and fun. Even our clergy families Christmas Party in December was centered around the theme of fun as a Christian comedian ushered in the joy of Christmas into every heart.

The Fellowship Hall was full of persons in February of 2009 who chose to be trained in order to lead Disciple Bible Study in their churches. Attendance was up this year for our District Lay Rally. Some of our young persons received full scholarships to attend Global Vision and we awarded two ministerial scholarships as well as sent monies to a church in Galveston, Texas seeking to rebuild after Hurricane Ike.

Renovations and new facilities are being planned to accommodate growth within some of our churches and a new spirit is evident at other places. Our people have faithfully asked and God is providing the fruits of His kingdom in the New Bern District. We eagerly await what God is yet to do among us.

Dennis M. Goodwin, District Superintendent

WILMINGTON DISTRICT

The co-laborers in Christ of the Wilmington District, laity and clergy together, continue to live out our commitment to "making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world." Thirty of our congregations received persons on profession of faith. We will strive forward until every congregation has at least one profession each year! Towards that goal, the Wilmington and New Bern Districts held a joint pastor's conference on Faith Sharing in February. The 7th Annual Camp Meeting hosted guest evangelist Leonard Sweet, who also taught a continuing education event entitled, "The Divine Design for Life." Fan the Flame, a small membership revitalization event, was hosted by Windsor UMC and the Bladen Charge. We are committed to sharing the life-giving and transforming good news of Jesus Christ.

Missions remain a focus of this District. Sixty-two of our congregations paid 100% of their missional giving and the District paid almost 96% percent of our share. The 1 K for 1 Kid program for the Methodist Home for Children remains a priority in 2008. The Epicurean Evening for the MHC was an overwhelming success. WARM continues to guide disciples into serving through rebuilding/repairing homes in the District and across the country. Teams from Mississippi and Pennsylvania were hosted here to work through WARM. A Stop Hunger Now project of UNCW was supported by Methodists from around the area. A partnership between the Duke Endowment, Oleander UMC, the District, and a private computer business opened a new computer learning center with 12 work stations teaching Spanish and English and offering computer classes to laity and clergy from around the District. Duke Endowment grants were received for Hispanic Ministry and the development of Hispanic Health Ministries. A significant grant was received for a partnership between the Wilmington District and Duke Partners in Caring to offer training and coaching for teens regarding HIV Aids and Substance Abuse. Other district churches are doing – community gardens, Christmas Eve meals for the homeless, workteams to everywhere and more. One smaller congregation even provided 1500 shoeboxes for Operation Christmas Child.

The District UMM hosted "Success that Matters," a men's weekend by Man in the Mirror with approximately 50 participants. The District UMW increased their number of local units in 2008 and hosted five sub-district meetings, a Spiritual Day Apart, participated in Stop Hunger Now events, Mission Studies, Mother Child retreat, mission service giving and projects, and all Conference UMW events. The District UMY continues to work to reach youth and youth persons and come together for fellowship and service.

Nineteen congregations in the District were recognized in 2008 as Acts 2 congregations and we are committed to each congregation maturing and growing so that Christ is being lifted up, God glorified, disciples made, and the world transformed.

LAKE JUNALUSKA ASSEMBLY

Two thousand and eight (2008) has been filled with events that I believe have the possibility of being direction-changing for Lake Junaluska. Added to all the external and internal changes within the United Methodist Church and Lake Junaluska have been the financial challenges of a weakening economy.

The 2008 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference set a new direction for the entire jurisdiction. It called for Lake Junaluska to be one of only three agencies and did away with the Administrative Council that had been Lake Junaluska's governing board. Along with looking at the new future of Lake Junaluska differently, it also set us in the direction of being more financially self-sufficient.

The new Board of Directors afforded Lake Junaluska the opportunity to have persons who have a deep abiding commitment to the ministry of Lake Junaluska as board members. As we moved away from the Administrative Council, which was a broad and representative board for the entire jurisdiction, we now can see a future with a smaller board which can take a well-defined vision and mission and build a stronger Lake Junaluska Assembly.

These changes offer, for the first time, the possibility of living and working as one organization. Lake Junaluska can be an agency that provides Christian hospitality with its campus, housing, services, etc., along with disciple-making and equipping ministries. This big change makes it possible to alleviate our age-old problems of competition between the conference center and ministry.

Building this new organization has required us to look closely at our ministry focus. Our focused ministry will be built around offering our events based on research that meets the identified needs of the church and individuals. To a larger degree, these ministry offerings will need to be self-supporting, thus requiring us to be more realistic in our financial charges to participants.

All of these changes and challenges have given us the opportunity to take an in-depth look at our financial needs and budgeting processes. As we have prepared to move toward 2013 and started to build a business plan, we focused on the 2009 budget process to inform us. We have looked closely at every area from ministry to housekeeping to determine a realistic understanding of our real costs.

In 2008 we celebrate an entire year of using the new Bethea Welcome Center. The building is being seen as a tipping point for the Lake Junaluska campus. It has inspired us to look closely at our hospitality needs, our facilities as its design has challenged us to have a more architecturally coordinated campus, as we plan for buildings in the future. The new golf course clubhouse that opened in the spring is a wonderful example of this new architectural influence.

There are many staff persons who make the ministry of Lake Junaluska possible. I am privileged to work with all of them and share a brief synopsis of the work of the executive staff.

The Conference and Retreat Center struggled in 2008 under the escalating price increases of petroleum, surcharges for products, and uncertain economic times. We were able to provide an air-conditioned Stuart Auditorium which not only pleased our guests but established the fact that we can successfully air condition Stuart as we build into the future. This year considerable progress has been made upgrading our facilities at the west end, Terrace Hotel, and Lambuth Inn. We have been challenged in providing enough staff to offer guests a quality experience because of budget constraints. Our exit evaluations from guests still remain high at 93 percent willing to return/willing to recommend.

We're implementing a new training program for our staff built around the "delivery of a quality Junaluska Experience to every guest". This program will be provided under the Workplace Discipleship Program. It will include orientation for all new staff and existing staff around providing Christian hospitality in every job on the Lake Junaluska campus.

The Ministry Event Development Department has made progress establishing a new direction and focus that totally incorporates ministry into the Lake Junaluska Conference and Retreat Center. Working with the Marketing Department and the Business Office, the ministry area is using new marketing processes with the Lake Junaluska ministry events. We are proud of the partnership with Alban Institute and are pursuing partnerships and initiatives such as "Chautauqua Events" and establishing the Center for Racial Ethnic Ministries.

The Marketing and Communications Office has made significant progress this year. We have generated 180 stories on Lake Junaluska; had a significant increase in visits to our website; have begun on-line reservations for lodging rooms; and continued our e-newsletters. The conference coordinators and sales staff are giving concerted efforts to reaching as many persons as possible who will use the facilities and services of Lake Junaluska.

The Development Office continues its work with capital needs and the annual fund. We have developed a strategy that will move our annual fund to the next level with the Pacesetters of Lake Junaluska Program. The goal is to increase our donor giving to the operating budget. We continue to solicit gifts for the Jones Cafeteria improvements.

Residential Services has progressed in 2008. We have had many accomplishments and challenges since moving under the North Carolina Utility Commission, which now sets our water, sewer, and fire protection rates. We have moved to a new security firm. We are pleased with the support of Lake Junaluska residents to the ministry of Lake Junaluska and appreciate all their financial and volunteer support.

Yes, 2008 has been a good and challenging year! As God continues to bless us as we strive to offer our unique ministry to The Church we appreciate your prayers and support.

RETIREE HEALTH BENEFITS, TASKS FORCE ON

The Task Force on Retiree Benefits is a task force that Bishop Gwinn asked the Board of Pensions and the Insurance Committee to form three years ago to begin to address the issues facing our local congregations of increasing costs for retiree benefits. The Task Force reported last year that it has been making substantial progress at addressing the large and troubling situation our conference faces in supporting health care benefits for our retired clergy, and in preparing to provide the same type of help in the coming years. The Task Force was asked to devise ways to start containing our health care liability since currently clergy benefits take about 30% of our annual conference budget.

Current Financial Situation

In 2009, we are raising 2.7 million dollars through the conference budget to fund this responsibility. That amount has been growing sharply across the past several years even though, this year, it is not recommended that the amount increase. Actuarial projections tell us that we will usually have to raise the amount we give to these costs however, the number of our retirees is increasing and, as we all know, health care costs are rising.

Last year, at the 2008 annual conference, our Task Force made some recommendations that the conference approved. Those were wise actions as they lowered our accumulated responsibility to approximately $35,000,000, lowering our responsibility by over $11 million. To say “accumulated” liability means that if we suddenly stopped both the roll of time and any future service to the church and simply paid the projected health care costs for all clergy and their families currently eligible in our plan that we would need $35,000,000 to pay the total bill.

While that is a staggering sum there are several things to remember. First, we are currently paying this year’s portion of that responsibility and are planning to fund next year’s. The Insurance Committee has made some actuarial gains that we intend to devote to funding this cost. But, unless we alter our current approach, we will see the annual amount of money we have to budget for retiree health care costs rise to as much as $5.6 million dollars by 2037. That figure is in terms of today’s dollars.

Our liability is a constantly shifting target. Unlike our pension liability for all those clergy and their families who served prior to 1982, the pool of people contributing to the liability is always changing. The goal of our work is to contain the costs, not to pay for them. We have to talk about managing this responsibility, as our nation and our conference develop new ways of dealing with these realities.

The actions we took at conference last year were a good example of how we will have to move forward in managing these costs. We put in place the requirement that to have coverage in retirement, future clergy will have to have 180 months in our health care plan prior to retirement to obtain retirement benefits. Our clergy continue to have to be enrolled in our plan for the five years immediately preceding retirement in order to receive benefits. In addition, we carefully redefined spousal and dependent coverage. We also asked our current retirees to begin assuming a share of the deductible costs just as actively serving clergy are required to do and clergy retiring before the age of Medicare eligibility should help fund their health care coverage, just as private industry does.

Finally, we grandparented in currently serving clergy so as not to make these changes overly difficult for anyone and we suspended any action on mandatory funding of health care for our churches. We are extremely aware of all the difficulties facing churches in these times and do not want to see the economic pressures caused by the costs of health insurance to singlehandedly overwhelm anyone.

Further Steps

The Task Force also said that we would be back with further recommendations to continue to fund this liability and to review our situation. We must remember, going forward, that all these plans are built on assumptions. That means that since we are predicting medical costs, numbers of participants, medical trends, as well as, governmental actions (or inaction) in the arena of health care, all our numbers have to be understood as describing most likely scenarios. It would be highly irresponsible not to plan and we do have the God-given ability to analyze our situation and what we observe around us. It would be foolish to begin to build firm plans as to specific years or amounts of money that we might use 10 or 15 years in the future. What we can do is make some guiding statements and point to what the Task Force thinks of an almost inevitable outcome.

Costs and Numbers

We assume that costs will continue to rise, although medical trends have not been rising as fast as some forecasts would have predicted. We also predict that our numbers of retirees will continue to increase. We have said before that this is a reality that we will have to constantly manage and that future retirees should plan on assuming more of their health care costs themselves. That assumption is only justifiable as clergy retirement income is predicted to grow based on absolute dollars, in the years ahead, even given the recent economic troubles. We also assume that Medicare will continue to exist in some form though plainly we do not know—nor do we hear anyone willing to predict—what retiree or general health care insurance will look like far into the future, given the various discussions now before our government and society as a whole.

Continued Funding

We do know, however, that we will have to continue to fund this responsibility. Currently, all retiree and clergy benefits make up about 30% of the conference budget. We are very concerned about that reality and know that the amounts cannot continue to grow larger. In 1991 we adopted a plan to pay for pensions for those clergy with service prior to 1982. General Church legislation, and federal requirements, mandate that we must have that responsibility fully funded for accumulated liability by 2021. We have called the apportionment that we are using to fund that accumulated responsibility the “past service liability” line item. We have long enjoyed the hope that eventually—say in ten years or so from now—that apportionment would simply “go away” and we would fund the responsibility we will have to those then serving and/or retired who have pre-1982 pension credit from current income. That plan is working; thanks be to God!

However, it appears now we are not likely to be able to someday soon eliminate the past service liability apportionment. It is far more likely that we will have to redirect it to paying for retiree health benefits. Current projections would have us needing to continue this apportionment at its current level—or perhaps a lower one—for several years before our health care liabilities become sustainable without such an apportionment.

Without the infusion of additional monies we will not be able to sustain our current retiree health care coverage for more than the next several years. How long the apportionment will have to be continued and in what amount—the same or a lower level—are variables impossible to reasonably predict at this time. It is reasonable to hope, however, that we will be able in ten or so years, when the pension liability is satisfied, to redirect the apportionment to health care at a lower level than we currently set it and to see that apportionment probably continuing for another ten or so years.

No Action at This Time

This is simply a report about future actions that we are beginning to discern that the annual conference will have to make in the future, perhaps as far down the road as a decade. There is no action called for at this time. This report is troubling because of the size of our responsibility that has grown in the last two decades. We are like the rest of our society in that regard. Many people find this summary intimidating given the current economic climate where everyone is understandably worried and somewhat overwhelmed.

However, it is also a good report in that we are developing a plan to manage our responsibility long-term. We have made progress. We have lowered our liability by our own actions of last year. And this plan calls for no new action or money on our part, just sustaining what we have done and have committed to doing already. This plan requires us to continue to sustain our conference budget and our apportionments so as to allow all of our ministries, new things as well as retirement ministries, to continue.

This news continues the discussions we have been having for the past several years, insuring the vitality both of our retiree health plan and our conference for years to come. They maximize the benefits the conference can offer while simultaneously insuring the financial strength of the conference to support these and other ministries.

Respectfully submitted,

H. Gray Southern, Chair, Task Force on Retiree Benefits

INSTITUTIONAL RELATIONS, TASKS FORCE ON

In November, 2007, Bishop Gwinn appointed a task force chaired by Dr. Bill Simpson, the purpose of which was to explore and devise a plan to address how the Annual Conference and its churches can support our institutions related by faith to the Conference, and how the institutions can function as full partners with the Conference. Members of the task force included Bishop Gwinn, Bill Simpson, Tom Greener, Beth Norris, Emily Innes, Ruth Woods, Christine Dodson, Wilson Hayman, Carl Frazier, Reginald Ponder, Michael Clyburn, Charles Smith, David Clift and Gray Southern.

This Task Force has met throughout the past Conference year and has taken the following actions:

- (1) A letter was prepared for response by all college presidents, executives of the other institutions and chairs of board of directors and/or trustees. The letter how they perceived the relationship of their institution to the North Carolina Conference. It further asked how the churches of the Conference could support them in their ministry.

- (2) Some additions to the composition of the Task Force have been requested and Bishop Gwinn has granted these. In particular, with the change in the president of Louisburg College, the Task Force requested that Dr. Mark LaBranche, the new president of Louisburg College, be added to the membership. Dr. LaBranche comes from Huntingdon College, Montgomery, Alabama, with a legacy of strong church relation building.
- (3) The Task Force committed to reporting to the 2009 Session of the North Carolina Conference on its work with a compilation of its findings and recommendations.

The Task Force looks forward to making a detailed report to be distributed to members of the Annual Conference at the 2009 session. We covet your prayers and support in the work we seek to do on behalf of the Conference and the Institutions.

William C. Simpson, Jr., Chairperson

NEW CHURCH STARTS, TASKS FORCE ON

The 2007 Annual Conference passed the following resolution:

Paul Dunham, Wellspring (WI), moved that "the Bishop appoint a task force to include representatives from Office of Congregational Development, Board of Trustees, Board of Missions and other participants as the Bishop determines to address capital concerns and connectional issues which directly impact the success or failure of new church starts so that each new church and new church start pastors understand that they are not alone, are fully supported, and equipped to succeed."

In August, 2008, the Task Force was organized by Bishop Gwinn and the Reverend Tim Russell, Assistant to the Bishop and Director of Ministerial Relations. Those appointed to this task force are: Rev. Gary Allred, chair (RA), Rev. Johnny Branch (GR); Rev. Paul Dunham (GR); Rev. Jo Elaine Harris (RA); Rev. Lamont Hemminger (NB); Rev. Greg Jenks (RA); Rev. Tim Russell; Rev. Linda Taylor (WI). Subsequently, Dr. Irene Brownlee (Acting Director of Congregational Development) was asked to join us by the chair. Mrs. Nancy Koontz (Admin. Asst. to the Office of Congregational Development) also participated.

The Task Force met on November 25, 2008, with all of the above in attendance except Rev. Jenks who was excused due to out of state commitments for ZOE Ministry.

The consensus of the Task Force is that there is a need for a new approach to new church starts in our conference. This new approach should have as its foundation an interactive paradigm whereby communication among new church pastors, sponsoring mother churches, district superintendents, area churches, and the Office of Congregational Development is enhanced. The Task Force determined that a report with concrete recommendations which reflects this new approach be forwarded to the Annual Conference. Rev. Allred, Rev. Harris, and Dr. Brownlee were assigned the responsibility of drafting this report.

The recommendations of the New Church Starts Task Force are as follows:

- We recommend that the preferred means of planting a new church utilizes a sponsoring or mothering congregation model. The mothering congregation will commit to support the new church with human and financial resources. This support would include a period of long range visioning and planning between the sponsoring congregation and the new church. There should be a clear, written covenantal agreement between the sponsoring congregation and the new church pastor (and other representatives of the new church were applicable). This covenant should include a list of what resources (human, financial, and material) will be shared and what will be the means of sharing. We further recommend that consideration be given to the new church pastor being actively involved in the life and ministry of the sponsoring congregation for a minimum of six months prior to the launching of the new church.

We recommend that a physical location for initial meetings of the new church be secured before the appointment is made. At minimum, an investigation of options of such location be made and shared with the new church pastor.

- We recommend that a comprehensive and detailed "resource list" in the form of a checklist/notebook be given to each new church pastor when the appointment is made. The checklist/notebook will be compiled by The Office of Congregational Development, in consultation with others as appropriate. The notebook would include vital and helpful information to assist the new church pastor in the launch of a new congregation (i.e. check list and timetable of important tasks in the first six months, first year, etc.; available sources of funds and other forms of conference support; places to secure office equipment, sound system and equipment, paper supplies; reputable vendors with an estimate of costs/fees). The Arkansas Conference has prepared a notebook titled "The United Methodist Manual for New Church Development" with 440+ pages which can be used as a resource.
- We recommend that the new church pastor must have an initial goal of instilling a "mission mindedness" in the new congregation.
- We recommend that when a new church is planned the District Superintendent meet with and inform the area congregations before the announcement of a new church launch and the appointment of a pastor.

- We recommend the following encouragement to the District Board of Trustees. When funds are realized from the closure of churches, we strongly encourage those funds to be allocated to the Congregational Development Fund, Inc. for the purchase of land for new churches.
- We recommend that the Conference begin to develop a list of potential sponsoring “mother” churches as well as a list of potential coaches/mentors for new church pastors.

These recommendations will be shared with the Office of the Bishop, The Office of Congregational Development, The Board of Missions, and the Board of Trustees. The Task Force will meet again following the 2009 Annual Conference Session and before October 1st to evaluate and report on progress made on the above stated recommendations. Furthermore, this report will be shared with the future Director of Congregational Development.

Respectfully submitted to God's glory,

Gary E. Allred, Chairperson

UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

“Spirit led, Renewing the Church
For the Mission of Jesus Christ in the World!”

www.united.edu

What Would Jesus Do with a United Methodist seminary? We think Jesus would recruit faithful disciples and educate them with the best mentors and sources, starting with the Bible, and shape them to lead a life-changing mission that would turn the world upside down! The disciples would learn to embody a renewed Church led by the Spirit and unafraid to live out God's holy purposes!

United has itself been renewed by the Spirit for the mission of Jesus Christ in the world, and we invite your prayers and participation in this renewal and this purpose! The seminary been serving Christ and the Church for 138 years, but we have recently taken steps to update our offerings:

- A recently revised 78 hour Master of Divinity curriculum!
- A growing number of online and blended courses!
- New Doctor of Ministry degree focus groups and mentors!
- Deep learning opportunities for clergy and laity!
- Emphases in Church Renewal, African American Ministry Studies, Pastoral Care and Liturgical Ministries!
- Appreciative theological reflection on the central doctrines and beliefs of the Christian faith!
- Spiritual formation in a variety of cultural contexts, including international communities!
- A technologically advanced, fully accessible, state-of-the art campus!
- A youthful, diverse, widely published faculty committed to the Christian faith!
- Friendly and helpful staff and students!
- Many new scholarship offerings!

Enrollment at United is growing steadily and we invite you to call, visit or sign up for a class that meets your needs!

RESOLUTIONS

Resolution in Favor of Tobacco-Free Environments

WHEREAS, tobacco is the number one preventable cause of death in the United States, killing more people than AIDS, car crashes, illegal drug use, alcohol, and murders combined. Each year 11,900 adults in North Carolina die from their own smoking and 1,200 Americans lose their life every day to tobacco use; and

WHEREAS, smoking causes North Carolina alone more than $5.7 billion annually in health care costs and lost productivity, and cigarette butts, whose filters are made of plastic and not biodegradable, are the number one most littered item, adversely affecting the environment;

WHEREAS, addiction to smoking is higher than the addiction rates for marijuana, alcohol, or cocaine, and for 90 percent of all adult smokers begins at or before the age of 18. Each day more than 2,000 children under 18 become new regular, daily smokers;

WHEREAS, exposure to environmental tobacco smoke risks the life and health of non-smokers as well as smokers. The American Heart Association says second-hand smoke causes 40,000 heart-related deaths each year, and second hand-smoke has been definitely linked to heart and lung diseases, cancer, complications of diabetes, higher risks of pneumonia and bronchitis, worsened effects of asthma, and Sudden Infant Death Syndrome; and

WHEREAS, there is no safe amount of environmental tobacco smoke, nor are there viable ways to protect non-smokers from the effects of its presence. Separate “no smoking” sections, air filters, and opened windows are not effective in limiting the danger of second-hand smoke to those who choose to smoke; and

WHEREAS, prohibiting all smoking in public spaces has proven to be the only effective way to eliminate or reduce the risks from second-hand tobacco smoke;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the North Carolina Annual Conference commends the North Carolina General Assembly and the Governor for adopting legislation in May making most bars and restaurants tobacco-free environments, building upon previous legislation making most governmental spaces tobacco-free; and

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED, that the North Carolina Annual Conference encourages all our United Methodist Churches to establish a tobacco-free environment and encourage our members to make their homes and cars smoke-free for the health of themselves and their families; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that copies of this resolution be sent to all members of the General Assembly, the governor, and the media.

Adopted by the NC Annual Conference, June 13, 2009

A Call to Action by United Methodist Annual Conferences: The Priority of Health and Wellbeing

Preamble

Access to quality affordable health care has reached crisis proportions in the world. Impacting the wellbeing of God’s children – of all ages, everywhere, but especially the most vulnerable – the poor, the children and the aged.

Biblical and Theological Imperatives

Concern for health and health care has been central to the Jewish and Christian faiths from their beginnings. The Hebrew Scriptures address issues of sickness (Exodus 23:25) and healing (Jeremiah 33:6). The actions required to achieve these goals involve both personal (Exodus 24:3; 1 Corinthians 9:24-27) and social (Ezekiel 34:4) responsibility. The Gospels report the ministry of healing of Jesus Christ, for whom healing, like salvation, was an expression of deliverance from sin and death. Jesus’ message emphasizes health as the will of God and a sign of the presence of God’s kingdom (Matthew 10:7-8), so that humans are responsible to seek and accept God’s gift of good health. St. Paul, in turn, identifies “the powers and principalities of this present darkness” (Ephesians 6:12) as a source of much that is ill in this world, and encourages Christians to side with God against these powers. In all these times, the provision of health care has been an expression of the duty of hospitality (Matthew 25:36). Through the ages the Christian Church has expressed this duty through personal deeds of service, and the creation of healing institutions.

The United Methodist Church through its Social Principles (§162T) has expressed its commitment to health care for all. John Wesley was always deeply concerned about health care, providing medical services at no cost to the poor in London and emphasizing preventive care. The first Methodist Social Creed (adopted in 1908) urged working conditions to safeguard the health of workers and community. Through its many hospitals and health-care facilities around the world, as well as public-policy advocacy for health, the United Methodist Church continues to declare its commitment to quality and affordable health care as a right of all people. (UMR 113)

Defining the Problem

Today, health care is a major issue globally for the world’s population. Key indicators of child mortality, poverty, environmental degradation, maternal health, the spread of communicable diseases and access to medicine constitute 6 of 8 United Nations Millennium Goals and tell of a world that is sickening to too many and brings the end of life too soon.

In the United States, the number of persons without access to health insurance is 47 million and regrettably continuing to grow; those who do have such access face a health care delivery system of increasing cost and diminishing quality. Regardless of health care access, people in the United States live in a culture that does not sufficiently recognize the health impact of environmental degradation.

In the United States, the number of people who were without health insurance for some period of time in 2003 and 2004 rose to 85.5 million people, an increase of 12.7 per cent over the years 1999-2000. Rising costs for health care have made health care both less comprehensive for those who can afford it, as well as unreachable or substandard for those who are in poverty.

The United Methodist Church in the United States provides health care insurance through its General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits to over 24,000 persons. An additional number of United Methodist clergy and lay employees are provided health insurance by Annual Conferences through other agencies. Rising health care costs divert critical United Methodist resources from ministry and have caused annual conferences to contemplate re-ordering ministry in large part due to these rising costs. Those insured by the United Methodist Church are “older, sicker, and fatter than the U. S. population as a whole.” The leading causes of death in the United States – heart disease, stroke, cancer, and unintentional injuries – all are impacted by personal behavior, yet impact our covenant to take care of each other. Unchecked, rising health care costs, will impact the financial viability of the United Methodist Church as a whole.

In the United States, increasing health care costs are causing increasing numbers of employers to abandon provision of health care services, increasing the number of uninsured. When employers find their products less competitive after paying for health care costs, these costs threaten the economy and international competitiveness of the United States.

In North Carolina, a study reported by the N.C. Institute of Medicine and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, released in March 2009, says the ranks of the uninsured in our state have grown at the fastest rate in the nation since 2007.

This study reflects that one in three residents under the age of 65 in the state of North Carolina have no health care insurance coverage. In the past two years 2.8 million North Carolinians have lacked basic health insurance coverage. The bulk of these uninsured, nearly 80 percent, came from working class families (which are defined as those in which at least one person has a job). More than 55 percent were families with incomes below $42,400 and 23.4 percent were individuals and families with incomes at or below $84,800. Health Insurance coverage, in North Carolina, directly correlates to unemployment statistics. Where insurance coverage is attained through one’s employer, the combination of the rising costs of coverage and the weak economy have forced many employers to cut their health insurance programs. Additionally, when workers lose their employment, they in turn lose their company paid health insurance benefits. (Incidentally our state’s unemployment rate reached 9.7% in January of 2009, the highest it has been since March of 1983 when it was 10%). (source: Charlotte Business Journal April 7, 2009)

THE CALL TO ACTION

In the face of this crisis, the United Methodist General Conference in 2004 approved or re-approved over 30 resolutions dealing with a range of health care topics. These resolutions state that health care is a right, the current system is broken, and changes need to be made.

The North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church is similarly impelled to act in the midst of this crisis. Therefore:

1. We challenge our members to make an individual commitment to live healthier lives and work toward health care for all, and we encourage our clergy and lay employees to model health and well-being for our local church members.
2. We call upon our congregations to conduct Health Care Justice Sabbaths on a weekend of their choosing, in which the theological, political, economic and medical issues involved in health care can be raised in sermons and discussions, and a range of health care related works of mercy, from blood pressure screenings to blood drives, can benefit the community.
3. We call upon United Methodist Theological Seminaries to undertake theological work to increase understanding of what, in the area of health, individual human beings should expect from themselves, should be able to expect from others, and can securely expect from God, and to make the results of this work available to the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Orders of Elders and Deacons in our Annual Conference.
4. We call upon the General Agencies of the United Methodist Church to support our Annual Conference efforts in our communities, and the efforts of other appropriate agencies and organizations, by discussing and coordinating their respective concerns in the area of health care, such as church-sponsored health care services, health benefits for United Methodist clergy and lay employees, health care chaplaincies, and health wellness programs as a spiritual and moral discipline, and to employ United Methodist resources and communications capabilities to promote both personal action and social change toward health and wholeness.

5. We call upon the North Carolina State Legislature to introduce and pass legislation to address health care for all in North Carolina. We anticipate and support that a variety of regional approaches may result, and that this will provide an experience base that can be replicated in other regions as well as the country as a whole.
6. We call upon the United States Congress to introduce and pass legislation which will move us to universal health care, consistent with UMC Resolutions, and to the extent this cannot be immediately achieved, to introduce and pass legislation which will move us toward this goal in increments, such as effective means of providing health care coverage toward seniors, toward the poor, toward those who are employed but cannot access coverage, and toward children; and to support state-level initiatives toward expanding health care coverage.
7. We call upon the United Nations, its constituent agencies, such as the World Health Organization and World Trade Organization, and member nations, to determine actions that will address the United Nations Millennium Goals and increase the quantity of health care services, particularly preventive and village-based health care services, throughout the world.

Scripture Notes (NRSV)

Exodus 23:25. Included in God's covenant promise is that God will bless Israel's bread and water and "take your sickness from among you."

Jeremiah 33:6. Included in God's promise to Jeremiah concerning Judah: "I am going to bring it recovery and healing; I will heal them and reveal to them abundance of prosperity and security."

Exodus 24:3. After Moses tells the people all the words of the Lord, the people assure with one voice, "all the words that the Lord has spoken we will do."

I Corinthians 9:24-27. Paul uses the analogy of a race to suggest that people must run in such a way that they win, and "punish my body and enslave it" to do so.

Ezekiel 34:4. On behalf of God, Ezekiel denounces the leaders of Israel: "You have not strengthened the weak, you have not healed the sick, you have not bound up the injured, you have not brought back the strayed, you have not sought the lost, but with force and weakness you have ruled them."

Matthew 10:7-8. Jesus tells the disciples to announce that the Kingdom of God has come near, and to make this tangible by curing the sick, raising the dead, cleansing the lepers, and casting out demons.

Ephesians 6:12. Paul identifies the focus of our struggle: "For our struggle is not against enemies of blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places."

Matthew 25:36. In the parable of the great judgment, the king will say "I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me," indicating that when these acts are done to "one of the least of these," they were done to the king himself.

Resolution 3 – Evaluate and Overhaul the Criminal Justice System, National and State

WHEREAS, Senator Jim Webb introduced the "National Criminal Justice Commission Act of 2009" in the U.S. Senate, which is legislation creating a blue-ribbon commission charged with undertaking an 18-month, top-to-bottom review of the entire criminal justice system and offering concrete recommendations for reform; and

WHEREAS, State Senator Ed Jones has sought to establish a joint legislative study committee on exoffender reentry, which is now referred to the Committee on Rules and Operations of the N.C. Senate; and

WHEREAS, North Carolinians depend on their government, national and state, to maintain their safety and security and expect it to be reliable and fair in addition to being effective at deterring crime and punishing offenders. The N.C. Department of Correction has an annual budget of $1,300,000,000, which includes the cost of $23,000 to incarcerate an individual per year of confinement. The cost of prison construction is approximately $80,000 per bed, and

WHEREAS, the criminal justice system, both national and state, has deteriorated to the point that it is wasteful and inefficient. With five percent of the world's population, our country houses twenty-five percent of the world's prison population. Incarcerated drug offenders have soared 1,200 percent since 1980. Four times as many mentally ill people are in prisons than in mental health hospitals. The recidivism rate, in national and state prisons, speaks of the ineffectiveness of our current criminal justice system. Our neighborhoods are at risk from gang violence. We should be devoting our monetary and law enforcement resources toward making communities safer; and

WHEREAS, the Committee on Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries of the North Carolina Conference is committed to providing services and opportunities for United Methodists in the North Carolina Conference to achieve and maintain an understanding of prison ministry and the importance of prison reform based on Christian principles;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church in Sacramental faithfulness joins its Committee on Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries in urging our government leaders, state and national, to pass the National Criminal Justice Commission Act of 2009 as well as establish in North Carolina a proposed joint legislative study committee on exoffender reentry; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that copies of this resolution be sent to the North Carolina governor, the President of the United States, North Carolina's congressional delegation; members of the North Carolina legislature; and the state press.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION

United Methodist Foundation, Inc. (UMF) is an independent, non-profit corporation that is related by tradition and faith to the North Carolina Annual Conference through its Board of Institutions. Strengthened by this faithful connection and a rich tradition of excellence in stewardship ministry, the Foundation is chartered to serve only the churches, boards, institutions, agencies and ministries of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Since 1955, the Mission of United Methodist Foundation, Inc. has been to:

- Educate, encourage and receive planned gifts from individuals in support of their local church, United Methodist institutions, and special ministries of the North Carolina Annual Conference.
- Provide professional investment management services for both short-term and long-term funds belonging to local churches, boards, institutions, agencies and special ministries of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

PROFESSIONAL INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT SERVICES

Currently the Foundation assists more than 370 local churches and conference agencies. These investment partnerships provide the potential for greater diversification of investments while minimizing investment costs and maximizing investment returns. At the same time, all funds entrusted to the Foundation are invested according to the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church as guided by the Statement of Investment Guidelines (Revised Edition 2004) of the Investment Committee of the General Council on Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church. A team of professional financial management experts provides the Foundation's Board with ongoing investment management and consultation services while overseeing the day-to-day operations of the Foundation's ten professional fund managers. Currently, the Foundation partners with Graystone Consulting, an institutional management division of Morgan Stanley Smith Barney. Since the beginning of this relationship in 1992, the Foundation has provided its investment partners with an average annual return in the Balanced Fund of 9.03% net of all fees. This is a significant average annual return considering the unprecedented negative impact that dramatically declining stock values had on investments during 2008. During this same time period, the Foundation has added $32 million in increased value to its Balanced Fund while distributing to its investment partners a total of $86 million in support of local missions and ministry. On December 31, 2008, the Foundation managed just over $78.4 million in 827 accounts belonging to churches, agencies, institutions and ministries of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

PLANNED GIVING AND ENDOWMENT EDUCATION SERVICES

While the Foundation's Investment Management Service provides valuable support for ministry throughout the Church, the heart of the Foundation's mission is its Planned Giving, Endowment, and Legacy Building services. These "donor-focused & church-building" services provide specialized planning and technical assistance designed to help individuals accomplish their charitable dreams in concert with their legal, tax and financial advisors. Additionally, the Foundation serves as trustee for individual family endowments, donor-advised funds, and life-income gift plans producing charitable remainder benefits for ministries throughout the Church. As Trustee of these special funds, the Foundation is responsible for ensuring that all charitable remainder amounts and endowment fund earnings support the ministries selected by the donor.

ALL SAINTS CELEBRATION - MEMORIAL SERVICE
NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE – THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 2009 ! 10:45 A.M.
GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

Organ Prelude For All the Saints David Cherwien

*Processional Hymn Sing with All the Saints of Glory

Greeting

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Christ is risen!

He is risen, indeed!

We have gathered in these moments to celebrate the lives of those who have served faithfully through the years and who now share the triumph of Christ.

We affirm with praise and thanksgiving the goodness of our Lord!

Let us rejoice in God's presence with us, in death as in life, among those who mourn as with those who now see Christ face to face.

In the midst of our grief we sing with joy, for God's love is over all that has been made. Blessed be God's glorious name forever!

Psalter Psalm 90

Our God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.

Under the shadow of Thy throne Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone, and our defense is sure.

(reading responsively)

Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

You turn us back to dust, and say, "Turn back, you mortals." For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past, or like a watch in the night.

You sweep them away; they are like a dream, like grass that is renewed in the morning; in the morning it flourishes and is renewed; in the evening it fades and withers.

For we are consumed by your anger; by your wrath we are overwhelmed. You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your countenance. For all our days pass away under your wrath; our years come to an end like a sigh.

(all singing)

Thy Word commands our flesh to dust, "Return, ye sons of men:"
All nations rose from earth at first, and turn to earth again.
A thousand ages in Thy sight are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

*[Please stand, as able]

(reading responsively)

The days of our life are seventy years, or perhaps eighty, if we are strong; even then their span is only toil and trouble; they are soon gone, and we fly away. Who considers the power of your anger? Your wrath is as great as the fear that is due you.

So teach us to count our days that we may gain a wise heart.
Turn, O Lord! How long? Have compassion on your servants!

Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Make us glad as many days as you have afflicted us, and as many years as we have seen evil.

Let your work be manifest to your servants, and your glorious power to their children. Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and prosper for us the work of our hands, O prosper the work of our hands!

(all singing)

Time, like an ever-rolling stream, bears all its sons away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream dies at the opening day.

Our God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last, and our eternal home.

Prayer

Let us pray.

God of the living, we are reminded of our community this day: those who are sitting in this holy place, those who are present in mind and soul, those who have left us recently or long ago. You call all your faithful people Saints, and even in our imperfection, we are grateful to be called to worship you with honor. Let this day be not only a time for memories, but also a time for celebration of our connection throughout the ages. May we bring here our sacrifice of thanks and praise for your sake, and for the sake of all your saints throughout time. Amen.

JOHN BLUE
1929 - 2008

Having fought the good fight, finishing the race, and keeping the faith, Reverend John R. Blue lost his battle with prostate cancer on June 8, 2008 in a Gainesville Hospice Center. He is survived by his wife, Linda, who resides at 4315 NW 60th Terrace, Gainesville, FL 32606, and four children, James, Mark, Sarah and Stephen.

Reverend Blue was born in Poplar Bluff, MO on January 28, 1929, the son of Harry and Ida Blue. He was the fourth of six children born to them.

After being Honorably Discharged from Army service in 1947, Reverend Blue enrolled in the University of Missouri, graduating with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Agriculture on June 5, 1952.

Having received a call from his Lord to the ministry, Reverend Blue then enrolled in Seminary at Duke University the following Fall, receiving a Master of Divinity Degree on June 4, 1956.

He was appointed a Deacon of the Methodist Church in Fayetteville, NC on June 13, 1955 and became ordained as an Elder of said church on June 20, 1956 in St. Louis, MO. He served as minister to various Methodist congregations in North Carolina for 11 ½ years.

On April 15, 1968 Reverend Blue received his Ecclesiastical Endorsement for Appointment as Chaplain to the Veterans Administration, serving in the capacity until his retirement in February of 1996. The following June, he retired from the North Carolina Conference after 43.75 years of faithful service.

Reverend Blue was elected a member in the National Association of Veterans Affairs Chaplains on December 10, 1990 and is listed in Strathmore's Who's Who (2006-2007) as someone who has demonstrated leadership and achievement in their chosen profession.

To all who knew him, Reverend Blue will be fondly remembered for his winning smile, helpful nature, and wise council.

WALTON N. BASS
1920 - 2008

Walton Needham Bass, Sr., 87, a resident of United Methodist Retirement Home, Croasdaile Village in Durham died June 7, 2008. He received a CPA from Kings Business college in Raleigh. He worked as a CPA in Charlotte. He volunteered in the Army during World War II and received the rank of Staff Sergeant in the European Theater. He received an AA degree from Louisburg College in 1949. While there, he met Emma Deane Simmons from Burgaw and they were married in 1948.

He served the Rougemont Charge (4 churches), Woodington & Webbs Charge, Beach Grove Charge (3), Trenton Charge (3), Norman Charge (3), White Plains, Cary and Wellons Village in Durham.

He took a sabbatical and located at Lakewood UMC for his children to finish high school. He taught 17 years in the Durham School and retired in 1986 from both the school system and the NC Conference. He suffered with Parkinson's Disease.

He is preceded in death by his parents V. Needham Bass and Smithie Elizabeth (Bessie) Herring Bass, four brothers Eddison of Farmville, DeWitt of Wilmington, Wesley of Rosewood, Milton E (twin) of Durham, one sister S.E. (Beth) Olson of Fayetteville.

He is survived by his wife of 60 year's Emma Deane Simmons Bass, his son, W. Needham Jr. and wife Parrish of Lexington, NC, grandson Joseph Parrish and granddaughter Christine Plummer and husband Barry and great-granddaughter Kiaya of Lexington. Two sisters Myrtle B. Hodges of Eden, Allene B. Tibbles of Streeter, III. And a brother Will C. Bass of Raleigh, and several nieces and nephews.

A memorial service was held on Saturday, June 21 at 11 AM in the William Few Interfaith Chapel at Croasdaile Village. The Word of Grace and Greeting by the Rev. Denise C. Waters, The Old Testament lesson and The Epistle Lesson by the Rev. Brian Wingo, Pleasant Green UMC, and meditation by the Rev. Milton Hadley, Jr.. Melinda Wilkinson was soloist and Sam Marion was the organist.

JAMES A. AUMAN

The Reverend James A. Auman died on Saturday, June 28, 2008, at his home in McLeansville, NC. Mr. Auman was beloved minister of visitation at Mt. Pleasant United Methodist Church in Greensboro for 14 years before his retirement in 2005.

Mr. Auman was born on March 2, 1923, to Clinton and Claude Auman and grew up with brothers, Forrester and M. C., and sisters, Nancy and Ruth, in the farmlands of Randolph County. He worked in the Wilmington, NC shipyards during WW II and became a United Methodist minister after being educated at High Point College and Duke University. He was a member of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and served pastorates in Stem, Fayetteville, Hertford, Garner, Raleigh, Jacksonville, Henderson and Graham. He was the first executive director of the Association of Methodist Colleges, 1965-69, and was Superintendent of the Wilmington District of the United Methodist Church 1975-1981.

Mr. Auman traveled in Europe in 1958 and around the world in 1960. His slides of the Holy Land revealed sacred religious sites to many Sunday School and membership classes throughout the years. He was devoted to his ministry, gentle with children and nurturing to stray animals. Lake Junaluska United Methodist Assembly was one of his favorite places and his children remember quiet evenings there at the lighted cross. He enjoyed visiting among his congregations, watching Duke basketball, whistling favorite hymns, playing checkers, mastering jigsaw puzzles, and especially in his last months, watching birds and deer from the kitchen window.

He is survived by his cherished wife, Josephine Anderson Boone Auman of McLeansville, and his four children: Dr. Richard Auman and wife Genevieve of Chesapeake, VA; Beth Jennings of Raleigh; Rose Auman and life partner Susan Tillotson of Cary; and Becky Auman of Portland, OR. He was the grandfather of six: Jon and Todd Auman, Angela Thornton, Scott Jennings, Adam Lucas, and Wilkins White; and great-grandfather of 12. His parents and siblings and his wife of 41 years, Mildred Whitener Auman, predeceased him.

A celebration of Mr. Auman's life was held at Mt. Pleasant United Methodist Church, 5120 Burlington Road, Greensboro, NC on Sunday, June 29, 2008 and burial of his ashes followed in October 2008 at Graham Memorial Park, Graham, NC.

GRADY L. KINLEY

Rev. Grady Lee Kinley, 88, of Goldsboro, NC died on June 30, 2008 in Durham Regional Hospital following a brief illness. His funeral was conducted at Seymour Funeral Home in Goldsboro, with the Rev. Martin Armstrong officiating. He was buried alongside of family members at Hebron United Methodist Church in Mebane, NC, with the Rev. Bryan Sexton conducting the graveside service.

Rev. Kinley was born in Davidson County on October 15, 1919 to the late Henry James Kinley and Virginia Terry Kinley. He was a veteran of World War II and a graduate of Duke Divinity School. He was married to the late Mildred Vinson Kinley for 39 years and they had one child, a daughter. During his active pastoral career spanning 32 years, he served in a dozen different churches throughout eastern North Carolina, seeking to spread the gospel and the hope of salvation to all he encountered. Following retirement, Rev. Kinley and his wife moved to Goldsboro and became members of New Hope United Methodist Church.

Rev. Kinley is survived by his daughter, Mary Kinley Warren and her husband, Duncan Warren of Hillsborough, NC; his brother, James Kinley of Mebane, NC; his sisters, Agnes Haste and Elsie Murray of Burlington, NC and his grandson, Robert Alexander Warren, also of Hillsborough.

DORIS FAIRCLOTH
1948 - 2008

Doris Elaine Faircloth was born March 27, 1948 in Garland, North Carolina. Doris peacefully went to Heaven on July 1, 2008. Her earthly body lies at peace in the Sunrise Cemetery near Roseboro, North Carolina.

Doris was the wife of Robert Faircloth for over 35 years. Together they raised two children, Monica and Brandon. Doris was a devout Christian woman and served as a children's Sunday school teacher at Holland's Chapel Pentecostal Holiness Church for 27 years. She was a faithful partner in her husband's pastoral ministry in the United Methodist Church, which he began in July 2006 at Johnson Memorial UMC in Fayetteville, NC.

A creative person, Doris enjoyed crafting and has left her family and friends with numerous priceless treasures that will remind us of her always. Doris was also extremely organized and detail oriented, traits that served her well as a legal secretary at Holland, Poole, Holland, and Sanderson PA in Clinton, NC for 34 years. Doris also used her gifts to organize and throw the best parties in Sampson County, if not all of North Carolina. Through these parties, she created memories that will be cherished forever.

In addition to her husband, Doris is survived by her daughter Monica, son-in-law Jay Crolle and their 11 month-old twin boys, Jake and Mitchell, of Greenville, North Carolina, her son Brandon and daughter-in-law Ashley Faircloth of Roseboro, North Carolina.

Although Doris did not meet her first grandchildren, there is no doubt that she is constantly watching over them and loves them dearly. Always the caregiver, one of the last things that Doris was able to say to Monica was "Love those boys." She was adored by all who knew her, and is greatly missed by her family and friends. All who met her were truly blessed.

SHARI BUTSON
1951 - 2008

Sharon was born on August 4, 1951 in LaPlata, Maryland. She joined the Church Victorious on July 1, 2008 at the parsonage of Asbury United Methodist Church in Cove City, North Carolina after a courageous fight with cancer. She was the oldest daughter of Robert H. and Jean S. Trueman of Aquasco, Maryland. Sharon (Shari) faithfully served beside her husband on the LeCenter –Cleveland Charge in LeCenter, Minnesota, then many churches in the North Carolina Annual Conference from 1977 until her death. A Service of Death and Resurrection was held at Asbury United Methodist Church on July 3, 2008. Reverend Leland Heath and Reverend Mike Register officiated for the family. A second Memorial Service was held at Immanuel United Methodist Church in Baden, Maryland, her home church, on July 7, 2008. Reverend Jim Hunt and Reverend Jack George served the family there. Interment was in the Immanuel UMC cemetery. Shari is survived by her mother, Jean Trueman Grimes of Aquasco, Maryland, three sisters: Janice Lee Diedrich of Dillon, Montana, Nancy Norris of Jackson, Michigan and Amy Hanson of Anderson, South Carolina. She is also survived by two sons: Joel Andrew and wife Amanda of Gainesville, Va., and Scott Ian of Mountain View, CA. Her husband, John, continues to serve Asbury UMC. Sharon taught at Pamlico Community College, Richmond Community College, Sycamore Lane Middle School in Laurinburg, Central Elementary School in Laurinburg, C.S. Brown Elementary in Winton, Rich Square Elementary, and Willis Hare Elementary, and lastly J.W. Smith Elementary near Cove City. She loved children and loved teaching them using all kinds of different methods. She loved to entertain at home, to sing with the choirs, to travel and she loved her family. She made each parsonage a personal home and haven for her family. She lived and loved and shared with everyone and now enjoys the inheritance of the saints. She abides in the loving presence of our Risen Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ. Thanks be to God.

CLINGMAN CARTER CAPPS

Clingman was born in Flat Rock, N.C. to Richard Clingman and Bessie Lee Fore Capps on March 20, 1931. Later, his family moved to Black Mountain, N.C. Clingman's mother passed away when he was eleven months old.

Clingman graduated from Black Mountain High and received a football scholarship to continue his education at Newberry College. Unfortunately, he was forced to drop out of Newberry due to illness. He was later able to pursue his educational career at Montreat College, just two miles from his home. While attending Montreat College, he met Patricia Lewis who was to become his wife.

After marriage, Clingman and Patricia moved to Reidsville, N.C. where he worked for his father-in-law during the day and attended Elon College (now Elon University) at night. While attending Elon, he became a Lay Pastor and went into the Methodist ministry after graduation.

Clingman was first given a four-point charge, the Pittsboro Circuit. At the same time, he continued his ministerial education at Duke Seminary. Next, while still attending Duke Seminary, he was appointed to the Haw River Church. After graduating from Duke, the next appointment was Murfreesboro Methodist Church. Clingman continued to serve in Sanford, Richlands (where he earned his doctorate in Edinburgh, Scotland), Snow Hill, and Havelock. He had a successful building program in all churches in which he served.

During his ministry, he battled with the disease Multiple Sclerosis. He never allowed this disease to interfere with his ministry, and he always had the support of his family.

Clingman and Pat proudly reared eight children. At the time of his passing on August 7, 2008 in Reidsville, N.C., his family had grown to include thirteen grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Clingman loved the ministry and never disappointed his congregations. After retirement, he continued to provide service to his community by preaching and by becoming Chairman of the Mayor's Committee on Disabilities and chaplain of Annie Penn Hospital. Clingman's entire ministry was truly a labor of love. He never turned away a needy person and he never gave up his battle with MS.

His family held a memorial service on August 10, 2008 at Woodmont United Methodist Church in Reidsville, N.C. Reverend Roger Cope, a long-time friend of the family presided over the service. He is survived by his wife, Patricia Lewis Capps of the home; daughter, Nancy Carol Capps; son, John Clingman Capps and wife, Carolyn; son, Mark Edwin Capps and wife, Pam; daughter, Pam; daughter, Julia Annette Capps Jenkins and husband, Doug; son, Richard Clingman Capps; son, Scott Edwin Lewis; and daughter Shannon Marie Lewis.

We miss him!

JOHN H. CRUM

1926 - 2008

John Hammond Crum, "Jack", 81, of Littleton, died September 20, 2008. His funeral was held at Edenton Street United Methodist Church with Reverends Edward Hill II, Dr. Vernon Tyson, Wesley Brown, James Ferree, William Wells and Mr. Lynn James officiating. Burial was at Montlawn Memorial Park.

Jack is survived by his wife, Kay Sugg Crum, son, Bart Hammond Crum and wife, Marsha Hobbs Crum and grandchildren, Braeden Crum, Braxton Crum and Chase Crum of Wake Forest, North Carolina.

He was born to Obara Walker Crum and Hammond Milton Crum in Augusta, Georgia on November 22, 1926. The family moved around, but finally settled down in Raleigh, NC where he lived most of his life.

He graduated from Needham Broughton High School in 1945. He attended NC State College 1945-46, University of NC 1946-47 and graduated from Emory University in 1951. He taught fifth grade at Rowland Norment Elementary School in Lumberton from 1951-1952.

He answered his call to enter the Methodist Ministry by enrolling in the Duke Divinity School in 1952. He became a deacon in 1955 and an elder in 1956 in the North Carolina Conference. He received the first Doctorate of Ministry from Boston University in 1975.

Dr. Crum served as a United Methodist minister of the North Carolina Conference from 1953-1989. He served Methodist Churches including Pleasant Grove, Avent Ferry, Hope Mills, Moncure Charge, South Rosemary, New Hope, Benson, Elevation, City Road, Mount Zion, Carr, Salem and Chartley Charge in Massachusetts. His ministry was driven by a passionate commitment to "social gospel" Christianity and the conviction that the church must labor to redeem social structures as well as individual hearts.

He also served as the Director of Christian Social Action for the North Carolina Council of Churches from 1964-1969. His passion was created by the urgency of the race issue of the sixties, and he provided courageous and skillful leadership in that area. He organized the first Council's legislative seminars and had fierce devotion to justice and peace. In 1997 he received the Distinguished Service Award from the NC Council of Churches.

Dr. Crum battled Type I diabetes almost his entire life. He refused to let this be a detriment in his life. Even with this challenge he was able to do extensive traveling in his lifetime to include all fifty states and all seven continents including more than fifty countries.

In 1990 Jack and Kay created the Endowment for a Prophetic Church to encourage churches to engage in social change ministry. They also established a Scholarship Endowment Fund for Prophetic Ministries with Duke University Divinity School in 2000 to assist the education of the students for an informed activism that confronts both system and prejudices for constructive change.

Jack Crum often disturbed the powers in church and society because of his fierce devotion to justice and peace. He did not shy away from controversy for confrontation when the gospel seemed to require it. Neither job security nor career advancement was his guiding lights. His was a source of inspiration and encouragement to many who were struggling to be faithful in a tumultuous time.

To honor his memory and advance the cause of Justice, the Methodist Federation of Social Action of the NC Conference held the first Jack Crum Conference on Prophetic Ministry, "A Cry in the Wilderness," February 21, 2009. It was planned at a time to become familiar with needs, opportunities and challenges for local and international ministry and to rekindle a passion to serve all God's people.

PINEAR W. EPPS

1924 - 2008

As the sun rose on Christ the King Sunday, Nov. 23, 2008, Pinear Mae (Pat) Epps slipped silently out of her cancer-worn body and stepped into the Throne Room of Heaven, to be welcomed by her Savior and reunited with her husband Ralph, who predeceased her by 10 months and 20 days. A celebration of her life was held on Wednesday, Nov. 26, at Edenton UMC, with the Rev. Charles Moseley and the Rev. Ed Rutenkroger officiating. Burial followed at Beaver Hill Cemetery in Edenton.

Pinear (rhymes with "finer") Mae Windley was born on January 31, 1924, in the Yeatesville community of Beaufort County, NC, to C. S. "Wes" and Ella Keech Windley. She was always proud of being a "farm girl" and gave that as the explanation when a nurse marveled at her stamina after surgery at the age of 83. She was a graduate of Bath High School and East Carolina Teachers College (now ECU). She began her teaching career at Brogden High School in Dudley, NC, and continued for more than 40 years, with time out to raise her children, to teach gifted education, social studies, and home economics in secondary schools all over Eastern North Carolina, including Weldon, Orrum, Alamance County, Rocky Mount, Zebulon, Washington, and Columbia. Letters from her students attest to her ability to establish bonds with them that went beyond "book learning". In the 1970's, she was the director of Operation OURS in Graham, a program established to assist families living in subsidized housing. Under her direction, the program offered activities for senior citizens, childcare, after-school programs, and classes in sewing, cooking, and parenting.

In 1946, she was in Pikeville for the funeral of her uncle, the Rev. Whitford Walters, and she met his associate pastor, Duke Divinity student Ralph Epps. They were married on August 21, 1947, and like countless other ministers' wives, her life became dedicated to his calling as they served together in ministry in Stem, Maxton, Laurel Hill, Grifton, Weldon, Fairmont, Mebane, Rocky Mount, Raleigh, Washington, and Edenton, becoming known to their congregations as "Preacher & Pat", a true team. Until her illness prevented her from continuing to serve, she taught Sunday School and played the piano for services at Bethany UMC in Belvidere, her husband's last charge.

Mama will be remembered for her love of hummingbirds, cats (especially Mitzi), Lake Junaluska, Duke basketball, coffee & the crossword puzzle, collards, beating everyone at Scrabble, playing the piano for family sing-alongs (Eppsing), having a table full of children and grandchildren feasting on one of her delicious meals, and life with her beloved Ralph.

She is survived by her children, Barbara Tuttle of Richmond, VA, Ralph Isaac, Jr., of Edenton, and Karen Owens of Raleigh; and her grandchildren, Carolyn Tuttle, Debbie T. Phillips and husband Jon, David Epps, Malia Epps, and Jonathan Owens. She is also survived by her brother, Charles "C.B." Windley and wife Jean of Yeatesville, her sister, Barbara "Bobbie" Windley of Oxford, her brother-in-law, Case Van Wyk of Terra Ceia, and a loving family of nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her sisters, Lucille Windley and husband James, Ethial Stell and husband Otis, and Ellene Van Wyk.

Daddy died in January, right after Christmas, and Mama died just before Thanksgiving. As one granddaughter put it, "For more than 60 years, they had never spent the holidays apart, and they weren't about to start now!"

CLYDE M. CREECH

1935 - 2009

Clyde McGee Creech, 73, of LaGrange, NC died January 12, 2009. A service of remembrance was held at Bethel United Methodist Church with the Reverends Jim Williams, Jerry Mitchell, and Reynolds Smith officiating. Burial was Mewborn Family Cemetery.

He was born November 30, 1935 in Greene County to the late John and Clyde Worrell Creech. McGee was preceded in death by a son, Clyde McGee Creech, Jr. and survived by his wife of 52 years, Leatrice Smith Creech.; daughter, Lisa Creech Price and special friend Steve Jones and his son Nick of Goldsboro; three grandchildren, Alyssa Price, Clyde Root and Christi Newcomb and husband Joe; and three great-grandchildren, Regan, Josh and Katie Newcomb.

McGee graduated from Duke University with a Master of Divinity and served United Methodist Churches in Wayne, Johnston, and Harnett counties with 33 years of that service being at Garriss Chapel United Methodist Church in LaGrange. He retired as Assistant Administrator of Cherry Hospital in Goldsboro following 28 years of service. After retiring from the ministry, McGee returned to Bethel United Methodist Church where he attended as a child until he began his own ministry. He had been a member of Bethel United Methodist Church for 61 years. He served as president of the Fellowship School Class, United Methodist Men's Club, and the building Committee. He spent numerous volunteer hours in the actual building of a new fellowship hall and educational building.

McGee was also an avid antique car enthusiast with a 1953 Chevrolet Bel Air and 1964 Ford Mustang among his collection.

CHARLES SPENCE HUBBARD

Charles S. Hubbard, 95, of Pittsboro, NC was born December 12, 1913 in Sanford, NC. He grew up in the old Steele Street UMC. Charlie graduated from UNC and Duke Divinity School, then married Mercer Reeves Hubbard in 1938. They had four children. Rev. Martha Hubbard Forrest of the North Georgia Conference; Charles Spence Hubbard, Jr. of Fort Lauderdale, FL, Tim Hubbard of North Carolina and John Hubbard of Alamance County, NC. Charlie and Mercer were blessed to have 9 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

Charlie served a five-point charge in Roseboro; Hillsborough UMC and New Sharon UMC, a two-point charge; Trinity UMC in Raleigh; University UMC in Chapel Hill; Wilson First UMC in Wilson; and Duke Memorial UMC in Durham. He retired in the 70s and lived in Pittsboro. While retired, he served Trinity UMC in Sanford and Hickory Mountain UMC outside of Pittsboro.

Charlie died February 16, 2009 at his home, Hackberry Hill, in Pittsboro. He is buried at the Pittsboro UMC cemetery with his wife Mercer. Rev. Jan Hill of Pittsboro UMC, Rev. Ray Gooch and Rev. Tommy Smith officiated at the celebration.

Charlie was known for his strong preaching and leadership in the NC Conference. He loved the Lord and was an able leader in all the churches he was privileged to serve. His methods were, at times, unorthodox and adventuresome, but God blessed his ministry.

His children and grandchildren are blessed with many memories of a human, yet fun father.

Martha Hubbard Forrest

RICHARD DARYL HAWKINS

1951-2009

Richard Daryl "Rick" Hawkins, 58, of 415 Hancock Street, Oxford, NC, died April 22 at his home from complications following a stem cell transplant for prolymphocytic leukemia.

He is survived by his wife, Patricia Freeman Hawkins, his daughters, Kathryn Lucille Hawkins of Smyrna, GA, and Sara Lauren Hawkins of Durham, NC, as well as his brothers and sisters-in-law Ron and Margaret Hawkins, Bill and Rose Hawkins, and Tom and Trudy Hawkins. He is also survived by nephew Jeff Hawkins, his wife Julie, and their children, Liana and Keaton; niece Allison Merchant and husband Fareed; nephew Bill Hawkins, his wife Cathy, and their children Brandon and Olivia; niece Beth Kinney, her husband Robert, and their son Nathaniel; niece Karen Pittman, her husband Loren, and their children Claire and Leah; and nephew Keith Hawkins. Rick leaves behind an extended network of friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Rainey and Inez Hawkins, of Durham.

Rick was born in Durham and was a graduate of Durham High School, the University of North Carolina, the NC School of Banking, and NC Advanced Commercial Lending School.

He was employed as a Vice President for Fidelity Bank, worked as a commercial lender, and was instrumental in establishing Fidelity's first Durham branch. Rick considered himself a "creative lender" and loved banking because it allowed him to help people realize their dreams.

Rick was a member of Oxford United Methodist Church, where he served as a choir member. Rick had previously served as a lay leader in several area churches, including Calvary United Methodist and Resurrection United Methodist in Durham, and Christ United Methodist in Chapel Hill.

He was also a Life Scout and was a member of the Exchange Club of Greater Durham for 19 years.

Rick was an avid UNC fan, and enjoyed Carolina football and basketball, as well as kayaking, biking, and RV camping.

At Rick's request, his body was donated to Duke Medical Center for autopsy, in the hope that future patients may benefit from the knowledge obtained from Rick's illness. A memorial Service of Death and Resurrection was held at Duke Memorial United Methodist Church, 504 W. Chapel Hill Street, Durham, NC, at 2pm, April 25th. The Reverends E. Powell Osteen, C. Gregory Moore, and Hannah McManus officiated.

Memorial donations were made in Rick's honor to Oxford United Methodist Church, PO Box 757, Oxford, NC, 27565, or to the Hawkins Fund, c/o Fidelity Bank, 3016 Shannon Rd, Durham, NC, 27707, which will be used to establish a chapel at the Duke Adult Bone Marrow Transplant Clinic.

RENE ORVILLE BIDEAUX
1931-2009

Rene O. Bideaux, 77 of Asheville, NC died May 13, 2009. A memorial service was held at Biltmore United Methodist Church in Asheville with the Reverends Maria Edmonds and Richard Smyth officiating.

Rene is survived by his wife, Rebecca Edge Bideaux; two daughters, Elise Beckstett of Houston, TX and Deborah Gibbs of Manteo, NC, four granddaughters and a sister, Alicia Weiland of York, PA. He was preceded in death by his son, Charles Hubert Bideaux, who died April 4, 2009.

Rene was born to Charles Orville Bideaux and Marjorie Whiteley in Meadville, Pennsylvania. He came to North Carolina to study forestry at N.C. State University, graduating in 1954. After two years in the forestry field, he felt called into the ministry, began seminary studies at Duke University, received his Bachelor of Divinity degree and was ordained in the United Methodist Church. He later earned the Master of Sacred Theology from Boston University.

During his 38 years in ministry, Rene and Rebecca served as missionaries in Costa Rica for five years; he served pastorates in North Carolina, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island, and was District Superintendent in Connecticut and Massachusetts. He was Director of the Hinton Rural Life Center in Hayesville, NC before serving seven years as Associate General Secretary, National Division of the General Board of Global Ministries. His final pastoral appointment was in Chapel Hill, NC before retiring to Lake Junaluska on January 1, 1994.

Following retirement, Rene devoted ten years to the Academy for Spiritual Formation of The Upper Room. His collection, "A Book of Personal Prayer" was published in 1997. From 2004 to 2009 he served as chaplain of the Brooks Howell Home in Asheville.

In addition to his many years in the ministry, he enjoyed square dancing and ballroom dancing with Rebecca. He was a fan of good food and enjoyed travel and family gatherings.

HISTORICAL STATMENT

I. COMPOSITION

The North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church is composed of:

- A. The eastern portion of the former North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Protestant Church.
- B. The former North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church South.
- C. The coastal region of the former Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church.
- D. The Eastern District, North Carolina-Virginia Conference, Central Jurisdiction.

II. ORGANIZATION

The organizing dates of the four former Conferences were as follows:

- A. The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Protestant Church 1828, at Whitaker's Chapel in Halifax County, North Carolina.
- B. The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 1837.
- C. The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, 1879, at Greensboro, North Carolina, first named Southern Central Conference; two years later, 1881, renamed Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference.
- D. The Eastern District North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference was organized at a special session on August 11, 1964, at Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina.

III. SESSIONS OF THE CONSTITUENT CONFERENCES BEFORE UNION IN 1939: (See 1988 Journal.)

IV. UNION: The Unification of the North Carolina Conferences was accomplished by the Unification of the three major branches of American Methodism in the United States at Kansas City, Missouri, May 10, 1939.

V. SESSIONS SINCE UNION IN 1939: (See 1988 Journal.)

VI. SESSIONS OF OTHER CONFERENCES: (See 1988 Journal.)

ALPHABETICAL ROLL OF CLERGY IN THE NC CONFERENCE WITH STATUS AND PASTORAL RECORDS
2009 - 2010

Note: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference clergy, both effective and retired. These records include only service in the North Carolina Conference. Note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the far right hand column indicate the number of years service under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference, after being received into the Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions
